5.1 The aforesaid EPCG License No. 2430003483 dated 23.03.2016 was issued to the importer for a period of 6 years i.e. valid upto 23.03.2022 and accordingly the bond dated 01.04.2016 and the bank guarantee were executed. The importer was required to fulfill the entire Export Obligation within a period of 6 years from the date of issuance of the said EPCG Authorization as per condition laid down in the Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 and EPCG License itself. The importer was also required to submit the installation certificate within 06 months from the date of import and to produce proof of fulfillment of export obligation within the periods as prescribed in the said Notification. Since, the EPCG Authorization was issued to the importer on 23.03.2016, as per condition of the said Notification, they were required to fulfill the export obligation by 23.03.2022 and submit the Export Obligation Discharge Certificate issued by the DGFT Authority to the department. The importer was required to fulfill the Export Obligation on FOB basis, equivalent to 6 times the duty saved on the goods imported as specified in the case within the specified time limit.

6. Vide letter F. No. GEN/EPC/MISC/24/2024 dated 07.03.2024 & reminder letters dated 21.03.2024 & 28.03.2024, the Assistant Commissioner, C.H. Pipavav asked the importer M/s. Daya Textiles, Jetpar to produce the Export Obligation Discharge Certificate(EODC) or status of the communication made with concerned DGFT with regard to issuance of EODC. However, the said letter were returned undelivered by the courier agency with remarks that "Non Delivery Zone".

7. It appeared that the importer failed to fulfill the export obligation as specified in the License and did not comply with the mandatory conditions of the Customs Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015, EPCG Authorization and conditions of the bond dated 01.04.2016.

7.1 The importer had imported the 'MODEL GM986 SHUTTLELESS RAPIER LOOMS,WIDTH 180CM,WITH DOBBY,WITH 6 COLOR MECHANICAL SELECTOR, WITH LR-RH TUKING DEVICE, WITH STANDARD ACCESSORIES MAXIMUM FILLING INSERATION RATE 450 P/MIN" without payment of duties of Customs in terms of Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 subject to fulfillment of conditions namely:-

(5) that the importer executes a bond in such form and for such sum and with such surety or security as may be specified by the Deputy Commissioner of Customs or Assistant Commissioner of Customs binding himself to comply with all the conditions of this Notification as well as to fulfill export obligation on Free on Board (FOB) basis equivalent to six times the duty saved on the goods imported as may be specified on the authorization, or for such higher sum as may be fixed or endorsed by the Regional Authority in terms of Para 5.10 of the Handbook of Procedures Vol I, issued under para 2.4 of the Foreign Trade Policy, within a period of six years from the date of issue of Authorization, in the following proportions, namely :-

Sr. No.	Period from the date of issue of the Authorization	Minimum Export Obligation to be fulfilled
1	Block of 1st to 4th Year	50%
2	Block of 5th to 6th Year	Balance

7.2 It appeared that the importer failed to submit documents evidencing fulfillment of Export Obligation against the duty saved at the time of clearance of the imported capital goods even after time limit to fulfill export obligation was over.

8. Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 provides for allowing import on execution of bonds in certain cases. Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 reads as under:

"Section 143: Power to allow import or export on execution of bonds in certain cases: - (1) Where this act or any other law requires anything to be done before a person can import or export any goods or clear any goods from the control of the officers of customs and the 1[Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs] is satisfied that having regard to the circumstances of the case, such thing cannot be done before such import such import , export or clearance without detriment to that person, the 2[Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs] may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or such other law, grant leave for such import, export or clearance on the person executing a bond in such amount, with such surety or security and subject to conditions as the [Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs] approves, for the doing of that thing within such time after the import, export or clearance as may be specified in the bond.

(2) if the thing is done within the time specified in the bond, the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs shall cancel the bond as discharged in full and shall, on demand, deliver it, so cancelled, to the person who has executed or who is entitled to receive it; and in such a case that person shall not be liable to any penalty provided in this Act or, as the case may be, in such other law for the contravention of the provisions thereof relating to the doing of that thing.

(3) If the thing is not done within the time specified in the bond, the Assistant Commissioner of Customs or Deputy Commissioner of Customs shall, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken under this Act or any other law for time being in force, be entitled to proceed upon the bond in accordance with law."

