BRIEF FACTS OF THE CASE:

M/S. MANGALAM ALLOYS LTD. 3125, Phase- III, GIDC Chhatral District Gandhinagar- 382729 (herein after referred to as “M/s Mangalam “ or “the importer” or “the noticee”, for the sake of brevity) is having an Import Export Code (IEC) 0889003076.

2. The said importer filed Bill of Entry No. 429463 dated 08.01.2014 for re-import of “Stainless Steel Fastners Head Screws/ Nuts” falling under CTSH 73181500 of first schedule of Customs Tariff Act, 1975, by availing benefit of S. No. 2 of Notification No. 158 /1995-Cus. dated 14.11.1995, as amended.

3. Sr. No. 2 of the Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. provides exemption to the goods manufactured in India and re-imported for (a) reprocessing; or (b) refining or (c) re-marking; or any process similar to the processes referred in (a) to (c), when such re-importation takes place within 1 year from the date of exportation and such goods are re-exported within six months of the date of re-importation or such extended period not exceeding a further period of six months as the Commissioner of Customs may allow. The relevant excerpts is as below:-

S.No.	Description of goods	Conditions

2.	Goods manufactured in India and	1. Such re-importation takes place within one year from the date of exportation.

reimported for (a) reprocessing; or (b) refining; or (c) re-marking; or (d) subject to any process similar to the processes referred to in clauses (a) to (c) above.	2. Goods are re-exported within six months of the date of re-importation or such extended period not exceeding a further period of six months as the Commissioner of Customs may allow; 3. The Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs, is satisfied as regards identity of the goods. 4. The importer executes a bond to the effect - (a) that such reprocessing, refining or remaking or similar processes shall be carried out in any factory under Central Excise control following the procedure laid down under rule 173MM of the Central Excise Rules, 1944 or in a Customs bond provisions of section 65 of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962); (b) that he shall maintain a due account of the use of the said re-imported goods received in the premises specified in item (a) above and shall produce the said accounts duly certified by the officer of Central Excise or Customs, as the case may be, in-charge of the factory or the bonded premises to the effect that the goods tendered for re-import are reprocessed, refined or remade or subjected to any process, as the case may be, from the said re-imported goods; (c) that in case any waste or scrap arising during such operations and the importer agrees to destroy the same before the officer of Central Excise or Customs, as the case may be, or to pay on such waste or scrap the appropriate duties of customs as if such waste or scrap is imported; (d) that he shall pay, on demand, in the event of his failure to comply with any of the aforesaid conditions, an amount equal to the difference between the duty leviable on such goods at the time of importation but for the exemption contained herein. Provided that in case of reprocessing, refining or remaking or similar process, if any loss of imported goods is noticed during such operations, the quantity of such loss shall be exempted from the whole of the duties of customs (basic customs duty and additional customs duty, etc.) subject to the satisfaction of the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs that such loss has occurred during such operations.

3.1 As per one of the conditions of Sr. No. 2 of Notification No. 158/95-Cus., the whole of the duty of Customs specified in the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (51 of 1975) and the whole of the additional duty leviable under section 3 of the said Customs Tariff Act, is exempted subject to the condition that Goods are re-exported within six months of the date of re-importation or such extended period not exceeding a further period of six months as the Commissioner of Customs may allow.

3.2 In terms of the conditions of Notification No. 158/1995-Cus., the importer is also required to execute a bond, undertaking inter-alia to pay, on demand, in the event of his failure to comply with any of the conditions, an amount equal to the difference between the duty levied at the time of re-import and the duty leviable on such goods at the time of importation but for the exemption contained in the said Notification. As per the condition of the said Notification, the said importer submitted Bond for Rs. 30,00,000/- which has been registered with Bond No. 2000598807 dated 04.02.2014 at ICD - Khodiyar.

3.3 It has been observed during the course of audit from the EDI Systems and available records that the said importer had neither applied for extension of the period for re-export, nor had such extension of period for re-export been allowed to them. However, even after expiry of one year from the import of the said goods, the said importer had not submitted proof of re-exportation of the said goods to the satisfaction of the Deputy / Assistant Commissioner of Customs, as required under the conditions of Notification No. 158/95-Cus.

4. Therefore, as the benefit of Notification No. 158/1995-Cus does not appear admissible to the said importer, consultative clarification letter of Bill of Entry File of No. 4299453/Mangalam/2015 dated 30.06.2016 had been issued to the importer. The importer vide letter Ref. No. MAL/Re-import/BE/-4299453 dated 08.07.2016 inter-alia submitted that they has re-imported Stainless Steel Fasteners Hexagon Nuts of different sizes under Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. Dated 14.11.1995 for the purpose of rectifying quality issues in said products i.e. for repair, reconditioning etc. It has further been submitted that they had exported said goods vide Shipping Bill No. 4660438 dated 26.03.2013 (ARE-1 No. 115/2013-14 dated 25.03.2013, goods removed from the factory for export under claim for rebate) and No. 5589158 dated 24.05.2013 (ARE No. 11/2013-14 dated 23.05.2013, goods removed from factory under Letter of Undertaking) under claim of Duty Drawback under Customs and Central Excise Duties Drawback Rules, 1995. The importer has further submitted that due to cancellation of the order of overseas buyer, they could not re-export said goods after having been repaired in their factory and it was not possible to re-export the said goods to the said buyer.

