ORDER-IN-APPEAL

Shri Navnit Bhagvatilal Sevak, 116, Pipli Chowk, Banswara, Rajasthan - 327022 (hereinafter referred to as "the appellant") has filed the present appeal in terms of Section 128 of the Customs Act, 1962 against Order in Original No. 188/ADC/VM/O&A/2023-24, dated 11.12.2023 (hereinafter referred to as "the impugned order") passed by Additional Commissioner, Customs, Ahmedabad (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, facts of the case are that on the basis of passenger profiling and vigilant routine check, the AIU officers intercepted the appellant having Indian Passport No. V9282119 who arrived by Kuwait Airlines Flight No. KU 345 on 15.10.2023 From Kuwait to SVPI Airport, Ahmedabad. The AIU Officers asked the appellant, if he has anything to declare to Customs, in reply to which passenger denied. The AIU officer asked the appellant to walk through the Door Frame Metal Detector (DFMD) machine; prior to passing through the said DFMD, the appellant was asked to remove all the metallic objects he is wearing on his body/clothes. The appellant, readily removed the metallic substances from his body/ clothes such as mobile, purse etc. and keeps it on the tray placed on the table and pass through the Door Frame Metal Detector (DFMD) machine and while he passes through the DFMD Machine, beep sound was heard indicating something dutiable/ objectionable is there. The AIU Officers asked him whether he has concealed/ hidden any dutiable item on his body. The appellant confess that he has 7 gold cut bars hidden in his underwear and shoe. The above said 7 gold cut bars removed from his underwear and shoe and handed over to the AIU officer.

2.1 The Govt approved valuer, Shri Kartikay Vasantrai Soni, after checking and examining the gold cut bars issued a Valuation Certificate bearing no. 730/2023-24, dated 15.10.2023 and certified that the 7 gold cut bars totally weighing 311.080 gms recovered from the appellant are of purity of 999.0 (24kt), with a Market Value of Rs. 19,16,253/- and Tariff value of Rs. 15,76,620/- calculated as per the Notification No. 75/2023-Customs(N.T.) dated 13.10.2023 (Gold) and Notification No. 73/2023-Customs(N.T.) dated 05.10.2023 (Exchange Rate).

2.2 The 311.080 grams Gold in form of 7 gold cut bars was placed under Seizure on 15.10.2023 under Panchnama dated 15.10.2023 and Seizure Memo dated 15.10.2023 on reasonable ground that the same are liable for confiscation under the Customs Act, 1962 in as much as the said act was an attempt to smuggle the said goods inside India illegally.

2.3 Statement of the appellant was recorded on 15.10.2023 under Section 108 of the Customs Act, 1962, wherein he, inter-alia, confirmed that he had attempted to smuggle gold into the country, he admitted that he had smuggled total 311.080 grams of gold of 999.00 purity/24 kt. in the form of a gold cut bar hidden in the underwear and shoe which he wore. The same was clearly meant for commercial purposes and hence, do not constitute bona fide baggage within the meaning of Section 79 of the Customs Act, 1962. Further, the said goods were also not declared before the Customs by him.

2.4 The appellant had actively involved himself in the instant case of smuggling of gold into India. The appellant had improperly imported gold i.e. totally weighing 311.080 grams made of 24kt/999.00 purity gold, having tariff value of Rs.15,76,620/- and market value of Rs.19,16,253/- by concealing in the form of 7 gold cut bars without declaring it to the Customs. He opted for Green Channel to exit the Airport with a deliberate intention to evade the payment of Customs duty and fraudulently circumventing the restrictions and prohibitions imposed under the Customs Act, 1962 and other allied Acts, Rules and Regulations. Therefore, the improperly imported gold by the appellant by way of concealment without declaring it to the Customs on arrival in India cannot be treated as bona fide household goods or personal effects. The appellant has thus contravened the Foreign Trade Policy 2015-20 and Section 11(1) of the Foreign Trade (Development and Regulation) Act, 1992 read with Section 3(2) and 3(3) of the Foreign Trade (Development and Regulation) Act, 1992.