8.1 The capital goods i.e. "MODEL GM986 SHUTTLELESS RAPIER LOOMS, WIDTH 180CM, WITH DOBBY, WITH 6 COLOR MECHANICAL SELECTOR, WITH LR-RH TUKING DEVICE, WITH STANDARD ACCESSORIES MAXIMUM FILLING INSERTION RATE 450 P/MIN" imported by the importer were allowed clearance under zero duty EPCG Scheme by the proper officer on execution of bond in terms of Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 by the importer wherein the importer bound themselves to discharge required export obligation within a specified period in certain manner. The importer executed Bond dated 01.04.2016 along with the bank guarantee and the same is registered in EDI with Sr No. 2001012192 dated 01.04.2016 of Rs. 32,46,000/- (Rupees Thirty-Two Lakhs Forty-Six Thousand only).

9. As per Sr. No. (7) of the Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015, supra, the importer was required to produce within 30 days from the expiry of each block from the date of issue of authorization or within such extended period, evidence to the extent of export obligation fulfilled by them, and where the export obligation of any particular block was not fulfilled, the importer was required to pay duties of Customs equal to an amount which bears the same proportion to the duties leviable on the goods, but for the exemption contained herein, which the unfulfilled portion of the export obligation bears to the total export obligation, together with interest at the rate of 15% per annum from the date of clearance of the goods.

9.1 The importer did not submit documents to the Assistant Commissioner/ Deputy Commissioner, Customs House, Pipavav evidencing fulfillment of Export obligation and thereby, failed to disclose the fact of non-fulfillment of Export Obligation to the department with intention to evade the payment of customs duty.

9.2 It therefore appeared that the importer failed to fulfill the condition laid down under Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 as they failed to fulfill export obligation against import of capital goods i.e. "MODEL GM986. SHUTTLELESS RAPIER LOOMS, WIDTH 180CM, WITH DOBBY, WITH 6 COLOR MECHANICAL SELECTOR, WITH LR-RH TUKING DEVICE, WITH STANDARD ACCESSORIES MAXIMUM FILLING INSERATION RATE 450 P/MIN" under Zero rated EPCG Authorization 2430003483 dated 23.03.2016 inasmuch as they neither produced documents evidencing exports nor produced EODC issued by DGFT, Rajkot or any extension granted by DGFT, Rajkot.

9.3 The importer failed to fulfill the conditions of the Bond executed and failed to pay the duty along with interest at their own. It therefore appeared that the exemption of duty of Rs 12,17,252/- in respect of the said imported goods was wrongly availed by the importer in violation of the conditions of Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015. Hence, the importer appeared not eligible for the exemption and liable to pay the customs duty amounting to Rs. 12,17,252/- saved at the time of importation along with interest in terms of Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 and the same appeared to be recovered by enforcing the bond and bank guarantee executed by the importer read with provisions of Section 143 of Customs Act, 1962.

10. Section 111(o) provides confiscation of imported goods for non-observance of conditions specified for exemption from duty. Section 111(o) reads as under:-

SECTION 111. Confiscation of improperly imported goods, etc. — The following goods brought from a place outside India shall be liable to confiscation : —

"(o) any goods exempted, subject to any condition, from duty or any prohibition in respect of the import thereof under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, in respect of which the condition is not observed unless the non-observance of the condition was sanctioned by the proper officer;"

The import of capital goods i.e. "MODEL GM986 SHUTTLELESS RAPIER LOOMS, WIDTH 180CM, WITH DOBBY, WITH 6 COLOR MECHANICAL SELECTOR, WITH LR-RH TUKING DEVICE, WITH STANDARD ACCESSORIES MAXIMUM FILLING INSERATION RATE 450 P/MIN" imported by the importer are exempted subject to condition of export obligation and executing Bond. The importer availed the exemption however failed to fulfill export obligation and, in that case, also failed to make payment of customs duty along with interest as bound by themselves by executing bond. Hence, conditions stipulated under Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 read with conditions attached to EPCG License 2430003483 dated 23.03.2016 issued by the DGFT under Foreign Trade Policy/ Foreign Trade Development Act, 1992 is not observed by the importer attracting the provisions of Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962. Therefore, the goods imported by the importer appeared liable to confiscation under Section 111(o) of Customs Act, 1962.

11. It further appeared that all the aforesaid acts of omission and commission on the part of the Noticee have rendered the subject imported goods totally valued at Rs 1,16,73,814.32/- liable to confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 and the Noticee appeared to have rendered themselves liable to penalty under Section 112 and Section 117 of the Customs Act, 1962.