4.1 The importer, vide aforesaid letter dated 08.07.2024, submitted that this situation compelled them to follow the provisions of Notification No. 94/1996-Cus. dated 16.12.1996 and regularize the re-import of said goods. It has been submitted that they, therefore had paid following amount as stipulated in Sr. No. 1 of the Table appended to said Notification and discharged the statutory obligation.

Amount (in Rs.)	Description	Challan No. and Date
64,573/-	Drawback	2019 dated 25.02.2016

33,056/-	Interest on Drawback	2019 dated 25.02.2016
2,61,769/-	Countervailing Duty (CVD)	2022 dated 25.02.2016

4.2 The importer also referred to and relied upon the decision of Hon'ble CESTAT in the case of HGI Industries Ltd. Versus Commissioner of Central Excise, & Customs., Vadodara [2007 (209) ELT 148 (Tri. – Ahmd.)].

4.3 It has been observed that in the case of Commissioner of Customs, Calcutta Versus Indian Rayon & Industries Ltd. [2008 (229) E.L.T. 3 (S.C.)], the assessee had initially claimed the benefit of Notification No. 158/95-Cus. in the Bill of Entry and also executed bonds for re-export, as required under the said notification. The assessee could not re-export the goods due to recessionary conditions in the textile industry. It claimed that since it was not possible for it to re-export the goods, it may be allowed the benefits of another Notification No. 94/96-Cus., which was in force at the time of clearance from the factory originally. In this case, Hon'ble Supreme Court, inter-alia held that having availed of the benefit of notification, the assessee has necessarily to comply with the conditions of the notification; that it goes without saying that the assessee cannot approbate and reprobate; that of course, there is no estoppel against the law but having sought for and taken the benefit of the notification to import goods without payment of duty, it is not open to the assessee to contend that the conditions in the said notification need not be fulfilled, be it on the ground that the benefit under another notification is available to him or otherwise.

4.4 In view of the aforesaid judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the contention of the importer to follow the provisions of Notification No. 94/1996-Cus. dated 16.12.1996 to regularize the re-import of goods re-imported by availing benefit of Notification No, 158/1995-Cus. does not appear legal and proper.

5. As per the provisions of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962, the said imported goods were allowed clearance by proper officer on execution of bond by the importer wherein the importer bounded themselves to discharge liability in certain manner, which they have failed to do so inasmuch as the said importer has not submitted documentary evidence pertaining to re-export of the subject goods within prescribed time limit. Thus, the said importer appears to have not complied with the conditions of the said Notification, and undertaking given in the Re-export Bond.

5.1 It appeared that the said importer is liable to pay duty of Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakhs Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only), as mentioned in Annexure-A to this show cause notice, on the said imported goods along with interest at the applicable rate on the imported goods in terms of conditions of the said Notification and conditions of the bond executed by the importer read with Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962. The importer has already paid duty of Rs. 2,61,769/- (Rupees Two Lakhs Sixty One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty Nine Only) vide Challan No. 2022 dated 25.02.2016, which is required to be adjusted against the aforesaid amount of duty demand.

LEGAL PROVISIONS:

6. The relevant provisions of the Customs Act, 1962 and the rules made there under are as follows:-

(A) "Section 143. Power to allow import or export on execution of bonds in certain cases. -

(1) Where this Act or any other law requires anything to be done before a person can import or export any goods or clear any goods from the control of officers of customs and the 1 [Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs] is satisfied that having regard to the circumstances of the case, such thing cannot be done before such import, export or clearance without detriment to that person, the 1 [Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs] may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or such other law, grant leave for such import, export or clearance on the person executing a bond in such amount, with such surety or security and subject to such conditions as the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs approves, for the doing of that thing within such time after the import, export or clearance as may be specified in the bond.

(2) If the thing is done within the time specified in the bond, the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs shall cancel the bond as discharged in full and shall, on demand, deliver it, so cancelled, to the person who has executed or who is entitled to receive it; and in such a case that person shall not be liable to any penalty provided in this Act or, as the case may be, in such other law for the contravention of the provisions thereof relating to the doing of that thing.

(3) If the thing is not done within the time specified in the bond, the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs] shall, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, be entitled to proceed upon the bond in accordance with law."

(B) SECTION 17. Assessment of duty. —

(1) An importer entering any imported goods under section 46, or an exporter entering any export goods under section 50, shall, save as otherwise provided in section 85, self-assess the duty if any, leviable on such goods.

(C) Section 46(4)

"The importer while presenting a bill of entry shall make and subscribe to a declaration as to the truth of the contents of such bill of entry and shall, in support of such declaration, produce to the proper officer the invoice, if any,

[and such other documents relating to the imported goods as may be prescribed].”

Section 46(4A)

“The importer who presents a bill of entry shall ensure the following, namely

- (a) the accuracy and completeness of the information given therein;
- (b) the authenticity and validity of any document supporting it; and
- (c) compliance with the restriction or prohibition, if any, relating to the goods under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force.]”

(D) Section 112.

Penalty for improper importation of goods, etc.

- Any person,-

- (a) who, in relation to any goods, does or omits to do any act which act or omission would render such goods liable to confiscation under section 111, or abets the doing or omission of such an act, or
- (b) who acquires possession of or is in any way concerned in carrying, removing, depositing, harbouring, keeping, concealing, selling or purchasing, or in any other manner dealing with any goods which he knows or has reason to believe are liable to confiscation under section 111, shall be liable,-
 - (i) in the case of goods in respect of which any prohibition is in force under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, to a penalty [not exceeding the value of the goods or five thousand rupees], whichever is the greater;
 - (ii) [in the case of dutiable goods, other than prohibited goods, subject to the provisions of section 114A, to a penalty not exceeding ten per cent of the duty sought to be evaded or five thousand rupees whichever is higher; Provided that where such duty as determined under sub-section (8) of section 28 and the interest payable thereon under 28AA is paid within thirty days from the date of communication of the order of the proper officer determining such duty, the amount of the penalty liable to be paid by such person under this section shall be twenty-five percent of the penalty so determined]
 - (iii) [in the case of goods in respect of which the value stated in the entry made under this Act or in the case of baggage, in the declaration made under section 77 (in either case hereinafter in this section referred to as the declared value) is higher than the value thereof, to a penalty [not exceeding the difference between the declared value and the value thereof or five thousand rupees] whichever is the greater;
 - (iv) in the case of goods falling both under clauses (i) and (iii), to a penalty [not exceeding the difference between the declared value and the value thereof or five thousand rupees], whichever is the highest;

(v) in the case of goods falling both under clauses (ii) and (iii), to a penalty [not exceeding the duty sought to be evaded on such goods or the difference between the declared value and the value thereof or five thousand rupees], whichever is the highest.]”

(D) Section 114A. Penalty for short-levy or non-levy of duty in certain cases.

- Where the duty has not been levied or has been short-levied or the interest has not been charged or paid or has been part paid or the duty or interest has been erroneously refunded by reason of collusion or any wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts, the person who is liable to pay the duty or interest, as the case may be, as determined under sub-section (8) of section 28 shall also be liable to pay a penalty equal to the duty or interest so determined:]

[Provided that where such duty or interest, as the case may be, as determined under sub-section (8) of section 28, and the interest payable thereon under section 28-AA, is paid within thirty days from the date of the communication of the order of the proper officer determining such duty, the amount of penalty liable to be paid by such person under this section shall be twenty-five per cent. of the duty or interest, as the case may be, so determined:

Provided further that the benefit of reduced penalty under the first proviso shall be available subject to the condition that the amount of penalty so determined has also been paid within the period of thirty days referred to in that proviso:

Provided also that where the duty or interest determined to be payable is reduced or increased by the Commissioner (Appeals), the Appellate Tribunal or, as the case may be, the Court, then, for the purposes of this section, the duty or interest as reduced or increased, as the case may be, shall be taken into account:

Provided also that in a case where the duty or interest determined to be payable is increased by the Commissioner (Appeals), the Appellate Tribunal or, as the case may be, the Court, then, the benefit of reduced penalty under the first proviso shall be available if the amount of the duty or the interest so increased, alongwith the interest payable thereon under section 28-AA, and twenty-five per cent of the consequential increase in penalty have also been paid within thirty days of the communication of the order by which such increase in the duty or interest takes effect:

Provided also that where any penalty has been levied under this section, no penalty shall be levied under section 112 or section 114.

Explanation.-For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that-

(i) the provisions of this section shall also apply to cases in which the order determining the duty or interest under [sub-section (8) of section 28 relates to notices issued prior to the date on which the Finance Act, 2000 receives the assent of the President;

(ii) any amount paid to the credit of the Central Government prior to the date of communication of the order referred to in the first proviso or the fourth proviso shall be adjusted against the total amount due from such person.]

7. In the present case, it appeared that the said importer has failed to discharge the conditions laid down under Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. Dated 14.11.1995 inasmuch as they have not submitted documentary evidence pertaining to re-export of the said containers within prescribed time limit. Thus, the said importer appeared to have not complied with the conditions of the said Notification, and undertaking given in the Re-export Bond. Therefore, the said importer appeared to have wrongly claimed and availed the benefit of the above-mentioned notification and therefore contravened the above said provisions with an intent to evade payment of Customs Duty leviable and payable on the import of subject goods. It appeared that the said importer had contravened the provisions of sub-section (4) and (4A) of Section 46 of the Customs Act, 1962 inasmuch as while filing Bill of Entry, they had to ensure the accuracy and completeness of the information given therein for assessment of Customs duty. Therefore, the said importer appeared liable to pay duty amounting to Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only), as mentioned in Annexure-A to the show cause notice, in respect of the said imported goods along with interest at the applicable rate, in terms of the condition of Re-export Bond executed by the importer and Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 and also the Re-export Bonds and Provisional Duty Bonds furnished by the importer are required to be enforced/appropriated for such recovery. The importer has already paid duty of Rs. 2,61,769/- vide challan No. 2022 dated 25.02.2016, which is required to be adjusted against the afore mentioned amount of duty demand.

8. As per clause (o) of Section 111 of the Customs Act, 1962, any goods exempted, subject to any condition, from duty or any prohibition in respect of the import thereof under the Customs Act, 1962 or any other law for the time being in force, in respect of which the condition is not observed, shall be liable to confiscation. As the exemption under Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. was granted to the said containers of durable nature, subject to the condition of their re-exportation within prescribed time limit, whereas the said condition has not been observed, therefore, the aforesaid goods appeared liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962. Therefore, the said goods (containers of durable nature) totally valued at Rs. 28,66,226/- (Rupees Twenty Eight Lakh Sixty Six Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty Six Only), as mentioned in Annexure-A to the show cause notice, appeared liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962.

9. The aforesaid acts of omission and commission on the part of the said importer appeared to have rendered them liable to penalty as provided under Section 112(a) / 114A of the Customs Act, 1962.

10. Thereafter, a Show Cause Notice was issued to M/s Mangalam Alloys Ltd. 3125, Phase- III, GIDC Chhatral District Gandhinagar- 382729 from F. No. F. No. VIII/22-

12/ICD /Audit/2015 dated 30.07.2024, to show cause to the Additional Commissioner of Customs, as to why:-

- (i) The exemption under Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995, claimed and availed in respect of Bill of Entry No. 4299453 dated 08.01.2014 should not be denied and said Bill of Entry be re-assessed / finalized accordingly;
- (ii) The imported goods of declared Assessable value of Rs. 28,66,226/- (Rupees Twenty Eight Lakh Sixty Six Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty Six Only), should not be held liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 read with conditions of Bond executed in terms of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995 as amended / applicable and why redemption fine should not be imposed in lieu of confiscation under Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962;
- (iii) Duty Forgone amount of Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only) along with applicable interest (from the date of clearance of goods to the date of payment of duty) should not be demanded and recovered from them in terms of conditions of Bond executed under section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. dated 14.11.1995, as amended and duty of Rs. 2,61,769/- already paid by the importer vide Challan No. 2022 dated 25.02.2016 should not be adjusted against the aforesaid amount of duty demand.
- (iv) Penalty should not be imposed on the importer under Section 112(a) / 114A of the Customs Act, 1962 for the acts of omission and commission.
- (v) Re-export Bonds and Provisional Duty Bonds furnished by the importer should not be enforced for recovery of duty, interest, penalty and Redemption Fine, if any.

WRITTEN SUBMISSION AND PERSONAL HEARING:-

11. Accordingly, opportunities to be heard in person were given thrice to M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. on 03.01.2025, which was attended by Shri Ajay Kumar Patel, Sr. Accountant, M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. and he submitted a written submission and requested to drop the proceedings initiated by the aforesaid Show Cause Notice.

12. Vide above said submission, M/s. Mangalam Alloys Limited submitted that:-

- h. They requested to drop the proceedings initiated by the aforesaid SCN and release their bond and Bank Guarantee.

DISCUSSIONS AND FINDINGS:

13. I have carefully gone through the show cause notice, written submissions and record of personal hearing in the present case.
14. Now I proceed to adjudicate the subject show-cause notice dated 30.07.2024. I find that the show cause notice was issued to M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. due to observations of the audit of the EDI Systems and available records that the noticee failed to re-export the said goods in time frame imported under Bill of Entry No. 4299453 dated 08.01.2014. As it was observed from the available records, M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. neither applied for any extension of period for re-export nor such extension of period for re-export has been allowed to them. Therefore, the Customs duty Forgone amount of Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only), appeared to be recoverable along with applicable interest in terms of conditions of Bond executed under section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995 as amended. Also, penalty appeared imposable on the importer under Section 112(a)/114A of the Customs Act, 1962 for the acts of omission and commission.

14.1 Now therefore, the issues before me are to decide:-

- a. Whether the exemption under Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995, in respect of above said Bill of Entry No. 4299453 dated 08.01.2014 is available to the noticee.
- b. Whether the imported goods of declared Assessable value of Rs. 28,66,226/- (Rupees Twenty Eight Lakh Sixty Six Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty Six Only), are liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 read with conditions of Bond executed in terms of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995, as amended.
- c. Whether Duty Forgone amount of Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only) is recoverable along with applicable interest in terms of conditions of Bond executed under section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995, as amended / applicable.
- d. Whether penalty is imposable on the importer under Section 112(a)/114A of the Customs Act, 1962.

14.2 Now, I proceed to decide whether the exemption under Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995, in respect of above said Bill of Entry No. 4299453 dated 08.01.2014 is available to the noticee.

14.2.1 I find that M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. re-imported "Stainless Steel Fastners Head Screws/ Nuts" under Bill of Entry No. 429463 dated 08.01.2014 availing benefit of S. No. 2 of Notification No. 158 /1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995, as amended. I also find that M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. submitted Re-export Bond in respect of Bill of Entry No. 4299453 dated 08.01.2014. I further find In terms of the conditions of Notification No. 158/1995-Cus., the importer is also required to execute a bond, binding himself (a) to export the said containers within the stipulated period and to furnish documentary evidence thereof to the satisfaction of the Assistant Commissioner; and (b) to pay the duty leviable thereon in the event of the importer's failure to do so. The notification exempts the goods manufactured in India, from the whole of the duty of Customs leviable thereon under the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (51 of 1975) and the whole of the additional duty leviable under section 3 of the said Customs Tariff Act, subject to the condition that the said goods are re-exported within six months from the date of their importation or such extended period not exceeding a further period of six months as the Assistant Commissioner of Customs may allow.