2.5 By not declaring the contents of his baggage which included dutiable and prohibited goods to the proper officer of the Customs the appellant has contravened Section 77 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Regulation 3 of the Customs Baggage Declaration Regulations, 2013. The improperly imported gold by the appellant, found concealed without declaring it to the Customs is thus liable for confiscation under Section 111(d), 111(f), 111(i), 111(j), 111(l) & 111(m) read with Section 2 (22), (33), (39) of the Customs Act, 1962 and further read in conjunction with Section 111(3) of Customs Act, 1962. The appellant, by his above-described acts of omission/commission and/or abetment on his part has rendered himself liable to penalty under Section 112 of the Customs Act, 1962. As per Section 123 of Customs Act 1962, the burden of proving that the said improperly imported gold articles, totally weighing 311.080 gms valued at Rs. 19,16,253/- (market value) and Rs. 15,76,620/- (tariff value) by way of concealment in the form of 7 gold cut bars, without declaring it to the Customs, are not smuggled goods, is upon the appellant.

2.6 The appellant, vide his letter dated 27.10.2023, forwarded through his Advocate Shri Nil S Chaudhary, submitted that he is cooperating in investigation and claiming the ownership of the gold recovered from him. He is ready to pay Customs duty and other amount ordered by adjudicating authority. He understood the charges leveled against him. He requested to adjudicate the case without issuance of Show Cause Notice.

2.7 The Adjudicating authority vide impugned order has ordered for absolute confiscation of 7 gold cut bars, totally weighing 311.080 gms of 999.0/24 kt purity valued at Rs. 19,16,253/- (market value) and Rs. 15,76,620/- (tariff value) seized under Panchnama dated 15.10.2023 under Section 111(d), 111(f), 111(i), 111(j), 111(l) & 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962. The adjudicating authority has also imposed penalty of Rs 6,00,000/- on the appellant under Section 112(a)(i) of the Customs Act, 1962.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant has filed the present appeal and mainly contended that;

- Kindly consider accepting my Letter of Waiver, accompanied by the request for the release of seven Gold Cut Bars as previously mentioned. I earnestly ask for your cooperation in releasing the mentioned items upon my payment of the applicable customs duty, charges, and penalties, as determined by you in accordance with the law. I undertake to abide by above terms of letter for use of goods given by me and I shall not commit any breach of the same.
- The Applicant appellant hereby requests the re-exportation of the seized goods to Kuwait in accordance with the rules and regulations of the relevant authority, with a request to waive the associated charges.
- The penalty imposed Applicant, amounting to Rs. 6,00,000/- (Rupees Six Lakhs only), as per order paragraph (ii), is deemed excessive and inappropriate. I hereby respectfully request a reconsideration of the imposed penalty and appeal for a reduction in the specified amount.

4. Shri Bhargav K Mehta, Advocate, appeared for personal hearing on 03.07.2025 on behalf of the appellant. He reiterated the submissions made in the appeal memorandum.

5. Before going into the merits of the case, it is observed that the appeal has been filed beyond normal period of 60 days but within the condonable period of 30 days as stipulated under Section 128(1) of the Customs Act, 1962. Appellant has requested for condoning the delay in filings the said appeals on the ground of lack of knowledge and also the appellant residing in Rajasthan. Therefore, taking a lenient view to meet the ends of justice, I allow the appeal as admitted condoning the delay in filing the appeal beyond the normal period of 60 days under proviso to the Section 128(1) of the Customs Act, 1962.

5.1 I have gone through the facts of the case available on record, grounds of appeal and submission made by the appellant at the time of personal hearing. It is observed that the issues to be decided in the present appeal are as under;

(a) Whether the impugned order directing absolute confiscation of the 7 gold cut bars, totally weighing 311.080 gms of 999.0/24 kt purity valued at Rs. 19,16,253/- (market value) and Rs. 15,76,620/- (tariff value) without giving option for redemption under Section 125(1) of Customs Act, 1962, in the facts and circumstances of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise;

(b) Whether the quantum of penalty amounting to Rs. 6,00,000/- imposed on the appellant, under Section 112(a)(i) of the Customs Act, 1962, in the facts and circumstances of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise.

5.2 It is observed that the appellant, on the basis of passenger profiling and vigilant routine check, the AIU officers intercepted the appellant having Indian Passport No. V9282119 who arrived by Kuwait Airlines Flight No. KU 345 on 15.10.2023 From Kuwait to SVPI Airport, Ahmedabad. The AIU Officers asked the appellant, if he has anything to declare to Customs, in reply to which passenger denied. The AIU officer asked the appellant to walk through the Door Frame Metal Detector (DFMD) machine after removing all the metallic objects he was wearing on his body/clothes. The appellant, readily removed the metallic substances from his body/ clothes such as mobile, purse etc. and keeps it on the tray placed on the table and pass through the Door Frame Metal Detector (DFMD) machine which resulted in detection and recovery of 7 gold cut bars hidden in his underwear and shoe. The Govt approved valuer, Shri Kartikay Vasantrai Soni, after checking and examining the gold cut bars issued a Valuation Certificate bearing no. 730/2023-24, dated 15.10.2023 and certified that the 7 gold cut bars totally weighing 311.080 gms recovered from the appellant are of purity of 999.0 (24kt), with a Market Value of Rs. 19,16,253/- and Tariff value of Rs. 15,76,620/-. The said gold were seized under the provisions of the Customs Act, 1962, under Panchnama proceedings dated 15.10.2023. The appellant did not declare the said gold before Customs with an intention to escape payment of duty. These facts have also been confirmed in the statement of the appellant recorded under Section 108 of the Customs Act, 1962 on the same day. There is no disputing the facts that the appellant had not declared possession of gold concealed in wire form in the trolley bag at the time of his arrival in India. Thereby, he has violated the provisions of Section 77 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Regulation 3 of the Customs Baggage Declaration Regulations, 2013. These facts are not disputed.

5.2 I find that it is undisputed that the appellant had not declared the seized gold cut bars concealed in underwear and shoe to the Customs on his arrival in India. Further, in his statement, the appellant had admitted the knowledge, possession, carriage, concealment, non-declaration and recovery of gold concealed in underwear and shoe. The appellant had, in his confessional statement, accepted the fact of non-declaration of gold before Customs on arrival in India. Therefore, the confiscation of gold by the adjudicating authority was justified as the applicant had not declared the same as required under Section 77 of the Customs Act, 1962. Since the confiscation of the seized gold is upheld, the appellant had rendered himself liable for penalty under Section 112(a)(i) of the Customs Act, 1962.

5.3 I have also perused the decisions of the Government of India passed by the Principal Commissioner & ex officio Additional Secretary to the Government of India on the similar issues. I find that the Revisionary Authority has in all these cases taken similar view that failure to declare the gold and failure to comply with the prescribed condition of import has made the impugned gold "prohibited" and therefore they are liable for confiscation and the appellant are consequently liable for penalty. Thus, it is held that the undeclared 7 gold cut bars concealed in underwear and shoe, totally weighing 311.080 gms having 999.00 purity valued at Rs. 19,16,253/- (market value) and Rs.15,76,620/- (tariff value), are liable to confiscation under Section 111(d), 111(f), 111(i), 111(j), 111(l) & 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962 and the appellant is also liable to penalty under Section 112(a)(i) ibid.

5.4 In this regard, I also rely the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Om Prakash Bhatia Vs Commissioner of Customs, Delhi 2003 (155) E.L.T. 423 (SC) wherein it is held that;

".....(a) if there is any prohibition of import or export of goods under the Act or any other law for the time being in force, it would be considered to be prohibited goods; and (b) this would not include any such goods in respect of which the conditions, subject to which the goods are imported or exported, have been complied with. This would mean that if the conditions prescribed for import or export of goods are not complied with, it would be considered to be prohibited goods. This would also be clear from Section 11 which empowers the Central Government to prohibit either 'absolutely' or 'subject to such conditions' to be fulfilled before or after clearance, as may be specified in the notification, the import or export of the goods of any specified description. The notification can be issued for the purposes specified in sub-section (2). Hence, prohibition of importation or exportation could be subject to certain prescribed conditions to be fulfilled before or after clearance of goods. If conditions are not fulfilled, it may amount to prohibited goods....."

Thus, it is clear that even though gold is not enumerated as prohibited goods under Section 11 of the Customs Act, 1962, but it is to be imported on fulfilment of certain conditions, still, if the conditions for such import are not complied with, then import of gold will fall under prohibited goods. Hence, I find no infirmity in the impugned order on this count.

5.5 It is further observed that the adjudicating authority in the instant case had relying on the decisions of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Om Prakash Bhatia Vs Commissioner of Customs, Delhi 2003 (155) E.L.T. 423 (SC), Hon'ble Kerala High Court in the case of Abdul Razak [2012 (275) ELT 300 (Ker)], Hon'ble High Court of Madras in the case of Samynathan Murugesan [2009 (247) ELT 21 (Mad)], Malabar Diamond Gallery Pvt. Ltd [2016-TIOL-1664-HC-MAD-CUS], Hon'ble High Court of Madras in the case of P Sinnasamy [2016 (344) ELT 1154 (Mad)] and Order No 17/2019-Cus dated 07.10.2019 in F. No. 375/06/B/2017-RA of Government of India, Ministry of Finance, Department of Revenue – Revisionary Authority in the case of Abdul Kalam Ammangod Kunhamu discussed in paras 26 to 33 of the impugned order, had held that smuggling of gold was done by the appellant and had ordered for absolute confiscation of 7 gold cut bars concealed in underwear and shoe, totally weighing 311.080 gms having 999.00 purity valued at Rs. 19,16,253/- (market value) and Rs.15,76,620/- (tariff value).

5.6 It is also observed from the facts and records of the present case that the appellant had ingeniously concealed gold cut bars in underwear and shoe with an intention to smuggle the same without payment of duty. The gold cut bars concealed in underwear and shoe was detected when the appellant passed through DFMD Machine on the basis of profiling of the appellant. The appellant in his statement recorded under Section 108 of the Customs Act, 1962 on 15.10.2023 had admitted his offence. Thus, the present case is not of simple non declaration of gold but an act of smuggling as the gold was concealed ingeniously in underwear and shoe in the form of gold cut bars.

5.8 I rely upon the decision of the Hon'ble Tribunal, Bangalore in the case of V.K. MOHAMMAD ALI Versus COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS, COCHIN [2019 (369) E.L.T. 1538 (Tri. - Bang)], wherein the Hon'ble Tribunal has upheld the decision of adjudicating authority for absolute confiscation of undeclared seized gold. The relevant paras are as under:

6. The brief issue for consideration in the case is to decide whether the adjudicating authority as a discretion to release the gold confiscated or the seized gold requires allowing to be redeemed on payment of fine in lieu of confiscation in terms of Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962. Section 125 of the Customs Act reveals as under:

“(1) Whenever confiscation of any goods is authorized by this Act, the officer adjudging it may, in the case of any goods, the importation or exportation whereof is prohibited under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, and shall, in the case of any other goods, give to the owner of the goods or, where such owner is not known, the person from whose possession or custody such goods have been seized, an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such fine as the said officer thinks fit :

Provided that, without prejudice to the provisions of the proviso to sub-section (2) of Section 115, such fine shall not exceed the market price of the goods confiscated, less in the case of imported goods the duty chargeable thereon.

(2) Where any fine in lieu of confiscation of goods is imposed under sub-section (1), the owner of such goods or the person referred to in sub-section (1), shall, in addition, be liable to any duty and charges payable in respect of such goods.”

6.1 A plain reading of the above provision gives understanding that while the adjudicating officer may permit the redemption of goods on payment of fine in lieu of confiscation of goods which are prohibited in nature, he shall, in the case of other goods, 'may' permit redemption on payment of fine in lieu of confiscation.

6.2 There are two situations which emerge out of the legal position which needs to be addressed; firstly, whether the impugned goods are in the nature of prohibited goods wherein the adjudicating authority has an option to permit the goods to be redeemed on payment of fine in lieu of confiscation. Secondly, whether the adjudicating officer has a discretion so as to allow or not such goods to be redeemed on payment of fine in lieu of confiscation.

6.3 For an appreciation of the same, it is required to see what are prohibited goods is Section 2(33) of the Customs Act, 1962 defines prohibited goods as follows :

Prohibited goods means “any goods, the import or export on which is subject to any prohibition under this Act or any other law for the time being in force but does not include any such goods in respect of which the conditions subject to which the goods are permitted to be imported or exported have been complied with."

In view of the above, for the goods to acquire a nature of being prohibited who either be prohibited under Customs Act or any other law for the time being in force or the goods should have been imported wherein the conditions subject to which the goods are permitted to be imported are not complied with. Admittedly, the impugned gold is not prohibited either under Customs Act or any other law for the time being in force at the material time. As per the records of the case, the appellant have not submitted anything to show on record that the goods have been properly imported. It is to be inferred that the impugned gold has been imported without following the due process of law that is to say without following the procedures thereof. Therefore, it is to be held that the impugned goods have acquired the nature of being prohibited goods in view of Section 2(33) of the Customs Act, 1962.

6.4 Having found that the impugned goods have acquired the nature of prohibited goods, the issue which remains to be decided as to whether the adjudicating authority can exercise [its] discretion to allow the goods to be redeemed. Going by the wordings of Section 125, it is clear that in such circumstances i.e. whether the goods are prohibited, the adjudicating authority 'may' permit the redemption. That being the case the Tribunal cannot sit in judgment over the discretion exercised by the competent authority duly empowered under the statute. We find that as submitted by the Learned DR, the Hon'ble High Court of Madras has categorically held that: "When a prima facie case of attempt to smuggle the goods is made out, it is not upon the Tribunal, the issue not give positive directions to the adjudicating authority, to exercise option in favour of the respondents". We also find that this Bench of the Tribunal (supra) in a case involving identical circumstances has upheld the absolute confiscation of gold biscuits of foreign origin seized from a passenger who claimed that the same were purchased in Mumbai.

7. In view of the above, we find that the Order-in-Appeal does not require any intervention and as such the appeals are rejected

5.9 I also rely upon the decision of the Hon'ble Tribunal, Bangalore in the case of Ismail Ibrahim Versus Commissioner of Customs, Bangalore [2019 (370) ELT 1321 (Tri Bang)], wherein the Hon'ble Tribunal following the decisions of Hon'ble High Court of Kerala in the case of Ambali Karthikeyan [2000 (125) ELT 50 (Ker)] and Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka in the case of K. Abdulla Kunhi Abdul Rahaman [2015 (330) ELT 148 (Kar)] had upheld the absolute confiscation of gold in case where two gold bars weighing 2000.14 grams were concealed discreetly in the baggage wrapped in white paper and kept in plastic pouch. In present case also, substantial quantity of gold i.e. 311.080 grams concealed in underwear and shoe in the form of gold cut bars.

5.9 I further rely upon the recent decision of the Hon'ble Revisionary Authority vide Order No. 217/2024-Cus, dated 16.10.2024 on similar issue

i.e. attempt to bring undeclared gold in paste form in the case of Riswan Kochupurayil Nazeer, has upheld the absolute confiscation of 788.940 grams of gold extracted from gold paste weighing 874.760 grams valued at 30,29,931/- (Assessable Value) and Rs 34,99,286/- (market value). The penalty imposed was also upheld. The relevant paras are reproduced as under:

“8. The Government has examined the matter. It is observed that the Applicant has not declared the possession of impugned gold in his Customs declaration form and it was only through persistent enquiry and examination of the Applicant, that the body concealment of the impugned gold in paste form came to light. The Appellate Authority has also observed that the Applicant in his voluntary statement dated 04.01.2021 under Section 108 of the Customs Act, 1962 admitted that he knew that importing of gold without payment of duty is an offence; that he had committed an offence by concealing the gold and not declaring the same to evade payment of Customs duty; that the impugned gold was handed over to him by a person at Dubal with instructions to smuggle the same to India and promised the Applicant a remuneration of Rs. 30,000/- in return. The Applicant in his second voluntary statement recorded on 16.01.2021 reiterated his earlier statement. The Appellate Authority in para (11) of the said O-I-A, has also noted that, on 11.07.2022, the Authorised representative of the Applicant, Shri Nazeer, who is the father of the Applicant, has admitted to his son's offence and has also stated the Applicant has committed this offence knowingly for financial gains. The impugned gold items smuggled into India via ingenious body concealment cannot be considered as bona fide baggage. The entire proceedings have also been covered under a Mahazar in presence of independent witnesses which also corroborates the sequence of events.

9. As per Section 123 of the Act, ibid, in respect of the gold and manufactures thereof, the burden of proof that such goods are not smuggled is on the person, from whom goods are recovered. Leave alone declaring the gold as required under Section 77 of the Customs Act, 1962, the Applicant chose to ingeniously conceal it in his rectum and this was detected only upon during his search & examination. Had he been the owner of the gold and had intended to declare the gold to Customs, he would not have had to resort to such ~~ingenious~~ concealment. Thus, the lack of any documents establishing ownership and non-declaration is not surprising. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case and as the Applicant has failed to discharge the onus placed on him in terms of Section 123, the Government concurs with the adjudicating & appellate authorities that the impugned goods were liable to confiscation under Section 111 ibid and that the penalty was imposable on the Applicant.

10.1 The Applicant has contended that the import of gold is not 'prohibited'. However, the Government observes that this contention of the Applicant is against several judgements of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in which it has been held that the goods, Import/export whereof is allowed subject to certain conditions, are to be treated as 'prohibited'.

goods' in case such conditions are not fulfilled. In the case of Sheikh Mohd. Omer vs Collector of Customs, Calcutta & Ors (1971 AIR 293), the Apex Court has held that for the purpose of Section 111(d) of the Customs Act, 1962, the term "Any prohibition" means every prohibition. In other words, all types of prohibition. Restriction is one type of prohibition. Gold is not allowed to be imported freely in baggage and it is permitted to be imported by a passenger subject to fulfilment of certain conditions. In the present case, as correctly brought out by the lower authorities, the Applicant in this case did not fulfil the conditions specified in this behalf. In the case of M/s Om Prakash Bhatia Vs. Commissioner of Customs, Delhi (2003(155) ELT423(SC)), the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that "if the conditions prescribed for import or export of goods are not complied with, it would be considered to be prohibited goods. Further, in the case of UOI & Ors vs. M/s Raj Grow Impex LLP & Ors (2021-TIOL-187-SC-CUS-LB), the Hon'ble Supreme Court has followed the judgments in Sheikh Mohd. Omer (supra) and Om Prakash Bhatia (supra) to hold that "any restriction on import or export is to an extent a prohibition; and the expression "any prohibition" in Section 111(d) of the Customs Act includes restrictions."

10.2 In the case of Malabar Diamond Gallery P. Ltd. Vs ADG, DRI, Chennal [2016(341) ELT65(Mad.)], the Hon'ble Madras High Court (i.e the Hon'ble Jurisdictional High Court) has summarized the position on the issue, specifically in respect of gold, as under:

"64. Dictum of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and High Courts makes it clear that gold, may not be one of the enumerated goods, as prohibited goods, still, if the conditions for such import are not complied with, then import of gold, would squarely fall under the definition "prohibited goods", in Section 2 (33) of the Customs Act, 1962---."

10.3 Moreover, the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in its order dated 23.11.2023 in Writ Petition No. 8976 of 2020 in the matter of Kiran Juneja Vs. Union of India & Ors. has held that "A fortiori and in terms of the plain language and intent of Section 2(33), an import which is effected in violation of a restrictive or regulatory condition would also fall within the net of "prohibited goods". Hence, there is no doubt that the goods seized in the present case are to be treated as "prohibited goods", within the meaning of assigned to it under Section 2(33) of the Act, ibid.

10.4 In view of the above, the contention of the Applicant that the offending goods are not 'prohibited goods', cannot be accepted.

11. The Government observes that the original authority had denied the release of gold items on payment of redemption fine, under Section 125 of Customs Act, 1962. It is settled by the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, in the case of Garg Woollen Mills (P) Ltd vs. Additional Collector of Customs, New Delhi [1998 (104) E.L.T. 306 (S.C.)], that the option to release 'prohibited goods' on redemption fine is discretionary. Hon'ble Delhi High Court has, in the case of Raju Sharma [2020 (372) ELT 249 (Del)], held that "Exercise of discretion by judicial, or quasi-judicial authorities, merits interference only where the exercise is perverse or tainted by patent illegality, or is tainted by oblique motive."

Further, the Hon'ble Delhi High Court in its order dated 21.08.2023 in W.P. (C) Nos. 8902/2021; 9561/2021; 13131/2022; 531/2022; & 8083/2023 held that ".....an infraction of a condition for import of goods would also fall within the ambit of Section 2(33) of the Act and thus their redemption and release would become subject to the discretionary power of the Adjudging Officer". Therefore, keeping in view the judicial pronouncements above, the Commissioner (Appeals) has correctly refused to interfere with the discretion exercised by the original authority.

12.1 As regards the prayer for permitting re-export of the offending goods, the Government observes that a specific provision regarding re-export of articles Imported in baggage is made in Chapter-XI of the Customs Act, 1962, by way of Section 80. On a plain reading of Section 80, it is apparent that a declaration under Section 77 is a pre-requisite for allowing re-export. Hon'ble Allahabad High Court has, in the case of Deepak Bajaj vs Commissioner of Customs (P), Lucknow(2019(365) ELT 695(All.)), held that a declaration under Section 77 is a sine qua non for allowing re-export under Section 80 of the Act, ibid. In this case, the Applicant had not made a true declaration under Section 77.

12.2 Further, the Hon'ble Delhi High Court has, in the case of Jasvir Kaur vs. UOI (2009 (241) ELT 621 (Del.)), held that re-export is not permissible when article is recovered from the passenger while attempting to smuggle it. Hence, the question of allowing re-export does not arise.

13. The case laws relied upon by the Applicant, in support of his various contentions, are not applicable in view of the dictum of Hon'ble Supreme Court and Hon'ble High Courts, as above.

14. In the facts and circumstances of the case, the Government finds that the order for absolute confiscation of the impugned goods as upheld by Commissioner Appeals does not require any interference. The quantum of penalty imposed on the Applicant is neither harsh nor excessive.

15. The revision application is rejected for the reasons aforesaid."

5.10 I further rely upon the recent decision of the Hon'ble Revisionary Authority in the case of Ms Ros Maszwin Binti Abdul Kadir, Order No. 184/2024-CUS, dated 04.09.2024 wherein absolute confiscation of one long crude gold chain of 24 carat purity weighing 1.2 kgs valued at Rs 39,70,800/-, wrapped in a condom which was found concealed in lower inner garment, was upheld.

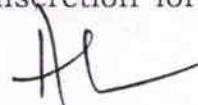

5.11 I further rely upon the recent decision of the Hon'ble Revisionary Authority in the case of Sh Rafi Syed, Order No. 175/2024-CUS, dated 28.08.2024 wherein absolute confiscation of 39 gold bars of 24 carat purity weighing 3800 grams valued at Rs 1,16,58,400/- concealed inside plastic pouches containing dates, was upheld.

5.12 I further rely upon the recent decision of the Hon'ble Revisionary Authority in the case of Shri Riyas Khan, Order No. 190/2024-CUS, dated 09.09.2024 wherein absolute confiscation of two cut gold bits and 78 gold ingots of 24 carat purity weighing 2620 grams valued at Rs 87,42,940/- concealed in play station joy sticks, was upheld.

5.13 I also rely upon the decision of Hon'ble High Court of Kerala in the case of Abdul Razak Versus Union of India [2012 (275) ELT 300 (Ker)] maintained in the Hon'ble Supreme Court [2017 (350) ELT A173 (SC)], wherein the passenger, a carrier, tried to smuggle 8 kg of gold concealed in emergency light, mixie, grinder, car horns etc. was held to be absolutely confiscated and not allowed to be released on redemption fine. The relevant para is reproduced as under:

“6. After hearing both sides and after considering the statutory provisions, we do not think the appellant, as a matter of right, can claim release of the goods on payment of redemption fine and duty. Even though gold as such is not a prohibited item and can be imported, such import is subject to lot of restrictions including the necessity to declare the goods on arrival at the Customs Station and make payment of duty at the rate prescribed. There is no need for us in this case to consider the conditions on which import is permissible and whether the conditions are satisfied because the appellant attempted to smuggle out the goods by concealing the same in emergency light, mixie, grinder and car horns etc. and hence the goods so brought is prohibitory goods as there is clear violation of the statutory provisions for the normal import of gold. Further, as per the statement given by the appellant under Section 108 of the Act, he is only a carrier i.e. professional smuggler smuggling goods on behalf of others for consideration. We, therefore, do not find any merit in the appellant's case that he has the right to get the confiscated gold released on payment of redemption fine and duty under Section 125 of the Act.”

In the present case also the appellant, concealed the seized gold in form of cut bars in underwear and shoe with an intention to smuggle the same into India. The gold was detected only when the appellant passed through DFMD Machine on the basis of his profiling. Therefore, the adjudicating authority has rightly exercised his discretion for absolute confiscation of gold.

6.16 In view of the above observations, and relying upon the decision of Hon'ble Tribunal, Bangalore, the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala, the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the Hon'ble Revisionary Authority, it is clearly established that the concealment in this case was ingenious as substantial quantity of gold cut bars weighing 311.080 grams was intentionally and ingeniously concealed in underwear and shoe to evade detection by the Customs authorities. The appellant did not intend to declare the said gold and the same was detected only when the appellant passed through DFMD Machine. He also admitted that he was carrying the said gold and intended to clear the same without paying Customs duty from the Airport. The appellant in the grounds of appeal has neither contested the absolute confiscation of gold nor challenged the findings of the adjudicating authority. Thus, in my considered view, this is not a case of simple non declaration of gold but a planned and intentional smuggling of gold into India. Therefore, the adjudicating authority has rightly exercised his discretion for absolute confiscation of seized gold of 24 kt/999.00 purity weighing 311.080 grams valued at Rs. 15,76,620/- (Tariff Value) and Rs 19,16,253/- (Market Value) under Customs Act, 1962. In view of above, the absolute confiscation of gold of 24 kt gold weighing 311.080 grams valued at Rs. 15,76,620/- (Tariff Value) and Rs 19,16,253/- (Market Value) is upheld.

6.17 Further, in respect of imposition of penalty amounting to Rs 6,00,000/- on the appellant for bringing undeclared gold weighing 311.080 grams valued at Rs. 15,76,620/- (Tariff Value) and Rs 19,16,253/- (Market Value), the appellant has attempted to bring gold into India without declaring the same and concealing the same ingeniously in underwear and shoe. The appellant has claimed ownership of the gold. The appellant has in the grounds of appeal has requested for reduction of penalty. It is observed that the appellant was not a habitual offender and was not a part of organised smuggling syndicate. In view of the above and looking at the role played by the appellant I am of the considered view that penalty of Rs. 6,00,000/- ordered by the adjudicating authority in the impugned order is harsh. Therefore, I reduce the penalty to Rs. 2,00,000/-.

7. In view of above, the appeal filed by the appellant is disposed of in above terms.
