2. The aforesaid Bill of Entry has been pushed back from the FAG site to Import Assessment Group 4 as it was found to be non-compliant of SIMS registration timeline. Details of particulars are as under:

Table-B

Sl. No.	Bill of Entry No. & date	IGM Inward date	B/L date	SIMS Registration Date
1	5796383 dated 19.11.2025	20.11.2025	30.10.2025	17.11.2025

3. As per the notice dt. 13.06.2025 issued vide F.No.: S-21022/9/2025-TRADE-TAX, TRADE & TAXATION division, Ministry of Steel, Govt. of India by the undersecretary. Effective from 20.06.2025

The sims shall require importers to apply for registration not earlier than 60th day and not later than 7th day before the expected date of arrival of import of import consignment. The automatic Registration Number thus generated shall remain valid for a period of 75 days.

4. However, in the instant case, the importer has not followed the timelines/guidelines of the notice dt. 13.06.2025 issued vide F.No.: S - 21022/9/2025-trade-tax, trade & taxation division, ministry of steel, Govt. of India by the undersecretary. As the SIMS registration certificate has been generated Three days before the expected date of arrival of import consignment.
5. In the matter of BIS for the product, as per Notice vide F. No. S-20011/15/2024-TECH-Part (2) dated 06.10.2025, issued by the Ministry of Steel, Government of India, Technical Division, the ITC HS Codes as mentioned in Annexure-I are exempted in respect of mandatory compliance of QCO issued by the Government of India. As per Sr. No. 10 of the annexure-I of the above mentioned notice, Stainless Steel Welded Pipes and tubes for general service under CTH 73064000 is mentioned. Therefore, it appears the the said goods are exempted from the QCO and BIS is not applicable.
6. Since, goods were imported into India without the requisite SIMS certificate, the impugned goods have been imported without authorization and are liable for confiscation under Section 111(d) of the Customs Act, 1962, and for his act of omission and commission the importer is liable for penalty under Section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962.
7. The relevant provisions of law relating to import and valuation of goods in general, the Foreign Trade Policy and Rules relating to imports, the liability of the goods to confiscation under the provisions of the Custom Act, 1962 and other laws for the time being in force are summarized as under:
  - a. As per Section 46(4) of the Customs Act, 1962, the importer while presenting a Bill of Entry shall make and subscribe to a declaration as to the truth of the contents of such Bill of Entry and shall, in support of such declaration, produce to the proper officer the invoice, if any, relating to the imported goods.
  - b. Section 111(d) of the Customs Act, 1962 provides for confiscation of any goods which are imported or attempted to be imported or are brought within the Indian Customs waters for the purpose of being imported, contrary to any prohibition imposed by or under this Act or any other law for the time being in force.
  - c. Section 112(a) of the Customs Acts 1962: - penalty for any person, who, in relation to any goods, does or omits to do any act which act or omission would render such goods liable to confiscation under Section 111, or abets the doing or omission of such an act.
8. In view of above, it appears that impugned goods are imported without requisite SIMS registration. Therefore, it appears that the goods imported vide impugned bill of entry are liable for confiscation under Section 111(d) of the Customs Act, 1962 and the importer is liable for penalty under Section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962.

RECORD OF PERSONAL HEARING AND SUBMISSION OF IMPORTER

9. The Importer vide their letter dated 25.11.2025 has made following submission:

“Regarding the above stated Bill of Entry/consignment in question, there was a slight delay in submission due to delayed receipt of documents from the shipper. This led to the filling on the date of arrival of our shipment, but as per Notification No. S-21022/9/2025/Trade-tax-dated 13.06.2025 sims should be applied for registration before 7days of arrival of goods.

Furthermore, when we initiated the filing process, the portal required us to upload extensive legacy data prior to submitting the new SIMS application, which understandably took considerable time. We are regular importers and have been complying with the norms while filing SIMS in the past. This delay was unintentional and not deliberate.

In the light of these circumstances, we humbly request your kind consideration to expedite the clearance of the consignment at your earliest convenience without any personal hearing/show cause notice.”

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

10. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case. I find V. S. L. Alloys (India) Private Limited (IEC- 0503028631) filed Bill of Entry No. 5796383 dated 19.11.2025 with declared Assessable value and Duty as Rs. 36,91,853/- and Rs. 6,65,533/- respectively. I find that impugned bill of entry has been forwarded from FAG site to Import Assessment Group 4 on the ground that the importer has not followed the timelines/guidelines for the SIMS registration in the instant case. I also find that the Importer waived their right of Show Cause Notice and Personal Hearing.

11. Now, I take up the above matter in detail. I find that goods imported vide said bill of entry required compulsory SIMS registration for importing into India in terms of guidelines of the notice dt. 13.06.2025 issued vide F.No.: S - 21022/9/2025-trade-tax, trade & taxation division, ministry of steel, Govt. of India by the Under Secretary. The importer can apply for said registration not earlier than 60th day and not later than 7th day before the expected date of arrival of import of import consignment. However, in the instant case, the importer has not followed the timelines/guidelines of said Notification and registration was not completed within the stipulated time prescribed by the Notice dt. 13.06.2025 issued vide F.No.: S -21022/9/2025-trade-tax, trade & taxation division, ministry of steel, Govt. of India by the Under Secretary.

12. In the instant case, IGM inward date of Bill of Entry No. 5569014 dated 07.11.2025 is 08.11.2025 whereas SIMS registration date is 06.11.2025 which is three days before arrival of import consignment. However, as per the notice dated 13.08.2025 issued vide F.NO. S-21022/9/2025-TRADE-TAX, Trade & Taxation Division, Ministry of Steel, Govt. of India by the Under Secretary, the SIMS shall require importers to apply for registration not earlier than 60th day and not later than 7th day before the expected date of arrival of import consignment w.e.f. 20.06.2025. Therefore, it is evident that SIMS registration has not been made within the stipulated time prescribed by the Notice dt. 13.06.2025 issued vide F.No.: S -21022/9/2025-trade-tax, trade & taxation division, ministry of steel, Govt. of India by the Under Secretary. I find that it is nothing but utter negligence on the part of the importer in respect of the compliance at Customs end as it is evident that the Importer has enough time period i.e. 60 days before arrival of import consignment to apply for SIMS registration as per the notice dt. 13.06.2025 issued vide F.No.: S - 21022/9/2025-trade-tax, trade & taxation division, ministry of steel, Govt. of India by the undersecretary.

13. Since goods were imported into India without a valid SIMS certificate, the impugned goods have been imported without authorization and therefore, are liable for confiscation under Section 111(d) of the Customs Act, 1962, and for his act of omission and commission the importer is liable for penalty under Section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962. Since the Importer has submitted SIMS registration on date 16.09.2025, therefore, the goods can be cleared for home consumption under the provision of Section 125 (1) of the Customs Act, 1962.

14. Accordingly, I pass the following order:

ORDER

- i. I order for confiscation of the impugned goods imported vide Bill of Entry No. 5796383 dated 19.11.2025 having assessable value of Rs. 36,91,853/- under Section 111(d) of the Customs Act, 1962. However, I give the importer an option under provision of Section 125(1) of the Customs Act, 1962, to redeem the said goods on payment of redemption fine of Rs.50,000 /- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only).
- ii. I impose a penalty of Rs.25,000 /-(Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) on M/s V. S. L. Alloys (India) Pvt. Ltd. having IEC 0503028631 under Section 112(a)(i) of the Customs Act, 1962, for their act of omission and commission.

14. This Order is issued without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the noticee or persons or imported goods under the provisions of the Customs Act, 1962 or any other law for the time being in force in India.

Additional Commissioner of Customs,
Import Assessment,
Customs House, Mundra.