14.2.2 I find that M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. failed to re-export the subject goods as per conditions of Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995 within 06 months. I also find from the available records, that the importer had neither applied for extension of the period for re-export, nor such extension of period for re-export, had been allowed to them. Even after expiry of one year from the import of the said goods, the said importer had not submitted proof of re-exportation of the said goods to the satisfaction of the Deputy / Assistant Commissioner of Customs, as required under the conditions of Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. As the said importer had not submitted the required documents and therefore the aforesaid Bonds have not been closed.

14.2.3 Further, I find that they had submitted vide their letter dated 17.12.2014 that due to cancellation of the order of overseas buyer, they could not re-export said goods after having been repaired in their factory and it was not possible to re-export the said goods to the said buyer. They submitted that the situation has compelled them to follow the provisions of Notification No. 94/1996-Cus. Dated 16.12.1996 and regularize the re-import of said goods and under the said notification their case is covered under Sr. No. 1(a), 1(c), and 1(d) of the table, which grants exemption of BCD, Additional Duty leviable under Section 3 of Customs Tariff Act and Special Duty of Customs Leviable under sub-section (1) of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1996. Vide notification no. 21/2012-cus dated 17.03.2012 an exemption has been granted to additional duty of Customs (ADC) leviable under Section 3(5) of Customs Tariff Act (51 of 1975).

14.2.4 However, I find that there was no justification or proof regarding cancellation of the order submitted to this office vide the said letter dated 17.12.2014. I also find that the said letter was submitted after the expiry of Six months from the import date. From the above, I find that failing to re-export the said goods within time limit, they also failed to seek extension within time limit and failed to apply for availing an alternative exemption within time-limit.

14.2.5 Further, I find that the Consultative clarification letter F. No. 4299453/Mangalam/2015 dated 30.06.2016 had been issued to the importer. The importer vide letter Ref. No. MAL/Re-import/BE/-4299453 dated 08.07.2016 inter-alia submitted that they, therefore had paid following amount as stipulated in Sr. No. 1 of the Table appended to said Notification and discharged the statutory obligation:

Amount (in Rs.)	Description	Challan No. and Date
64,573/-	2,61,769/-	2019 dated 25.02.2016
33,056/-	Interest on Drawback	2019 dated 25.02.2016
2,61,769/-	Countervailing Duty (CVD)	2022 dated 25.02.2016

I find from the above, the importer paid the above said amounts suo-moto, without any communication from the jurisdictional office and without consultation or decision by the Jurisdictional authority and also failed to inform regarding such payment. They only informed the said situation only after consultative letter from the jurisdictional office almost 05 months after the payment.

14.2.6 I further find that the importer, vide letter dated 08.07.2024, re-iterated that due to cancellation of their order, the situation compelled them to follow the provisions of Notification No. 94/1996-Cus. dated 16.12.1996 and regularize the re-import of said goods. The importer also referred to and relied upon the decision of Hon'ble CESTAT in the case of HGI Industries Ltd. Versus Commissioner of Central Excise, & Customs., Vadodara reported at 2007 (209) ELT 148 (Tri. – Ahmd.).

14.2.7 It has been observed that in the case of Commissioner of Customs, Calcutta Versus Indian Rayon & Industries Ltd. reported at 2008 (229) E.L.T. 3 (S.C.), the assessee had initially claimed the benefit of Notification No. 158/95-Cus in the Bill of Entry and also executed bonds for re-export, as required under the said notification. The assessee could not re-export the goods due to recessionary conditions in the textile industry. It claimed that since it was not possible for it to re-export the goods, it may be allowed the benefits of another Notification No. 94/96-Cus., which was in force at the time of clearance from the factory originally. In this case, Hon'ble Supreme Court, inter-alia held that:

"12. The Revenue contends that the assessee could not avail the benefit under Notification No. 94/96-Cus. and that it could not change its option. According to the assessee, the assessee could change its option even at a later stage and it could avail of the benefit under Notification No. 94/96-Cus. which was in force at that time.

*13. We do not find any substance in this submission advanced on behalf of the assessee. The only notification which was available to the assessee at the time of import which granted the assessee the right to import duty free goods was Notification No. 158/95-Cus. Having availed of the benefit of notification, the assessee has necessarily to comply with the conditions of the notification. It goes without saying that the assessee cannot approbate and reprobate. In Tractors and Farm Equipment Ltd. v. Collector of Customs, Madras, 1997 (91) E.L.T. 254 (S.C.) = 1998 (9) SCC 665, it was pointed out by this Court that once the assessee's case was that what it had imported do not constitute internal combustion piston engines but only certain components, the importer cannot turn around and say that what was imported constitutes piston engines. Of course, there is no estoppel against the law but having sought for and taken the benefit of the notification to import goods without payment of duty, it is not open to the assessee to contend that the conditions in the said notification need not be fulfilled, be it on the ground that the benefit under another notification is available to him or otherwise.”

14.2.8 I would further like to rely on the judgment of Hon’ble Supreme Court in the matter of M/s. Novopan India Ltd. reported at 1994 (73) ELT 769 (SC), wherein the Hon’ble SC held that:

“18. We are, however, of the opinion that, on principle, the decision of this Court in Mangalore Chemicals - and in Union of India v. Wood Papers referred to therein - represents the correct view of law. The principle that in case of ambiguity, a taxing statute should be construed in favour of the assessee - assuming that the said principle is good and sound - does not apply to the construction of an exception or an exempting provision; they have to be construed strictly. A person invoking an exception or an exemption provision to relieve him of the tax liability must establish clearly that he is covered by the said provision. In case of doubt or ambiguity, benefit of it must go to the State. This is for the reason explained in Mangalore Chemicals and other decisions, viz., each such exception/exemption increases the tax burden on other members of the community correspondingly. Once, of course, the provision is found applicable to him, full effect must be given to it. As observed by a Constitution Bench of this Court in Hansraj Gordhandas v. H.H. Dave [1978 (2) E.L.T. (J 350) (SC) = 1969 (2) S.C.R. 253] that such a Notification has to be interpreted in the light of the words employed by it and not on any other basis. This was so held in the context of the principle that in a taxing statute, there is no room for any intendment, that regard must be had to the clear meaning of the words and that the matter should be governed wholly by the language of the notification, i.e., by the plain terms of the exemption.”

14.2.9 Further, I would like to rely on the judgment of the Constitutional Bench in Hon’ble Supreme Court in the matter of M/s. Dilip Kumar & Company. reported at 2018 (361) ELT 577 (SC), wherein the Hon’ble SC held that:

“48. The next authority, which needs to be referred is the case in Mangalore Chemicals (supra). As we have already made reference to the same earlier, repetition of the same is not necessary. From the above decisions, the following position of law would, therefore, clear. Exemptions from taxation have tendency to increase the burden on the other unexempted class of taxpayers. A person claiming exemption, therefore, has to establish that his case squarely falls within the exemption notification, and while doing so, a notification should be construed against the subject in case of ambiguity.

49. The ratio in Mangalore Chemicals case (supra) was approved by a three-Judge Bench in Novopan India Ltd. v. Collector of Central Excise and Customs, 1994 Supp (3) SCC 606 = 1994 (73) E.L.T. 769 (S.C.). In this case, probably for the first time, the question was posed as to whether the benefit of an exemption notification should go to the subject/assessee when there is ambiguity. The three-Judge Bench, in the background of English and Indian cases, in para 16, unanimously held as follows :

"We are, however, of the opinion that, on principle, the decision of this Court in Mangalore Chemicals - and in Union of India v. Wood Papers, referred to therein - represents the correct view of law. The principle that in case of ambiguity, a taxing statute should be construed in favour of the assessee - assuming that the said principle is good and sound - does not apply to the construction of an exception or an exempting provision, they have to be construed strictly. A person invoking an exception or an exemption provision to relieve him of the tax liability must establish clearly that he is covered by the said provision. In case of doubt or ambiguity, benefit of it must go to the State...."

50. In Tata Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. v. State of Jharkhand, (2005) 4 SCC 272, which is another two-Judge Bench decision, this Court laid down that eligibility clause in relation to exemption notification must be given strict meaning and in para 44, it was further held -

"The principle that in the event a provision of fiscal statute is obscure such construction which favours the assessee may be adopted, would have no application to construction of an exemption notification, as in such a case it is for the assessee to show that he comes within the purview of exemption (See Novopan India Ltd. v. CCE and Customs)."

52. To sum up, we answer the reference holding as under -

(1) Exemption notification should be interpreted strictly; the burden of proving applicability would be on the assessee to show that his case comes within the parameters of the exemption clause or exemption notification.

(2) When there is ambiguity in exemption notification which is subject to strict interpretation, the benefit of such ambiguity cannot be claimed by the subject/assessee and it must be interpreted in favour of the revenue.

(3) The ratio in Sun Export case (supra) is not correct and all the decisions which took similar view as in Sun Export case (supra) stands overruled."

14.2.10 Further, I would like to quote the lines from the case of Collector of Customs, Bangalore & Anr. Vs. M/s. Maestro Motors Ltd. & Anr. 2004 (10) SCALE 253, wherein the Court held:

"It is settled law that to avail the benefit of a notification a party must comply with all the conditions of the Notification. Further, a Notification has to be interpreted in terms of its language."

In view of above case laws, I find that the burden of proving the claim of exemption notification is squarely on the noticee, which he failed to do due to non-observance of conditions of the said notification 158/1995 -Customs. I find that the said importer had neither applied for extension of the period for re-export before expiry of the said time limit, nor such extension of period for re-export has been allowed to them. I also find that, even after expiry of one year from the import of the said goods, the said importer had not submitted proof of re-exportation of the said goods to the satisfaction of the Deputy / Assistant Commissioner of Customs, as required under the conditions of Notification No. 158/1995-Customs. Therefore, I hold that the exemption under Notification No. 158/1995 -Customs dated 14.11.1995, in respect of Bill of Entry No. 4299453 dated 08.01.2014 is NOT available to the noticee i.e. M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. In view of the judgments, I reject the contention of the importer to follow the provisions of Notification No. 94/1996-Cus dated 16.12.1996 to regularize the re-import of goods re-imported by availing benefit of Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. Therefore, I hold that the said goods have not been re-exported within time limits as per the notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995.

14.3 Now I decide whether the imported goods of declared Assessable value of Rs. 28,66,226/- (Rupees Twenty Eight Lakh Sixty Six Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty Six Only), are liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 read with conditions of Bond executed in terms of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995, as amended.

14.3.1 I find from the foregoing Paras that M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. have not fulfilled their conditions of the notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995 by not re-exporting the said goods within Six months or the stipulated time period, therefore, as per Section 143 (3) -

"(3) If the thing is not done within the time specified in the bond, the ^{1/} Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs shall, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, be entitled to proceed upon the bond in accordance with law."

14.3.2 I further find that as per clause (o) of Section 111 of the Customs Act, 1962, any goods exempted, subject to any condition, from duty or any prohibition in respect of the import thereof under the Customs Act, 1962 or any other law for the time being in force, in respect of which the condition is not observed, shall be liable to confiscation. As the exemption under Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. was granted to the said re-imported goods subject to the condition of their re-exportation within prescribed time limit, whereas the said condition has not been observed, therefore, the aforesaid goods appear liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962.

14.3.3 I find that in terms of Section 17 of the Customs Act, "self-assessment" has been provided for the duty on import and export goods by the importer or exporter himself by filing a bill of entry or shipping bill as the case may be, in the electronic form, as per Section 46 or 50 respectively. Thus, under self-assessment, it is the importer or exporter who will ensure that he declares the correct classification, applicable rate of duty, value, benefit, or exemption notification claimed, if any in respect of the imported/exported goods while presenting Bill of Entry or Shipping Bill. In the present case, it is evident that the actual facts were only known to the noticee and aforesaid fact came to light only subsequent to the in-depth investigation. Further I find that the noticee was not able to justify the delay in the re-export. I find that the said importer has failed to discharge the conditions laid down under Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. dated 14.11.1995 inasmuch as they have not submitted documentary evidence pertaining to re-export of the said re-imported goods within prescribed time limit. Thus, I find that M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. have violated the provisions of Section 46 (4) of the Customs Act, 1962 and these acts on part of M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. I hold the imported goods valued at Rs. 28,66,226/- (Rupees Twenty Eight Lakh Sixty Six Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty Six Only), liable to confiscation under Section 111 (o) of the Customs Act, 1962.

14.3.4 As the impugned goods are found liable to confiscation under Section 111 (o) of the Customs Act, 1962, I find it necessary to consider as to whether redemption fine under Section 125(1) of Customs Act, 1962 is liable to be imposed in lieu of confiscation in respect of the imported goods, which are not physically available for confiscation. The Section 125 (1) of the Customs Act, 1962 reads as under:-

"125 Option to pay fine in lieu of confiscation –

(1) Whenever confiscation of any goods is authorised by this Act, the officer adjudging it may, in the case of any goods, the importation or exportation whereof is prohibited under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, and shall, in the case of any other goods, give to the owner of the goods [or, where such owner is not known, the person from whose possession or custody such goods have been seized,] an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such fine as the said officer thinks fit..."

14.3.5 I find that though, the goods are not physically available for confiscation and in such cases redemption fine is imposable in light of the judgment in the case of M/s. Visteon Automotive Systems India Ltd. reported at 2018 (009) GSTL 0142 (Mad) wherein the Hon'ble High Court of Madras has observed as under:

23. The penalty directed against the importer under Section 112 and the fine payable under Section 125 operates in two different fields. The fine under Section 125 is in lieu of confiscation of the goods. The payment of fine followed up by payment of duty and other charges leviable, as per sub-section (2) of Section 125, fetches relief for the goods from getting confiscated. By subjecting the goods to payment of duty and other charges, the improper and irregular importation is sought to be regularised, whereas, by subjecting the goods to payment of fine under sub-section (1) of Section 125, the goods are saved from getting confiscated. Hence, the availability of the goods is not necessary for imposing the redemption fine. The opening words of Section 125, "Whenever confiscation of any goods is authorised by this Act", brings out the point clearly. The power to impose redemption fine springs from the authorisation of confiscation of goods provided for under Section 111 of the Act. When once power of authorisation for confiscation of goods gets traced to the said Section 111 of the Act, we are of the opinion that the physical availability of goods is not so much relevant. The redemption fine is in fact to avoid such consequences flowing from Section 111 only. Hence, the payment of redemption fine saves the goods from getting confiscated. Hence, their physical availability does not have any significance for imposition of redemption fine under Section 125 of the Act. We accordingly answer question No. (iii).

14.3.6 I also find that Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat by relying on this judgment, in the case of Synergy Fertilchem Ltd. Vs. Union of India, reported in 2020 (33) G.S.T.L. 513 (Guj.), has followed the dictum as laid down by the Madras High Court. In view of the above, I find that subject goods can be allowed to be redeemed on payment of redemption fine under Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962, hence redemption fine in lieu of confiscation is imposable on the said imported goods.

14.4 Now, I decide Whether Duty Forgone amount of Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only) is recoverable along with applicable interest in terms of conditions of Bond executed under section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Sr. No. 1 of Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995, as amended / applicable.

14.4.1 I find from the foregoing Paras that M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. have not fulfilled their conditions of the notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995 by not re-exporting the said goods within Six months or the stipulated time period.

14.4.2 I find that the importer had executed RE-Bond, binding himself to re-export the said goods within six months from the date of their importation and to furnish documentary evidence thereof to the satisfaction of the said the Deputy/Assistant Commissioner and to pay the duty leviable thereon in the event of the importer's failure to do so. However, as discussed in foregoing paras, the importer have neither re-exported the same within time nor paid the Customs duty leviable thereon in terms of claw

the Bonds executed by them. At this juncture, it is to mention that the term "Bond" is not defined under the Customs Act, 1962. However, the same has been defined under Sub-section (5) of Section 2 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 as under:

(5) "Bond" —"Bond" includes—

(a) any instrument whereby a person obliges himself to pay money to another, on condition that the obligation shall be void if a specified act is performed, or is not performed, as the case may be;

(b) any instrument attested by a witness and not payable to order or bearer, whereby a person obliges himself to pay money to another; and

(c) any instrument so attested, whereby a person obliges himself to deliver grain or other agricultural produce to another:

Likewise, Section 2(d) of The Limitation Act, 1963 defines the term 'Bond' as under:

(d) "bond" includes any instrument whereby a person obliges himself to pay money to another, on condition that the obligation shall be void if a specified act is performed, or is not performed, as the case may be;

14.4.3 In light of the definition of the term 'Bond' it is expressly clear that the importer has undertaken the obligation to pay Customs Duty alongwith Interest in the event of non-fulfilment of export obligation. Such act of the importer to the effect of not paying Customs Duty along with Interest tantamount to dishonouring the Bond executed by them. Therefore, I hold that M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. are liable to pay the Customs duty to the tune of Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only) along with applicable interest (from the date of clearance of goods to the date of payment of duty) in terms of conditions of Bond executed under section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. dated 14.11.1995, as amended.

14.5 Whether penalty is imposable on the importer under Section 112(a)/114A of the Customs Act, 1962.

14.5.1 Section 112 reads as follows:

"SECTION 112. Penalty for improper importation of goods, etc.-

Any person, -

(a) who, in relation to any goods, does or omits to do any act which act or omission would render such goods liable to confiscation under section 111, or abets the doing or omission of such an act, or

shall be liable, -

² [(ii) in the case of dutiable goods, other than prohibited goods, subject to the provisions of section 114A, to a penalty not exceeding ten per cent. of the duty sought to be evaded or five thousand rupees, whichever is higher

14.5.2 I find from the foregoing Paras that M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. have not fulfilled their conditions of the notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995 by not re-exporting the said goods within Six months or the stipulated time period, therefore, the goods were liable to confiscation under Section 111(o) and the importer is liable for penalty under Section 12(a)(ii) of the Customs Act, 1962.

14.5.3 Penalty under Section 114A of the Customs Act, 1962: I find that the demand of duty of Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only) has been made under provisions of the Customs Act, 1962 from M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. In the present case, it is evident that the actual facts were only known to the noticee and aforesaid fact came to light only subsequent to the in-depth investigation. Further I find that the noticee was not able to justify the delay in the re-export. I find that the said importer has failed to discharge the conditions laid down under Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995 inasmuch as they have not submitted documentary evidence pertaining to re-export of the said re-imported goods within prescribed time limit. Thus, I find that M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. have violated the provisions of Section 46 (4) of the Customs Act, 1962. In the instant case, the ingredient of suppression of facts by the importer has been clearly established as discussed in foregoing paras and hence, I find that this is a fit case for imposition of quantum of penalty equal to the amount of Duty plus interest in terms of Section 114A ibid as proposed in the Show Cause Notice.

14.5.4 I find that fifth proviso to Section 114A stipulates that “where any penalty has been levied under this section, no penalty shall be levied under Section 112 or Section 114”. Hence, I refrain from imposing penalty on M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. under Section 112 of the Customs Act, 1962 as penalty has been imposed on them under Section 114A of the Customs Act, 1962.

15. Therefore, I pass the following order -

ORDER

- a) I deny the benefit of exemption Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995, to M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd., claimed and availed in respect of Bill of Entry No. 4299453 dated 08.01.2014;
- b) I hold the imported goods of declared Assessable value of Rs. 28,66,226/- (Rupees Twenty Eight Lakh Sixty Six Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty Six Only), liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 read with conditions of Bond executed in terms of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Notification No. 158/1995-Cus dated 14.11.1995 as amended / applicable. However I give M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd. an option to redeem the said imported goods on payment of fine of Rs. 3,00,000/- (Rupees Three Lakhs Only) under Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962;

- c) I order to demand Duty of an amount of Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only) along with applicable interest (from the date of clearance of goods to the date of payment of duty) and recover from M/s. Mangalam Alloys Ltd.. in terms of conditions of Bond executed under section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read Notification No. 158/1995-Cus. dated 14.11.1995, as amended. I order to appropriate the duty of Rs. 2,61,769/- already paid by the importer vide Challan Nos. 2019 and 2022 both dated 25.02.2016 against the aforesaid demand;
- d) I impose a Penalty of Rs. 8,26,959/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Twenty Six Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty Nine Only) plus interest as determined in para (c) above on the importer under Section 114A of the Customs Act, 1962 for the acts of omission and commission. I refrain from imposing penalty on them under Section 112 for the reasons discussed in foregoing Paras;