12. Accordingly, a Show Cause Notoce No. ADC-12/2025-26 dated 21.08.2025 was issued to the importer asking them, as to why:

(i) the benefit of Zero rated duty of EPCG Scheme under Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 availed on import of "MODEL GM986 SHUTTLELESS RAPIER LOOMS,WIDTH 180CM,WITH DOBBY,WITH 6 COLOR MECHANICAL SELECTOR, WITH LR-RH TUKING DEVICE, WITH STANDARD ACCESSORIES MAXIMUM FILLING INSERATION RATE 450 P/MIN" vide Bill of Entry No. 4805019 dated 05.04.2016 should not be denied;

(ii) Customs duty amounting to Rs 12,17,252/-(Rupees Twelve Lakhs Seventeen Thousand Two Hundred Fifty-two only) being the duty foregone at the time of import under Zero rated EPCG License, should not be demanded and recovered from them in terms of Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 as amended, read with conditions of the Bond Executed along with the bank guarantee furnished by them and by enforcing the terms of the Bond under Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962;

(iii) Interest at the applicable rate should not be recovered from them on the Customs duty as mentioned at (ii) above in terms of Customs Notification 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 as amended read with conditions of Bond executed along with the bank guarantee by enforcing the terms of the Bond under Section 143 of Customs Act, 1962.

(iv) the imported capital goods i.e. "MODEL GM986 SHUTTLELESS RAPIER LOOMS,WIDTH 180CM,WITH DOBBY,WITH 6 COLOR MECHANICAL SELECTOR, WITH LR-RH TUKING DEVICE, WITH STANDARD ACCESSORIES MAXIMUM FILLING INSERATION RATE 450 P/MIN" valued at Rs 1,16,73,814.32/- should not be confiscated under Section 111(o) of Customs Act, 1962 read with Customs Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 as amended read with conditions of Bond executed along with the bank guarantee, in terms of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962.

(v) Penalty should not be imposed on the Importer under Section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962 for the acts of omission & commission mentioned above.

(vi) Penalty should not be imposed on the Importer under Section 117 of the Customs Act, 1962 for the acts of omission & commission mentioned above.

DEFENCE REPLY & PERSONAL HEARING:

13. The Noticee did not file any written reply to the Show Cause Notice. Personal hearing opportunities were granted to them on multiple occasions i.e. on 15.01.2026, 27.01.2026, 11.02.2026 and 24.02.2026. The impugned Show Cause Notice and personal hearing letters were sent to the Noticee in terms of Section 153(1)(a) [Direct delivery at address], 153(1)(b) [Delivery by registered/speed post] and 153(1)(c) [Delivery at e-mail ID] of the Customs Act, 1962, however, it was found that the Noticee's address "Khodal Udhyog Nagar" is not in existence in the said area. As the Show Cause Notice and personal hearing letters sent through speed post were returned undelivered, therefore, these notices were sent at their e-mail ID dayatextiles@yahoo.com and paraskheni77@gmail.com also, however, the e-mail sent at dayatextiles@yahoo.com bounced back. Hence, these notices were served to the Noticee in terms of Section 153(1)(e) of the Customs Act, 1962 by affixing a copy thereof on the Notice Board of the office at Custom House, Pipavav and Customs (Preventive) Commissionerate, Jamnagar. I now proceed to decide the case ex-parte on merit on the basis of available records.

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS:

14. I have carefully gone through the Show Cause Notice, the documents available on record, the relevant statutory provisions, and the conditions stipulated under Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015. Since the Noticee has neither filed any written reply nor appeared for personal hearing despite repeated opportunities, the matter is decided ex-parte on merit on the basis of available records and evidences.

15. I find that the Zero Duty EPCG Scheme permits import of capital goods at nil rate of customs duty subject to strict fulfillment of export obligation. The exemption under Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 is conditional and the essential conditions of the Notification relevant to the present case are:

- (i) The importer must hold a valid EPCG Authorization.
- (ii) The importer must execute a bond binding itself to fulfill export obligation equivalent to six times the duty saved.
- (iii) The export obligation must be fulfilled within six years from the date of issue of authorization.
- (iv) 50% of export obligation must be completed in the first block (1st to 4th year) and the balance in the second block (5th to 6th year).
- (v) The importer must submit documentary evidence of export obligation fulfillment within 30 days from expiry of each block.

- (vi) In case of failure, proportionate customs duty along with interest @15% per annum from the date of clearance becomes payable.

Thus, the exemption is clearly conditional upon fulfillment of post-importation conditions and non-fulfillment of the same results in automatic withdrawal of the benefit.

16. In the instant case, the Noticee imported capital goods valued at Rs. 1,16,73,814.32/- vide Bill of Entry No. 4805019 dated 05.04.2016 and availed exemption of Customs duty amounting to Rs. 12,17,252/- under the Zero Duty EPCG Scheme. The EPCG Authorization was issued on 23.03.2016 and was valid up to 23.03.2022. Therefore, the entire export obligation was required to be fulfilled on or before 23.03.2022. The importer executed Bond No. 2001012192 dated 01.04.2016 for Rs. 32,46,000/- under Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 and furnished Bank Guarantee of Rs. 1,96,000/-.

17. From the records available in case file, I find that the importer has neither submitted Export Obligation Discharge Certificate (EODC) issued by DGFT nor produced documentary proof of exports. There is also nothing on record showing extension granted by the DGFT to the importer for fulfilling export obligation.

18. The Department issued letters seeking submission of EODC which were returned undelivered. The importer has not responded at any stage though the burden to establish fulfillment of export obligation lies squarely upon the importer who has availed conditional exemption. However, in the present case:

- (i) No evidence of exports has been submitted.
- (ii) No EODC has been produced.
- (iii) No communication from DGFT granting extension is available.
- (iv) The importer has not contested the allegations.

19. In view of above, I hold that the importer has failed to fulfill the export obligation prescribed under the EPCG Authorization and Notification No. 16/2015-Cus dated 01.04.2015 and consequently, the entire duty foregone amounting to Rs. 12,17,252/- becomes recoverable. The liability to pay interest is automatic and flows from the notification itself.

20. I further observe that Section 143(1) of the Customs Act, 1962 permits provisional clearance upon execution of bond to secure compliance of post-import conditions. Section 143(3) clearly provides that if the condition is not fulfilled within the specified time, the proper officer shall be entitled to proceed upon the bond in accordance with law. The importer voluntarily executed the bond undertaking to fulfill the export obligation and to pay duty with interest in case of default. Therefore, enforcement of the bond is legally justified and warranted.

21. With regard to confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 which provides that goods exempted from duty subject to any condition become liable to confiscation if such condition is not observed, I find that the exemption granted to the imported capital goods was conditional upon fulfillment of export obligation. Since the importer has failed to observe the essential condition of export obligation, I hold that the goods are rendered liable to confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 and accordingly, I confiscate the capital goods "MODEL GM986 SHUTTLELESS RAPIER LOOMS, WIDTH 180CM, WITH DOBBY, WITH 6 COLOR MECHANICAL SELECTOR, WITH LR-RH TUKING DEVICE, WITH STANDARD ACCESSORIES MAXIMUM FILLING INSERATION RATE 450 P/MIN" imported under Zero rated duty of EPCG Scheme relying upon the following decisions:

NCS SUGARS LTD. Versus COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS, VISAKHAPATNAM [2011 (265) E.L.T. 136 (Tri. - Bang.)]

"4.3 The assessee has argued that the failure to fulfill the export obligation occurred for the reason that sugar being a controlled commodity under the Essential Commodities Act, 1955, releases of all sugar by them were regulated by the orders issued by the Central Government under the above Act and Sugar (Control) Order 1966. We find that the impugned quantity of sugar was exported by Emmsons following the release order issued under the Essential Commodities Act, 1955. Therefore we reject the plea that the appellant was not able carry out the impugned export and discharge its obligation under the advance license owing to the control exercised by the Central Government under the Essential Commodities Act. In any case, the assessee cannot claim benefit of an exemption unless the conditions prescribed therefor are satisfied. It is also significant that the DGFT has not acknowledged the export as in discharge of export obligation till date though more than four years have elapsed after export by the appellant. We find that the raw sugar relatable to the sugar exported under Shipping Bill 1053189 dated 16-6-06 had been rendered liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 and that the order of confiscation and fine is in accordance with law. Penalty imposed on the importer under Section 112(a) is also sustainable in view of the confiscation ordered."

SQUARE D TEXTILES EXPORTS LTD. Versus COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS, TRICHY [2003 (160) E.L.T. 246 (Tri. - Chennai)]

"8. Now coming to the question as to whether confiscation of the goods and imposition of redemption and penalty is proper and legal, we are of the considered opinion that in the present case, it is an admitted fact that there is clear violation of para 38 of the Import & Export Policy for the year 1992-97 dealing with Zero duty licence as well as Customs Notification No. 111/95 dated 5-6-95 inasmuch as appellants have only imported textile machinery worth Rs 3,38,40,845/- (Three crores, thirty eight lakhs, forty thousand, eight hundred forty five) through the Tuticorin port as against the Zero duty licence of the threshold value of Rs. 20 crores. (Rupees Twenty crores). They have thus not fulfilled the condition of the licence and of the Notification within the validity period and even after the validity period of the licence was over.

In this case, the EPCG licence produced by the party at the time of clearance of the goods was for 0% duty and the goods had already been released at Nil rate of duty. They have cited the ratio of the judgment in the case of Suncity Syntentics Ltd. v. CC, reported in 2001 (132) E.L.T. 684 in support of their plea for setting aside the interest. We observe that the ratio therein is not applicable to the present case, inasmuch as the facts and circumstances are different. That was a case dealing with fulfilment of Export Obligation in terms of Notification No. 110/95, whereas in this case, the appellants have not fulfilled the Import obligation cast upon them under Notification No. 111/95 (supra). It was later on that they applied for conversion of the zero duty licence into 15% duty licence. Appellants have also cited the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of CL Jain Woollen Mills v. UOI reported in 1995 (79) E.L.T. 197 (Del.) in support of their plea. This decision is also not applicable to the facts of the present case, inasmuch as this judgment is on the issue of jurisdiction of the Tribunal. Appellants have also cited the order passed by the Commissioner in the case of M/s. Ambal Processors v. Dy. Commissioner of Customs, vide Order-in-Appeal No. C. Cus. No. 601/2001, dated 26-9-2001 wherein the Commissioner (Appeals) has passed an order for reconsidering the request of the party for reassessment, in view of the amendment permitted by the DGFT, if otherwise in order. This order also is not applicable to the present case, inasmuch as the issue dealt with in the present relates to violation of import condition envisaged under Notification No. 111/95 (supra). We, therefore, hold that the confiscation of the goods and imposition of redemption fine is legal and proper. However, in view of the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case, we are inclined to think that some leniency is called for in the matter of imposition of fine and penalty and accordingly we hold that interests of justice would be met if the redemption fine is reduced to Rs. 10,00,000/(Rupees Ten lakhs) and the penalty is reduced to Rs. 2,00,000/- (Rupees Two lakhs) and we order accordingly."

22. With regard to penalty under Section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962, I find that the language of Section 112(a) of Customs Act, 1962 is very much clear that penalty is imposable on any person who, in relation to any goods, does or omits to do any act which act or omission would render such goods liable to confiscation under Section 111, or abets the doing or omission of such an act. Thus, once the goods are liable to confiscation, imposition of penalty under Section 112(a) becomes justified merely for doing an act or omitting to do act which renders the goods liable for confiscation. It is settled position of law that for imposing penalty under Section 112 (a) of the Customs Act, 1962, it is sufficient to prove that a default in complying with the statute has occurred rendering the impugned goods liable to confiscation under Section 111 of the Customs Act, 1962. In the instant case, by availing exemption and subsequently failing to fulfill the mandatory conditions, the importer has rendered the imported goods liable for confiscation and consequently, rendered itself liable to penalty under Section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962.

23. As far as penalty under Section 117 of the Customs Act, 1962 is concerned, I find that it provides for imposition of penalty on any person who contravenes any provision of the said Act or abets any such contravention or who fails to comply with any provision of this Act with which it was his duty to comply, where no express penalty is elsewhere provided for such contravention or failure, to be liable to a penalty not exceeding four lakhs rupees. Thus, it can be imposed on any person for contravention of any provision of the Act or abetting any such contravention or failing to comply with any provision of the Act with which it was his duty to comply for which no express penalty is provided. Hence, it is clear that provisions of penalty under Section 117 of the Customs Act, 1962 is residual in nature and can be relegated only in the absence of specific penalty. Once penal action under Section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962 is held, I find that penal action proposed under Section 117 of the Customs Act, 1962 is not sustainable as it applies for the contravention or failure which is not expressed elsewhere.

24. In view of the foregoing discussion and findings, I pass the following order:
