ORDER-IN-APPEAL

1. The Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Customs Division, Surat, has filed the present 22 appeals under Section 129D(4) of the Customs Act, 1962, on the basis of Authorization issued by the Principal Commissioner of Customs, Ahmedabad, to file appeals against the Orders-In-Original No. 02 to 23/AC/SRT/REFUND/2024 passed during the months of July & August, 2024 (hereinafter referred to as the 'impugned orders') by the Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Customs Division, Surat (hereinafter referred to as the 'appellant' as well as 'adjudicating authority'). The only issue involved in all these 22 appeals is that the impugned orders have been passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Customs Division, Surat, who is not jurisdictional authority to pass these orders, but the Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Customs House, Surat, is the proper jurisdictional authority to pass these orders.

2. Facts involved in the appeal, in brief, are that M/s. Reliance Industries Ltd., Village - Mora, Post - Bhatha, Surat Hazira Road, Surat - 394510 (hereinafter referred to as 'the respondent' or 'the importer' or 'M/s. RIL') had imported Liquefied Natural Gas ('LNG' for short) falling under Customs Tariff Item 27111100. The Bills of Entry were assessed provisionally on the basis of Bill of Lading quantity under the provisions of Section 18 of the Customs Act, 1962, because some documents like final invoice, test report etc. were not available. Later, on submission of required documents, the assessments of Bills of Entry have been finalized on the basis of Delivery Ex-Ship ('DES') quantity. As the DES quantity unloaded was lower than Bill of Lading quantity and the final invoice value was lesser than the provisional invoice value, the duty finally assessed was found to be less than the duty provisionally assessed. So, the respondent importer has filed refund claims for differential duty along with required documents.

3. In the impugned orders, the adjudicating authority has inter alia observed that the final quantity of LNG unloaded was less than the quantity declared at the time of provisional assessment and so, the duty payable was reduced at the time of final assessment. He further observed that the refund of duty, Bill of Entry, T.R.6 Challan (E-Receipt) and duty payment particulars etc. have been verified and found in order. On the basis of Declaration, Ledger and Certificate of Chartered Accountant, the adjudicating authority observed that the importer has not passed on the incidence of duty (claimed as refund) to buyers and the unjust enrichment has been ruled out. Thus, after examining all the aspects, the adjudicating authority has sanctioned the refund of differential duty to the respondent on account of finalization of provisional assessment.

4. During review of the impugned order under the provisions of Section 129D(2) of the Customs Act, 1962, the reviewing authority was of the view that the impugned order is not proper and legal and therefore, he authorised the Deputy/Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Surat Division, to apply to the Appellate Authority, i.e. Commissioner of Customs (Appeals), with request to set aside the impugned order and remand back the matter or to pass any other order(s), as deem fit.

5. Being aggrieved by the impugned orders to the extent they have been passed by the Assistant Commissioner, who has no jurisdiction over the port of import, the Customs Department has filed the following appeals:

6. As all the twenty-two appeals have been filed on similar grounds, the Grounds of Appeal in respect of O.I.O. No. 02/AC/SRT/Refund/2024 dated 09.07.2024 (Appeal No. S/49-23/CUS/AHD/2024-25) are reproduced below:

Grounds of Appeal

7. The Assistant Commissioner, Customs Division Surat, has sanctioned the refund order of Rs. 6,01,403/- without jurisdiction. The competent authority to sanction/process the subject refund application is Assistant Commissioner, Customs House Surat, as specified in Establishment Order No. 12 dated 05.06.2023 and has contravened the provisions outlined in the Customs Refund Application (Form) Regulations, 1995, as specified in Notification No. 34/1995-CUS (N.T.) dated 26.05.1995, and subsequently amended by Notification No. 29/1999-Cus. (N.T.) dated 11.05.1999.

8. The Customs Refund Application (Form) Regulations, 1995 state:

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 157, read with clause (aa) of sub-section (2) of the said section of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), hereinafter referred to as the Act, and in supersession of the Customs Application (Form) Regulations, 1991, except as respect things done or omitted to be done before such supersession, the Central Board of Excise and Customs hereby makes the following regulations, namely:-

1. Short title and commencement-

(1) These regulations may be called the Customs Refund Application (Form) Regulations, 1995.

(2) They shall come into force with effect from the date of their publication in the Official Gazette

2. Form and manner of filing application for refund. -

(1) An application for refund shall be made in the prescribed Form appended to these regulations in duplicate to the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs, having jurisdiction over the Customs port, Customs airport, land customs station or the warehouse where the duty of customs was paid.

(2) The application shall be scrutinised for its completeness by the Proper Officer and if the application is found to be complete in all respects, the applicant shall be issued an acknowledgement by the Proper Officer in the prescribed Form appended to these regulations within ten working days of the receipt of the application.

(3) Where on scrutiny, however, the application is found to be incomplete, the Proper Officer shall, within ten working days of its receipt, return the application to the applicant, pointing out the deficiencies. The applicant may resubmit the application after making good the deficiencies, for scrutiny. Explanation.- For the purposes of payment of interest under section 27A of the Act, the application shall be deemed to have been received on the date on which a complete application, as acknowledged by the Proper Officer, has been made.

9. The subject refund which has arisen after finalisation of Bill of Entry No. 4864318 dated 19.01 2018 has been sanctioned by incompetent authority, namely Assistant Commissioner, Customs Division Surat who is not the jurisdictional port authority. The subject BOE was finalised by AC, CH, Surat. The Bill of Entry was filed at Magdalla Port which falls under the jurisdiction of CH Surat, as specified in Establishment Order No. 12/2023 dated 05.06.2023 issued by the Additional Commissioner of Customs, Ahmedabad. However, the refund has been processed by the Adjudicating Authority from Surat Division. Consequently, the refund sanctioned does not comply with the provisions outlined in the Customs Refund Application (Form) Regulations, 1995.

10. In light of the foregoing, the appellant contended that the Order-in-Original issued by the Assistant Commissioner, Surat Division, Customs Surat, is legally flawed and unsustainable, and thus, it is liable to be set aside.

Response from the Respondent, viz. M/s. Reliance Industries Ltd.

11. The respondent, vide email dated 10.09.2025 submitted following submissions in respect of these appeals filed by Customs Department:

11.1 The Department in their grounds of appeal have stated that the Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Customs Division, Surat, who sanctioned the refund by passing 22 Orders-in-Original Nos. 02 to 23/ AC/SRT/ REFUND/2024, was not the competent authority to do so.

11.2 The appeals have been filed by the Department on the ground that in respect of the goods imported at Port Magdalla, the Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Custom House, Surat is the proper officer to sanction the refund in view of Establishment Order No.12/2023 dated 5-6-2023, by which jurisdiction over Magdalla Port has been conferred on the Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Custom House, Surat. It is accordingly contended that Assistant Commissioner, Customs Division, Surat had no jurisdiction in the matter. A copy of the said Establishment Order No.12/2023 dated 5-6-2023 is annexed hereto as Annexure I.

11.3 The Respondents submit that the Ground of Appeal in department's Appeals completely overlooks the fact that the same officer - Assistant Commissioner, has been given the charge of both viz. Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Custom House, Surat as well as Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Customs Division, Surat, by the said Establishment Order. Therefore, the officer/Assistant Commissioner, who has passed the Orders-in-Original sanctioning the refund, was also having charge as Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Custom House. He therefore, had jurisdiction over Magdalla Port and was therefore competent to sanction the refund in case of goods imported at Magdalla Port. Merely because in the Orders passed by him, he is referred to as Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Customs Division, Surat, that will not make his Orders as being without jurisdiction, since admittedly he was also Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Custom House, Surat and therefore had jurisdiction to sanction the refund in respect of goods imported at Magdalla Port.

11.4 Significantly, the department's appeal does not contend that the refund granted to the Respondents upon finalization of the Bills of Entry is not due to the Respondents. Neither the finalization of the Bills of Entry nor the amount of refund arising therefrom nor entitlement of the Respondent to the same is contested in the appeals filed by the department. The prayer in the appeal is to remand the matter back for the refund to be sanctioned by the Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Custom House, Surat instead of Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Customs Division, Surat. This is unnecessary and the ends of justice will be met, if a Corrigendum to the Refund sanctioning Orders is issued under Section 154 of the Customs Act 1962 correcting the error of referring to the Assistant Commissioner as of Customs Division, Surat, instead of Assistant Commissioner of Custom House, Surat, such error being no more than an accidental slip, since it is not in dispute that the same officer/Assistant Commissioner was having dual charge as Assistant Commissioner, Custom House, Surat as well as Assistant Commissioner, Customs Division, Surat.

11.5 In view of the above submissions, the Respondent has requested to reject the appeals filed Customs Department.

Personal Hearing

12. Personal Hearing in this matter was held on 10.09.2025 by virtual mode, i.e. through video conference, which has been attended by Shri. J. C. Patel, Advocate, Shri. D. N. Dheer, V.P. and Shri. P. N. Choudhary, Head-Indirect Tax, on behalf of the respondent company. They reiterated the submissions send by them vide email dated 10.09.2025, as mentioned hereinabove.

Findings:

13. I have carefully gone through the impugned orders and written submissions made by the appellant i.e. Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Customs Division Surat, in the Appeal Memorandums submitted with Form No. C.A.-2. I have also gone through the written as well as oral submissions made by / on behalf of the respondent company. The identical issue to be decided in the present twenty-two appeals is that whether the impugned refund orders passed by the Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Division Surat, can be set aside due to the only reason that he has no jurisdiction over the port of import viz. Magdalla Port, but the Assistant Commissioner, Customs House, Surat, is having jurisdiction over that port and so, he is the competent authority to decide the refund claims.

14. I find that as per the provisions of Section 27(2) of the Customs Act, 1962, the Deputy/Assistant Commissioner of Customs is empowered to make order of refund. In the present case, undisputedly the refund orders have been passed by the Assistant Commissioner of Customs. Therefore, there is no contravention of the Act on part of the adjudicating authority. The only irregularity mentioned in the grounds of appeal is regarding contravention of Regulation 2(1) of the Customs Refund Application (Form) Regulation, 1995. In the said Regulation, it has been prescribed that the application for refund shall be made to the Assistant / Deputy Commissioner of Customs, having jurisdiction over the Customs port. Whereas, it has been contended by appellant Customs Department that the adjudicating authority has no jurisdiction over the Customs port of import.

15. I have seen the Establishment Order No. 12/2023 dated 05.06.2023 issued by the Additional Commissioner of Customs, Ahmedabad, regarding transfer and posting in the grade of Deputy/Assistant Commissioners in Customs Commissionerate, Ahmedabad. As per Sr.No. 12 of the Table given in the said Establishment Order, Shri. Sachin Ravindra Dalvi, Assistant Commissioner was transferred to "CH-Surat (Magdalla Port), Hira Bourse-Surat, ICD-Sachin, SIIB-Surat, International Airport-Surat, Customs Division-Surat, EPC-Surat" (emphasis supplied). Thus, I find that Shri Sachin Dalvi, Assistant Commissioner, was holding charge of Customs House Surat (Magdalla Port) as well as Customs Division-Surat. As he was holding charge of both formations, it cannot be said that he had no jurisdiction over Magdalla Port. Therefore, the only procedural mistake remains in the impugned 22 orders is that they refer the name of formation as 'Customs Division Surat' instead of 'Customs House Surat'. I find that such procedural error in mentioning the name of wrong formation (i.e. Customs Division Surat) instead of the correct formation (i.e. Custom House Surat) cannot result in denial of statutory refund particularly when all issues have been examined by the competent officer and no objection or ground has been raised in any of 22 appeals regarding admissibility of refund.

16. Further, I find that Section 157(1) of the Customs Act, 1962, prescribes that the Board has power to make regulations consistent with the Act and Rules, generally to carry out the purposes of the Act. The Customs Refund Application (Form) Regulation, 1995, have been notified in exercise of powers conferred by Section 157(1) read with Section 157(2)(aa) of the Customs Act, 1962. Clause (aa) of Section 157(2) states that the Regulations may provide for the form and manner in which an application for refund shall be made under Section 27. In nutshell, the regulations mentioned in the grounds of appeal are of procedural nature, which cannot override the statutory provisions regarding eligibility refund as prescribed under Section 18 and Section 27 of the Customs Act, 1962.

17. Further, I also find that the refund claims have been cleared from Pre-Audit by Customs, Ahmedabad, which has been mentioned in the impugned orders. Thus, there is no doubt or dispute regarding quantification or admissibility of the refund sanctioned by the adjudicating authority to the respondent by the impugned orders. No contention/argument regarding quantification or admissibility of refund to the respondent has been raised in any of the twenty-two appeals filed by Customs Department. Therefore, I am of the view that the issue raised by the Customs Department regarding violation of Regulation 2(1) of the Customs Refund Application (Form) Regulation, 1995, should be treated as procedural lapse, for which the substantial statutory right of refund, as prescribed under Section 18 and

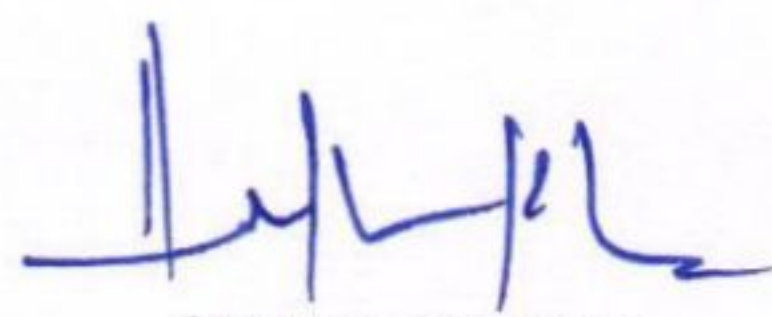

27 of the Customs Act, 1962, cannot be denied, particularly when the same Assistant Commissioner of Customs was holding charges of both formations viz. 'Customs Division Surat' and 'Custom House Surat'.

18. In view of the above discussion and findings, I am of the view that the impugned orders to the extent they show the name of Customs formation as 'Customs Division Surat' should be modified by replacing the name of the correct formation as 'Custom House Surat', particularly they have been passed by the competent authority i.e. Assistant Commissioner, who was holding charge of both Customs formations. Accordingly, I pass the following order:

Order:
