Brief Facts of the Case:-

A specific intelligence was received in the office of the Directorate of Revenue Intelligence (Hqrs.), 7th Floor, Drum Shaped Building, I. P. Bhawan, I. P. Estate, New Delhi (hereinafter referred to as 'DRI') which indicated undervaluation in the export of rice. The intelligence further indicated that after imposition of duty on export of rice with effect from 09.09.2022, several exporters, including M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited, 8/2, Sindhi Commercial Market, Kalupur, Ahmedabad-380001, Gujarat, having IEC No. 0813024111 (hereinafter referred to as 'the exporter' for sake of brevity), were engaged in short payment of export duty by resorting to undervaluation by claiming abatement of duty from the assessable value. Thus, export duty was not being paid on the transaction value of the export goods (i.e. FOB Value) as provided u/s 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 instead the same was being paid on a reduced value by wrongly declaring the same as FOB Value thus causing short-payment of the appropriate duty of Customs.

2.1 Preliminary analysis of the Intelligence revealed that export duty at the rate of 20% ad valorem was imposed on export of rice vide CBIC Notification No. 49/2022-Cus. dated 08.09.2022.

2.2 Scrutiny of the export data pertaining to the said exporter revealed that they were evading duty on export of rice by adopting two different methods i.e. (i) by claiming wrongful deduction of export duty from the transaction value, and (ii) by declaring excess freight amounts.

2.3 The exporter used to negotiate a specific price for sale of their export consignment which was received by them from the overseas buyer as 'consideration' for sale of rice. Thus the 'consideration/negotiated price' was 'the actual transaction value' for their export consignment on which the exporter ought to have paid the 20% export duty. However, to evade duty, the exporter had artificially bifurcated the afore-said negotiated price/total consideration, in two parts i.e. (i) 'price of goods' and (ii) 'export duty amount'. The exporter had declared the reduced value 'price of goods' as their transaction value and the other part of the consideration which was equal to the 'export duty amount' was not included by them in their 'transaction value'. Instead, the same was claimed as 'deduction' and was declared in the Shipping Bills under the Head 'Deduct/Deduction'. Thus, a part of consideration, equal to the 'export duty amount', was not included in the transaction value for payment of export duty causing short payment of duty.

2.4 In several other cases of export of rice on CIF/CF incoterm basis, investigation revealed that the exporter had declared excess freight amounts in comparison to the actual freight amounts paid by them to the shipping lines/freight forwarders. In such shipments, FOB price is deduced from the CIF/CF prices by deducting the actual freight amounts paid by the exporter. By claiming excess freight amounts in the shipping bills, the exporter had wrongly deducted a part of the consideration/transaction value which is equal to the excess freight amounts claimed by them. Thus, a part of consideration, was not included in the transaction value for the payment of export duty in all such export shipments causing short payment of duty.

2.5 From the preliminary scrutiny of the export data, discussed in above paras, it appeared that the exporter had treated the actual transaction value (i.e. actual FOB Value) of their export goods as cum-duty FOB Value and they have declared the lesser transaction value by wrongly claiming abatement of duty from the actual transaction value and by claiming excess freight amounts in the shipping bills. By adopting the above-mentioned modus operandi, the exporter had been evading the payment of duty on the differential value between the actual transaction value of the export goods (i.e. FOB Value) and their declared reduced FOB value.

2.6 Valuation of the goods is covered by Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 which provides that 'the value of the ... export goods shall be the transaction value of such goods, that is to say, the price actually paid or payable for the goods when sold ... for export from India for delivery at the time and place of exportation. Further, Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007 (CVR, 2007) notified vide M.F. (D.R.) [Notification No. 95/2007-Cus \(N.T.\), dated-13-09-2007] also provide that value of the export goods shall be its transaction value. Rule 2 (1) (b) of the CVR, 2007 defines the term 'transaction value' as the value of export goods within the meaning of sub-section (1) of section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962. Further rule 3(1) of CVR, 2007 also stipulates that subject to rule 8 (providing for rejection of the declared value), the value of export goods shall be the transaction value. CVR, 2007 came into effect from 10.10.2007.

2.7 This practice of payment of export duty on cum-duty FOB Value was prevalent prior to the year 2009. CBIC Circular No. 18/2008-Cus. dated 10.11.2008 in this regard stipulated that with effect from 01.01.2009, the practice of computation of export duty shall be changed; that for the purposes of calculation of export duty, the transaction value, that is to say the price actually paid or payable for the goods for delivery at the time and place of exportation under section 14 of Customs Act 1962, shall be the FOB price of such goods at the time and place of exportation.

Initiation of investigation:

3.1 Pursuant to the afore-said intelligence and apparent undervaluation of the export goods, investigation was initiated against various exporters of the said commodity including M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited, having IEC No. 0813024111, by issuance of summons under the provisions of section 108 of the Customs Act, 1962. It was a directorship firm having Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari as its Director.

5.7 He was shown a print out of Section 14 and CBIC Circular No. 18/2008-cus dated 10.11.2008 and print out of incoterms from wikipedia and he was asked to give his comments on the same. In response he stated that he had understood the Section 14 and CBIC Circular No. 18/2008-cus dated 10.11.2008; that he had understood that for payment of export duty, transaction value of the goods has to be arrived at and the transaction value of the export goods was the FOB value thereof i.e. the price of the goods inclusive of all expenses and costs up to the loading of the goods in the vessel after clearance by the customs authority; that in some invoices they had paid the duty by considering the FOB value as cum duty FOB value instead of the actual FOB value of the export goods causing short payment of duty on export of rice; that they had adopted the said practice for exports by following and advised by some other exporters of rice; that he was unable to recall the name of such persons; that the afore-said CBIC Circular No. 18/2008-cus dated 10.11.2008 also provided that the value for charging export duty shall be the FOB value of the export goods and the practice of calculation of the FOB value as cum-duty price had been discontinued by the CBIC with effect from 01.01.2009 as per the said circular; that incoterms also indicated that in FOB terms of invoicing, all costs and expenses till loading of the export goods in to the vessel for export should be borne by the buyer; that FOB meant Free on Board i.e. all charges upto loading of the export goods in the vessel should be included for calculation of the FOB value; that all expenses related to payment of duty were incurred prior to loading of the goods on-board the vessel; that the same (expenses related to payment of duty) would also be included for payment of duty by them.

5.8 He was asked to see the documents of Invoice No. 130 dated 09.03.2023 (corresponding shipping bill no 8376824 dated 10.03.2023) and Invoice No. 131 dated 09.03.2023 (corresponding shipping bill 8382257 dated 10.03.2023) submitted by him vide letter dated 14.12.2023 and explain the process of duty calculation in these two shipping bills. In response he stated that in these two shipping bills they had exported White Rice; that in respect of Invoice No. 130 dated 09.03.2023 (corresponding shipping bill no 8376824 dated 10.03.2023) the contract value was USD 6,20,000 and the FOB value was also USD 6,20,000; that the duty @ 20% of the FOB Value i.e. equal to USD 1,24,000 had been paid on FOB value of USD 6,20,000 in respect of the said export consignment.

5.9 He further stated that in respect of Invoice No. 131 dated 09.03.2023 (corresponding shipping bill 8382257 dated 10.03.2023), the price according to the sale contract was USD 460 per MT CFR for export of 1000 MTs of the export cargo (i.e. rice); that however in the invoice, price of USD 398 per MT CFR was mentioned (thus total price of USD 398000 was declared); that they had reduced the invoice price by USD 62 per MT (total USD 62000/- for 1000 MTs of the export cargo) which was equal to the export duty paid by them in respect of the said consignment; that the total invoice value was USD 4,60,000 CFR; that the FOB value was declared as USD 3,10,000/- that the ocean freight was USD 88,000; that they had claimed a deduction of USD 62,000 from the actual FOB value to reduce the FOB value thereby evading the applicable export duty on the deduction amount claimed by them; that in this invoice they had used and treated the FOB price as cum duty FOB price for the calculation of duty and had thus claimed in-eligible deductions equal to the duty amount thus duty was not paid on the said deduction amounts claimed by them.

5.10 During the course of recording his statement, Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari, Proprietor of M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd. admitted their mistake and stated that he was willing to pay the differential duty on all such export consignments of rice wherein export duty had been paid by them by considering the FOB value as cum-duty FOB price instead of actual and full FOB value of the export goods in respect of both of their companies i.e. M/s Jagat Agro and M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd.; that he also undertook to deposit the differential duty at the earliest.

5.11 On being asked if they had used and followed the same procedure for calculation and payment of export duty in respect of the shipments of rice export by them in their another export firm namely M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd. also; he stated that they had considered the FOB value as cum-duty FOB price instead of full and actual FOB Price for export duty calculation in several consignments exported by them in M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd. also.

5.12 On being asked about the Shipping Bill numbers, date and other details in which they had paid export duty on the cum-duty price of the White Rice; he stated that after going through their export document pertaining to their export firm M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd., in the following shipping bills export duty had been short paid by them; that by using cum-duty FOB price method, the actual and full FOB value of the goods exported vide theses shipping bills had been wrongly reduced by them; that the amount of difference in the actual FOB price and the reduced FOB price adopted by them for duty payment is given in the table below.

6.1 Statement dated 14.12.2023 of Sh. Hareshbhai Jethanand Maheshwari, Director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited, (RUD-5)

Vide his statement dated 14.12.2023, Sh. Hareshbhai Jethanand Maheshwari, Director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited, stated that he is in the business of transportation of goods in Gandhidham, Gujarat; that he was inducted as Director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd. in the year 2015 at the time of incorporation of the said firm; that he is a relative of Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari, Proprietor of M/s Jagat Agro; that he had been shown statement dated 14.12.2023 of Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari, Proprietor of M/s Jagat Agro, C-47, Ashwamegh Industrial Estate, Ahmedabad-Rajkot Highway, Ahmedabad, Gujarat -382213 and Director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited, 8/2, Sindhi Commercial Market, Kalupur, Ahmedabad-380001, Gujarat; that he had gone through the said statement and he confirmed the facts stated by Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari, in the said statement in respect of M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited.

6.2 Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari, had been managing both the firms. He is the proprietor of M/s Jagat Agro, as well as director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd. This show cause notice is only in respect of the exports of rice made by M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd.; the exports of rice made by M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd. would be covered in a separate show cause notice.

7. Vide letter dated 31.01.2024 (RUD-6), Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari, Director of M/a Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd., submitted that they have calculated their differential duty payable on account of wrong claim of deduction amount out of FOB value of the exports and submitted two Demand Drafts, for payment of the differential duty, as below:

- i. Demand Draft No. 241917 dated 29.01.2024 for Rs.71,13,260/- in favour of Commissioner of Customs, Kandla payable at Kandla Mundra for payment of duty by M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd.

ii. Demand Draft No. 241918 dated 29.01.2024 for Rs.40,38,661/- in favour of Commissioner of Customs, Mundra payable at Mundra for payment of duty by M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd. Deposited at the Mundra Port vide Challan no. 2309 dated 16.02.2024 (RUD-6).

8.1 The export documents and details submitted by the exporter during investigation were analysed and it was revealed that including M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited had exported rice having description as Indian Non-Basmati Raw Rice/ Indian IR-64 White Rice / Indian Long Grain Rice etc. by classifying the same under CTH 10063090 which were liable to export duty @ 20% ad valorem vide CBIC Notification No. 49/2022-Cus. dated 08.09.2022 and 49 /2023-Customs dated the 25th August, 2023. In their export documents (Shipping Bills), they have declared the following three values (i) Total Value, (ii) Invoice Value and (iii) FOB Value. The Total Value declared by them was inclusive of export duty and indicated the total consideration received by them from the overseas buyer. Invoice Value was declared after deducting from the Total Value, an amount equal to the export duty paid by them in respect of their export goods. FOB Value was declared after deduction of the ocean freight amounts and insurance amounts from the afore-said Invoice Value. Thus, total amount of deductions of Rs.5,57,59,607/- were wrongly claimed by the exporter from the actual FOB Value in respect of their 10 export shipments as shown below.

8.2 Deduction amounts wrongly claimed by the exporter from the actual FOB Value of exports which were equal to the export duty:

Scrutiny of the export documents and details submitted by the exporter during investigation revealed that the exporter had at the time of filing of shipping bills claimed the deduction of an amount of Rs.5,57,59,607/- in respect of the following 10 shipping bills filed by them. The export duty amounts paid by them in respect of these 10 shipping bills were also at Rs.5,57,59,608/-. Therefore, the amounts claimed as 'deduction/deduct' were equal to the export duty amounts paid by them at the time of filing of these shipping bills. Investigation has revealed that these amounts claimed as 'deduction/deduct' were also recovered by the exporter from the overseas buyer in their bank accounts. The exporter had also confirmed these facts in his submission and statement recorded u/s 108 of the Customs Act, 1962.

8.2.1 Photo of Shipping Bill No. 8916120 dated 29-03-2023, Commercial Invoice cum Packing List No. 93 dated 27-03-2023, Details of Payment received from the overseas buyer pasted in the SCN clearly indicated that the deduction of Rs. 50,80,900/- (equivalent to USD 62000) had been claimed in the Shipping Bill which was equal to the cess amount (i.e. Export Duty) of Rs.50,80,900/- paid by them. The said amount had been deducted by the exporter from the actual transaction value (i.e. FOB Value) and export duty had not been paid on the said differential value of Rs. 50,80,900/- which was though part of the consideration received by the exporter from the overseas buyer for sale of the consignment. For receipt and processing of the said export duty amount of Rs.50,80,900/- (equivalent to USD 62000), in their bank account, separate invoices in the name of Reimbursement Invoice has been issued by the exporter to the buyer/bank authorities.

8.3 For reimbursement of the export duty from the overseas buyer, the exporter had declared RBI Accounting Purpose Code No. P1306 which is for refund of taxes, however, the following discussion indicate that the said purpose code is not meant for the receipt of export duty and export proceeds

The exporter had claimed that the deduction/ deduct amount claimed by them in the shipping bill have been received by them from the overseas buyers in the form of reimbursement of taxes. They have further informed that the said transactions have been made under the purpose code P1306.

RBI purpose codes are unique identifiers assigned to various international transactions, enabling banks and financial institutions to classify and process remittances accurately. RBI has notified purpose codes for reporting forex transactions for Payment and Receipt purposes.

The Purpose codes for reporting forex transactions (for the purpose of Receipt of amounts) are further categorized into 16 different 'Purpose Group Name' which includes Exports (of Goods), Transportation, Travel, Financial Services, Royalties & License Fees, Transfers among others.

The following purpose codes pertaining to Export (of Goods) refers to the receipt of forex in respect of exports made from India.

| Gr. No. | Purpose Group Name | Purpose Code | Description   |
|---------|--------------------|--------------|---|
| p1      | Exports (of Goods) | P0101        | Value of export bills negotiated / purchased/discounted etc. (covered under GR/PP/SOFTEX/EC copy of shipping bills etc.) |
|         |                    | P0102        | Realisation of export bills (in respect of goods) sent on collection (full invoice value)                                |
|         |                    | P0103        | Advance receipts against export contracts, which will be covered later by GR/PP/SOFTEX/SDF                               |
|         |                    | P0104        | Receipts against export of goods not covered by the GR/PP/SOFTEX/EC copy of shipping bill etc.                           |
|         |                    | P0105        | Export bills (in respect of goods) sent on collection.   |
|         |                    | P0106        | Conversion of overdue export bills from NPD to collection mode   |
|         |                    | P0107        | Realisation of NPD export bills (full value of bill to be reported)  |

Further, the purpose code P1306 referred by the exporter for reimbursement of taxes (i.e. export duty) falls under the group 'Transfer'.

| Gr. No. | Purpose Group Name | Purpose Code | Description  |
| 13      | Transfers          | P1301        | Inward remittance from Indian non-residents towards family maintenance and savings             |
|         |                    | P1302        | Personal gifts and donations   |
|         |                    | P1303        | Donations to religious and charitable institutions in India                                    |
|         |                    | P1304        | Grants and donations to governments and charitable institutions established by the governments |
|         |                    | P1306        | Receipts / Refund of taxes   |

From the above, it is evident that the purpose codes under the group 'Transfer' pertains to forex transactions of personal nature such as personal gifts, family maintenance, donations etc. and the accounting purpose code P1306 falling under the said category is clearly not associated with the payments received in respect of exported goods. Thus, the exporter had used wrong purpose for receipt of the export duty amounts from the buyers. Thus, the exporter had mis-represented the facts before the bank authorities also to process the receipt of export duty amounts from the overseas buyer. These amounts are not reflected in the bank realisation certificates obtained by the exporter from the bank.

8.4 Excess Ocean freight amounts wrongly declared in the Shipping Bills:

In addition to the shipments discussed in above para, in respect of the following 7 shipments of rice, the exporter had declared higher amounts of ocean freight in comparison to the actual ocean freight amounts paid by them, thus causing short payment of duty on the differential ocean freight amounts in respect of these 7 shipments also. The total amount of excess freight declared by the exporter in respect of these shipments stood at Rs.66,30,324/-. Vide email dated 26/29-01-2025, the exporter had submitted copies of the freight invoices indicating the actual freight amounts paid by them to the Freight forwarders/Shipping line, which clearly indicated that in these 7 shipments, they have declared excess ocean freight amounts in the shipping bills filed by them.

In respect of these shipments also, the exporter had not declared the true facts, before the customs authorities at the port of export at the time of effecting exports. They have declared the higher ocean freight amounts in their export documents such as shipping bills filed by them, in comparison to the actual freight amounts paid by them to the freight forwarders/shipping lines. It is a fact on record that the exporter had recovered the higher freight amounts from the overseas buyers of the export goods in comparison to the amounts paid by them to the freight forwarders & shipping lines in respect of their export shipments. These facts have been confirmed by the exporter in the details of their export shipments and actual freight payment invoices submitted by them under the provisions of section 108 of the Customs Act, 1962.

8.4.1 Copy of Shipping Bill Number 9261813 dated 13.04.2023, Freight Invoice and Invoice No. 01 dated 01.04.2023 pasted in the SCN indicated that the ocean freight amount declared in respect of the said shipment was Rs.66,62,365/- whereas during investigation, the exporter had submitted the actual freight amount paid by them in respect of the aforesaid shipping bill which stood at Rs.53,29,892/-. Thus, excess freight amount declared in respect of the aforesaid shipment works out to be at Rs.13,32,473/-. The said excess freight amount had also been recovered by the exporter from the overseas buyer of the export goods but the exporter had not paid duty on the said excess freight amount which was part and parcel of the actual assessable value of the export goods.

9. The aforesaid deduction amounts claimed by the exporter, as detailed in Table A above and the excess freight amounts declared by them in their export documents in respect of the shipments as detailed in Tables B above, were not included in the declared FOB Value of goods in respect of these shipments, as discussed in para 8 above. Investigation had revealed that these deduction amounts had also been claimed and/or recovered by them from the overseas buyer of the export goods in their bank accounts. Therefore, the deduction amounts taken by the exporter from the overseas buyer in any manner whether or not by declaring the same in the export documents or by mis-declaration of freight amounts in the export documents appeared to be forming part of the consideration received by the exporter for delivery of the export goods on board the vessel after clearance of the shipments through the customs authorities at the port of export. Thus, these excess freight amounts and deduction amounts claimed by the exporter at the time of filing shipping bills, as discussed in above paras, also appeared liable to be included in the FOB Value for the purpose of calculation of the export duty.

10. Legal Provisions:

10.1 Statutory provisions of the Customs Act, 1962 relevant to this case are enclosed as Annexure-A to this investigation report and the same are briefly discussed below:

10.2 The provisions of section 2(18), section 14 & section 16 of the Customs Act, 1962, Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007, CBIC Circular No. 18/2008-Cus. dated 10.11.2008 are relevant for understanding various aspects of valuation of the export goods in the context of present case:

- a) The term 'export' has been defined in "Section 2(18) of the Customs Act, 1962 as "export", with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions, means taking out of India to a place outside India."
- b) Section 14 of the Customs Act 1962, stipulates that 'for the purposes of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (51 of 1975), or any other law for the time being in force, the value of the .....export goods shall be the transaction value of such goods, that is to say, the price actually paid or payable for the goods when sold ..... for export from India for delivery at the time and place of exportation, where the buyer and seller of the goods are not related and price is the sole consideration for the sale subject to such other conditions as may be specified in the rules made in this behalf.
- c) In this provision the terms "the price actually paid or payable for the goods" and "when sold for export from India for delivery at the time and place of exportation" in the context of present case are very significant. For the process of export to be complete, the goods need to be taken out of India to a place outside India. This event can take place only after goods cross Indian borders. This is more so because the price has to be taken for sale of export goods when sold for export from India 'for delivery at the time and place of exportation'. The wording "for the delivery-at the time and place for exportation" has to be legally construed as "for delivery at the time and place of exportation on board the foreign going vessel". Thus, the time and place of delivery of the export goods will be when the goods are on-board the foreign going vessel which takes place after the goods are given a Let Export

Order (LEO) by the jurisdictional Customs officer after examining the compliance to Customs law. By implication, all elements of cost that are required to be incurred to bring the goods 'for delivery at the time and place of exportation' to the foreign going vessel will have to be added to invoice price to arrive at a correct transaction value of export goods as per section 14 notwithstanding the manner as to how the financial transaction is organized by the exporter and the overseas buyer. It is amply clear that without incurring associated expenses the export goods cannot be simply brought to the place of exportation at the time of export. Thus, in the impugned case, the price payable for the export goods for delivery at the time and place of exportation can be arrived at only after inclusion of associated costs including the amounts equal to the export duty which have been recovered by the exporters from the overseas buyers of the export goods.

- d) "FOB value" means the price actually paid or payable to the exporter for goods when the goods are loaded onto the carrier at the named port of exportation including the cost of the goods and all costs necessary to bring the goods onto the carrier at included in the term 'FOB Value'. The valuation shall be made in accordance with the World Trade Organisation (WTO) Agreement on Implementation of rule VII of General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 1994. There cannot be an exception to the well laid down principles of valuation.
- e) This method of calculation of 'FOB Value' is prescribed in various trade facilitation agreements such as 'Asean India Free Trade Agreement (AIFTA)' in a very clear manner as follows. FOB value shall be calculated in the following manner, namely:
  - (a)  $\text{FOB Value} = \text{ex-factory price} + \text{other costs}$
  - (b) Other costs in the calculation of the FOB value shall refer to the costs incurred in placing the goods in the ship for export, including but not limited to, domestic transport costs, storage and warehousing, port handling, brokerage fees, service charges, et cetera.
- f) This in fact lays down the foundation for arriving at the assessable value of the export goods whereby various elements of costs, including the export duty, notwithstanding it is being paid to the exporter directly by the foreign buyer or otherwise, are required to be added to the invoice price. Costing exercise of addition of other cost elements in FOB Value is not limited to transit transportation cost, storage & warehousing alone. Without payment of export duty, let export order cannot be issued by the jurisdictional customs office and the goods cannot be loaded on the foreign going vessel to take them out of India. On this background it is observed that value of the export goods on which duty has been paid by the exporter of rice does not reflect an FOB value i.e. a price payable for delivery of goods at the time and place of exportation which is a basis for export assessment.
- g) This practice of payment of export duty by considering the FOB Value as cum-duty FOB Value was prevalent prior to the year 2009. CBIC Circular No. 18/2008-Cus. dated 10.11.2008 in this regard instructed that the existing practice of computation of the export duty by taking FOB price as the cum-duty price may be continued till 31.12.2008 and all the pending cases may be finalized accordingly. It was also clarified that with effect from 01.01.2009, the practice of computation of export duty shall be changed; that for the purposes of calculation of export duty, the transaction value, that is to say the price actually paid or payable for the goods for delivery at the time and place of exportation under section 14 of Customs Act 1962, shall be the FOB price of such goods at the time and place of exportation.

- h) In order to bring in uniformity, transparency and consistency in assessment of export of Iron Ore, CBIC vide Circular No. 12/2014 –Customs dated 17.11.2014 directed the field formations inter alia to monitoring the receipt of Bank Realisation Certificates for the purposes of comparison with the final invoices submitted by the exporter to satisfy the accuracy of the assessed values. It also indicates that the total consideration received by the exporter from the buyer for sale of the export goods have to be considered for assessment of the export goods. In shipments exported on FOB incoterm basis, duty has to be calculated on the total considerations received by the exporter from the buyer whether or not they are included in the BRC. For shipments exported on CIF/CF/CI inco-term basis, FOB Value has to be deduced from the CIF/CF/CI value by deducting the actual freight amounts and/or insurance premium amounts paid by the exporter as the case may be.
- i) Relevance of time of export is further proved as Section 16 of the Customs Act, 1962 which provides for the date for determination of rate of duty and tariff valuation of export goods, stipulate that the rate of duty and tariff valuation, if any, applicable to any export goods, shall be the rate and valuation in force,- (a) in the case of goods entered for export under section 50, on the date on which the proper officer makes an order permitting clearance and loading of the goods for exportation under section 51; (b) in the case of any other goods, on the date of payment of duty. The afore-said statutory provision also indicate that time of export is relevant for valuation of the export goods.

From the above, it is evident that from 01.01.2009 onwards, the transaction value shall be the FOB Value of the export goods and the FOB value shall not be treated as the Cum-duty price of the export goods. The above practice has to be followed for all export commodities irrespective of the description of the export goods.

11. The investigation into undervaluation of rice shipments exported by M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited vide above mentioned Shipping Bills as discussed in Tables A & B above, revealed deliberate mis-statement and suppression of facts on part of the exporter, who was actively involved in mis-declaration of the FOB value of export goods, with an intention to evade appropriate export duty leviable on ad valorem basis on such goods. As discussed in above paras, the exporter had mis-declared the ocean freight amounts whereas they were very well aware of the actual freight amounts paid by them in respect of these shipments exported vide Shipping Bills mentioned in Table B above. In respect of the goods exported by them through shipping bills as discussed in Table A above, the exporter had wrongly claimed the deduction in the shipping bills for export duty amounts and the exporter had claimed duty amounts by raising separate reimbursement invoices to the buyer but have not declared the same in the shipping bills and export invoices submitted to the customs authorities and thus have mis-declared the actual transaction value. Thus, the exporter had not declared the actual FOB Values in the shipping bills thereby intentionally evading the applicable duties of customs on such undue deduction amounts/excess freight amounts.

12.1 As discussed in above paras, the valuation of export goods under the Customs Act, 1962, is governed by the provisions of Section 14 ibid, read with the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007 [hereinafter referred as 'CVR (E), 2007']. As per the provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962, the value of export goods shall be the 'transaction value' of such goods, that is to say, the price actually paid or payable for the goods when sold for export from India for delivery at the time and place of exportation (i.e., the FOB price) when price is the sole consideration. As such, the sum total of price paid by the overseas buyer for delivery at the time and place of exportation would be the 'transaction value' of such goods.

12.2 Further, for the purpose of charging export duty, the value to be considered is the FOB price. This is so because, the terms "for export from India for delivery at the time and place of exportation" appearing in Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962, means to FOB (Free on Board) value only. This has been clarified also by the Central Board of Excise and Customs (CBEC) vide Circular No. 18/2008, dated 10.11.2008, wherein it stated that in case of export shipments, for the purposes of calculation of export duty, the transaction value, that is to say the price actually paid or payable for the goods for delivery at the time and place of exportation under section 14 of Customs Act 1962, shall be the FOB price of such goods at the time and place of exportation.

12.3 In this case the value of the export goods shall be the transaction value thereof when the price is the sole consideration. As such, for determination of the transaction value of the export goods, the sole consideration received by the exporter from the buyer should be taken in to account, then it should be seen as to which prices are compulsory for delivery of the export goods on board the vessel. In this case, the exporter is insisting that the export duty is on reimbursement basis from the overseas buyer of the export goods. By doing so, the exporter is separately receiving a part of the export proceeds from the overseas buyer and not including the same in the assessable value of the export goods. It can be stated that the seller has imposed a condition on the buyer of the export goods which states that if the buyer does not pay him a fixed amount (equal to the 20% export duty on their declared lesser FOB value), they would not sell the export goods to the overseas buyer and would not deliver the same at the time and place of exportation. Thus, all such agreements wherein the seller had imposed a condition on the buyer by which buyer has to pay a part of the payment separately in the bank accounts of the seller on account of sale of the export goods, such payments are necessarily part of the consideration received by the seller for sale of the export goods. Likewise, the excess ocean freight amounts declared by the exporter are also part of the consideration received by the exporter from the buyer for sale of the export goods as such excess ocean freight amounts have not be paid by them to the shipping lines/freight forwarders for the transportation of the export goods. All such amounts which are equal to the export duty amounts claimed/recovered from the buyer and excess ocean freight amounts declared in the shipping bills are liable to be added in their declared FOB Values for determination of their actual FOB Value for calculation of applicable export duties thereon.

13.1 The method of calculation of FOB Value has been provided at the website of various reputed platforms such as 'Freightos', which also support the contention of DRI that export duty is also includible in the FOB Value if the same has been recovered by the seller from the buyer.

The description of the said platform as available on their website under the heading 'About Freightos' states that

Freightos® (NASDAQ: CRGO) is the leading, vendor-neutral booking and payment platform for international freight, improving world trade. WebCargo® by Freightos and 7LFreight by WebCargo form the largest global air cargo booking platform, connecting airlines and freight forwarders. Over ten thousand freight forwarder offices, including the top twenty global forwarders, place thousands of eBookings a day on the platform with over fifty airlines. These airlines represent over 2/3rds of global air cargo capacity. Alongside ebookings, freight forwarders use WebCargo and 7LFreight to automate rate management, procurement, pricing and sales of freight services, across all modes, resulting in more efficient and more transparent freight services. More information is available at freightos.com/investors.

The website of freightos <https://www.freightos.com/freight-resources/fob-calculator> was visited which provide FOB calculator tools for the ease of international freight industry. As per the said website, FOB (Free on Board) Calculator is a tool used in international trade to determine the total cost of goods when they are shipped from the seller's location to the buyer's destination. The FOB price includes the cost of the goods, as well as various expenses incurred until the goods are loaded onto the vessel, such as packaging, loading, and inland transportation to the port of departure. It does not include the freight charges for transporting the goods from the port of departure to the port of destination or any other charges or taxes beyond the point of loading.

From the above details available on their website, it is evident that all taxes before the point of loading of the export goods on board the vessel are included in the term 'FOB'. In the case of export of goods, loading of the export goods starts after issuance of the 'Let Export Order (LEO)' by the proper officer of the Customs. LEO is issued after payment of the export duty. As the export duty is leviable before the point of loading of the export goods on to the vessel the same is includable in the FOB Value of the export goods.

13.2 The above contention of DRI is also supported by the Incoterms which are widely used in the international transactions. Incoterm or International Commercial Terms which are a series of pre-defined commercial terms published by the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) relating to international commercial law. These incoterms define the responsibility of the importers and exporters in the arrangement of shipments and transfer of liability involved at various stages of transaction. They are widely used in the international commercial transactions and procurement processes. These incoterms rules are accepted by governments, legal authorities worldwide for the interpretation of most commonly used terms in the international trade. They are intended to reduce or remove altogether uncertainties arising from the differing interpretations of the rules in different countries. As per Wikipedia, the Incoterms 2020 is the ninth set of international contract terms published by the International Chamber of Commerce with the first set published in 1936 (RUD-9). As per Incoterms 2020 published by ICC, the term 'FOB' has been defined as under -

FOB – Free on Board (named port of shipment)

Under FOB terms the seller bears all costs and risks up to the point the goods are loaded on board the vessel. The seller's responsibility does not end at that point unless the goods are "appropriated to the contract" that is, they are "clearly set aside or otherwise identified as the contract goods".<sup>[20]</sup> Therefore, FOB contract requires a seller to deliver goods on board a vessel that is to be designated by the buyer in a manner customary at the particular port. In this case, the seller must also arrange for export clearance. On the other hand, the buyer pays cost of marine freight transportation, bill of lading fees, insurance, unloading and transportation cost from the arrival port to destination.

As per the allocation of costs to buyer/seller according to incoterms 2020, in FOB terms, all costs related to loading of the export goods at origin, export custom declaration, carriage to the port of export, unloading of truck in port of export, loading on vessel/airplane in the port of export have to be borne by the seller of the goods and other expenses such as carriage to the port of import, insurance, unloading in port of import, loading on truck in port of import, carriage to the place of destination, import custom clearance, import duties and taxes and unloading at destination have to be borne by the buyer of the goods. Thus, all cost until the loading of the export cargo on board the foreign going vessel have to be borne by the seller of the export goods which also include export customs declaration and cost related to it. Thus, it is evident that the export duty is includible in the FOB Value and the same have to be borne by the seller and it cannot be recovered by the seller from the overseas buyer. If the same is recovered, it becomes part of the consideration for sale of the export goods and thus becomes liable to be included in the FOB Value of the export goods.

14. Rejection & Redetermination of the Transaction Value:

14.1 As discussed in the above paragraphs, valuation of export goods under the Customs Act, 1962, is governed by the provisions of Section 14, ibid, read with the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007 [here-in-after referred as the CVR (E), 2007]. The export proceeds receivable in full consequent to negotiation and finalization of sale price between the exporter from India and their overseas buyer form 'transaction value' of such goods. The export Customs duty is leviable on the actual sale price at which the goods were sold. Where such sale price has been mis-declared and under-stated by the exporter, the actual sale price, i.e. the Transaction Value, needs to be taken into account for the purpose of valuation of the impugned export goods.

14.2 In respect of the shipments of rice covered by the Shipping Bills as shown in the Tables A & B above, it appears that M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited negotiated and finalized one price with their overseas buyer but in the contracts, the said price was intentionally bifurcated in two parts. The amount of duty payable by the exporter was deducted from the transaction value. In the shipping bills filed by the exporter, such undervalued and mis-declared transaction value was shown, which was lesser than the price that was actually finalized with the overseas buyer as consideration for the export goods. A part of the consideration was intentionally excluded from the transaction value of the export goods by adopting three different modus operandi as discussed in para 8 above. The difference between the actual price finalized with the overseas buyer and the price shown in the export documents were recovered/claimed by the exporter from the buyer separately by an arrangement of the buyer and the seller in this regard. The exporter and buyer may enter into any contract (oral or written), they may sell and purchase the export goods on any terms (such as FOB, CIF, CF, CI or ex-works basis) but for the purposes of calculation of the export duty, the transaction value in terms with the provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 has to be derived and such transaction value is the FOB Value of the export goods as discussed in above paras and for the purpose of calculation of the FOB Value of the export goods, abatement of the export duty is not available as per Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with CBIC Circular No. 18/2008-Customs dated 10.11.2008.

14.3 The receipt of these deduction amounts from the overseas buyers was apparently never disclosed to the concerned Customs authorities. The said amounts were received from the overseas buyer, as reimbursement of taxes/duties under wrong RBI Purpose code P1306 which is not meant for receipt of the export duty. The reduced FOB Value declared in the export documents was presented as the true Transaction Value being paid for the export goods by the overseas buyer as the deduction amount was not reflected in the Bank Realization Certificate (BRC) in respect of these export shipment. The deduction amount was recovered separately in their bank account as reimbursement of taxes. Hence, it appears that the value declared by M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited to the concerned Customs authorities as the Transaction Value of the export cargo in respect of shipments of rice covered by the Shipping Bills as shown in the Tables A & B above, is liable to be rejected under Rule 8 of the CVR(E), 2007 and the impugned export goods are liable to be valued at their actual Transaction Value as established by the present investigation, in accordance with the provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962, read with Rule 3 of the CVR(E), 2007.

14.4 The amount wrongly excluded from the FOB price was indeed part of the consideration negotiated and finalized between the exporter M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited and their respective overseas buyers and the said amount which was excluded from the FOB Value was duly claimed /received by the exporter from the overseas buyer in their bank account. Therefore, the differential value (equal to the deduction amount/excess freight amount) as shown in the Tables A & B above appear to be includable in the declared value (FOB Value) of the respective export shipments to arrive at the correct transaction value at which the said goods were sold for export from India for delivery at the time and place of exportation and export Customs duty as per the prevailing rate needs to be charged on the said value. M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited appears to be liable to pay the resultant differential duty in addition to the duty already paid by them.

14.5 In view of the above, in accordance with the provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962, the amount of differential customs duty in respect of the Shipping Bills as mentioned in the Tables A & B at Para 8 above, wherein a part of export proceeds was apparently not declared to the concerned Customs authorities, and the same was not included in the declared transaction value has to be worked out on the basis of actual Transaction Value of the export goods revealed during the investigation.

15. Calculation of Differential Duty:

15.1 As discussed in above paras, the exporter had undervalued their export shipments of rice. For this two modus operandi were adopted by the exporter. In some of their export shipments mentioned at Table A in para 8 above, the FOB price were undervalued by an amount equal to the amount of export duty paid by them at the time of export. In such shipping bills, actual transaction value of the export goods has to be re-determined by adding the amount of export duty which was wrongly claimed as deduction in the shipping bills. These deduction amounts are liable to be included in the actual assessable value of the export goods and differential duty of Rs.1,11,51,920/- is liable to be recovered from the exporter in respect of these deduction amounts as summarized below. The detailed calculation of differential duty is shown in Annexure- I to this investigation report.

15.2 Apart from the above, in several shipments of rice, as detailed in Table B in para 8 above, the exporter had declared excess freight amounts in comparison to the actual freight amounts paid by them to the freight forwarders/shipping lines for transportation of the export goods to the country of destination. Only the ocean freight amounts actually paid by the exporter are eligible for deduction from the CIF/CF value for calculation of the FOB Value of the export goods. Therefore, the excess freight amounts declared by the exporter are not eligible/allowed for deduction as per the provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962. These excess freight amounts claimed by the exporter are also liable to be included in the actual assessable value of the export goods and as summarized below, differential duty amount of Rs.13,26,065/- is liable to be recovered from the exporter in respect of these excess freight amounts also. The detailed calculation of differential duty is shown in Annexure- II to this investigation report.

15.3 In view of the above-mentioned two modus operandi followed by the exporter for evasion of export duty, their re-determined assessable value in respect of total 15 export shipments have been calculated as shown in below table. Accordingly, the differential duty payable by the exporter M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited works out to be at Rs. 1,24,77,985/- as shown in below Table. The detailed calculation of the differential duty amounts has been shown in Annexure I & II to this investigation report. The port wise summary of differential duty payable by M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited is as under:

16. Obligation under Self-assessment and Reasons for raising duty demand by invoking extended period:

16.1 The exporter had subscribed to a declaration as to the truthfulness of the contents of the Shipping Bill in terms of Section 50(2) of the Customs Act, 1962, in all their export declarations. Further, consequent upon the amendment to Section 17 of the Customs Act, 1962 vide Finance Act, 2011, 'Self-Assessment' had been introduced in Customs. Section 17 of the Customs Act, 1962, effective from 08.04.2011, provides for self-assessment of duty on export goods by the exporter himself by filing a Shipping Bill, in electronic form. Section 50 of the Customs Act, 1962 makes it mandatory for the exporter to make an entry for the export goods by presenting a Shipping Bill electronically to the proper officer. As per Regulation 4 of the Shipping Bill (Electronic Integrated Declaration and Paperless Processing) Regulation, 2019 (issued under Section 157 read with Section 50 of the Customs Act, 1962), the Shipping Bill shall be deemed to have been filed and self-assessment of duty completed when, after entry of the electronic declaration (which was defined as particulars relating to the export goods that are entered in the Indian Customs Electronic Data Interchange System) in the Indian Customs Electronic Data Interchange System either through ICEGATE or by way of data entry through the service centre, a Shipping Bill number was generated by the Indian Customs Electronic Data Interchange System for the said declaration. Thus, under the scheme of self-assessment, it was the exporter who must doubly ensure that he declared the correct classification / CTH of the export goods, the applicable rate of duty, value, the benefit of exemption notification claimed, if any, in respect of the export goods while presenting the Shipping Bill. Thus, with the introduction of self-assessment by amendment to Section 17, w.e.f. 08.04.2011, it was the added and enhanced responsibility of the exporter to declare the correct description, value, Notification, etc. and to correctly classify, determine and pay the duty applicable in respect of the export goods.

16.2 In view of the discussion supra, it is evident that the Director of the export firm M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd., were well aware about the actual value of the export goods. They have knowingly got indulged in preparation and planning of forged / manipulated export documents, which they used to forward to the Customs broker in relation to Customs clearance of the said export goods at the time of exportation by way of wilful mis-declaration and intentional suppression of these facts in the Shipping Bills filed by them and thus they appear to have evaded the applicable Customs duty on export of rice.

16.3 In the event of short levy of Customs duty by reason of collusion, any wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts by the exporter or the agent or employees of the exporter, such duty can be recovered by invoking extended period of five years as provided in Section 28(4) of the Customs Act, 1962. In this case, it appears that the exporter has knowingly and deliberately mis-declared the transaction value (i.e. FOB Value) of the export goods. Hence, the extended period of five years is rightly invokable in this case to recover the differential duty as detailed in Annexure -I and Annexure -II of this Investigation Report. Further, M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited is also liable to pay interest on their said differential duty liability as per the provisions of Section 28 AA of the Customs Act, 1962, at applicable rate.

17. From the scrutiny of the documents gathered/submitted during investigation by the exporter M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd., scrutiny of the export data and statements of Sh. Chetan Abhimanu Maheshwari, and Sh. Hareshbhai Jethanand Maheshwari both Directors of M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited who was involved in export of rice from various ports of India, it appears that—

- i. Sh. Chetan Abhimanu Maheshwari, Director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited was the key person who on behalf of M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited negotiated and finalized the sale price of rice, exported by M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited to various overseas buyers, vide 15 Shipping Bill as detailed in Tables A & B in para 8 above.
- ii. The declared FOB value in respect of shipping bills listed in Tables A & B did not reflect the correct transaction value of the export goods;
- iii. As discussed in above paras, the actual transaction value (i.e. FOB Value) was not declared by them in their export documents. They have undervalued and mis-declared their transaction value with intent to evade applicable duty of customs which is leviable @ 20% ad valorem on the actual transaction value of the export goods in following manners:

- In respect of Shipping bills listed in Table A above, the FOB Value was undervalued by them by an amount equal to the amount of export duty paid on export of rice and the said amount was wrongly claimed as deduction in the shipping bills and the said amount was recovered from the overseas buyer on the basis of separate reimbursement invoices raised to the buyer.
- In respect of the shipping bills listed in Table B, the declared FOB Value was further undervalued by an amount equal to the excess freight amounts declared by the exporter in the shipping bills which were over and above the actual freight amounts paid by them. The ocean freight amounts actually paid by the exporter are eligible deductions from the CIF Value. By declaring the excess freight amounts, exporter had wrongly claimed excess deductions of freight amounts which are not eligible. Thus, exporter had out rightly mis-declared the actual transaction value at the time of export.

Thus, the declared FOB value in respect of all these shipments did not reflect the correct transaction value of the goods for delivery of the export goods at the time and place of exportation (i.e. on board the foreign going vessel after clearance from the customs authorities at the port of export).

- iv. The FOB value of export goods in all these cases was mis-declared by M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited to the Customs authorities in the shipping bills filed by them which was supported by their export invoices for lower value, resulting in suppression and mis-declaration of actual transaction value at the time of assessment of the export goods. As such, the value of export goods in respect of all these Shipping Bills was mis-represented to be lower than the actual transaction value, thereby causing evasion of export duty leviable on rice shipments exported by them;
- v. The value of export goods pertaining to each of these Shipping Bills are liable to be rejected and reassessed as per their actual transaction value as ascertained during investigation, by taking into account the amount which was excluded from the declared value at the time of assessment, as brought out in above paras;
- vi. The balance amount not included in the declared FOB Value and wilfully suppressed by not declaring to Customs with an intention to misrepresent the transaction value of the export goods, is liable to be assessed to duty at the applicable rate as detailed in 'Annexure -I and Annexure -II' of this Investigation Report and the same is recoverable along with interest at applicable rate;
- vii. The act of undervaluation and mis-declaration of actual transaction value in respect of Shipping Bills listed in Tables A & B by M/s Jagat Agrotech

Private Limited has rendered the export goods liable to confiscation under the provisions of Section 113 (i) of the Customs Act, 1962 and consequently, M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited has rendered themselves liable to a Penalty under the provisions of Section 114A and Section 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962;

viii. Sh. Chetan Abhimanu Maheshwari, Director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited, appears to be the person who knowingly or intentionally either made, signed and used or caused to be made, signed and used, the custom purpose export invoices, exporter and banking purpose export invoices and Shipping Bills for export of rice by M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited, which were incorrect as regards to the value of export goods for payment of export duty. The goods covered under Shipping Bills listed in Tables A & B above, contained the declarations made by M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited which were false and incorrect in material particulars relating to the value of the impugned goods. The contracts with the buyer for sale and export of rice as well as the export documents submitted to Customs were finalized/signed in the overall supervision of Sh. Chetan Abhimanu Maheshwari who was handling the day to day business of the export firm. This fact has been admitted by Sh. Chetan Abhimanu Maheshwari in his statement recorded u/s 108 of the Customs Act, 1962. In view of this, it appears that Sh. Chetan Abhimanu Maheshwari is the key person who has orchestrated the entire scheme of mis-declaration of value of the export goods, with an intention to evade customs (export) duty. Sh. Chetan Abhimanu Maheshwari is, therefore, responsible for wilful acts of mis-statement and suppression of facts in respect of export of rice by M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited. The act of Sh. Chetan Abhimanu Maheshwari regarding under valuation and mis-declaration of actual transaction value in respect of Shipping Bills filed by M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited has rendered the export goods liable to confiscation under the provisions of Section 113 (i) of the Customs Act, 1962. As such, Sh. Chetan Abhimanu Maheshwari has rendered himself liable to penal action under the provisions of Section 114 (ii) and 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962;

18. CBIC vide Notification No. 28/2022-Customs (N.T.) dated 31.03.2022 had stipulated that in cases of multiple jurisdictions as referred in Section 110AA of the Customs Act, the report in writing, after causing the inquiry, investigation or audit as the case may be, shall be transferred to officers described in column (3) of the said Notification along with the relevant documents. For cases involving short levy, non-levy, short payment or non-payment of duty, as provided in Section 110AA (a) (ii), the functions of the proper officer for exercise of powers under Section 28 of the Customs Act, 1962 have been assigned to the jurisdictional Pr. Commissioner/ Commissioner of Customs in whose jurisdiction highest amount of duty is involved. Since, in the present case, exports have been made from two (02) different ports, as mentioned in Table E in para 15.3 above, however the highest amount of differential export duty is in respect of Kandla Port, Gujarat. Hence, Kandla Port, Gujarat, being the port involving highest revenue, this Show Cause Notice is being made answerable to Principal Commissioner/ Commissioner of Customs, Kandla Port, Gujarat, for the purpose of issuance as well as adjudication of Show Cause Notice under Section 110AA read with Notification No. 28/2022-Customs (N.T) dated 31.03.2022.

19.1 Accordingly, M/s Jagat Agrotech Private Limited having its registered office at 8/2, Sindhi Commercial Market, Kalupur, Ahmedabad-380001, Gujarat (bearing Importer Exporter Code No. 0813024111), were called upon to show cause within 30(thirty) days of receipt of this Notice, in writing, to the Adjudicating Authority i.e., the Principal Commissioner/ Commissioner of Customs, Kandla, Kandla Custom House, Near Balaji Temple, 370210 (INIXY1), as to why—

- i. The declared assessable value of Rs. 40,16,97,575/- in respect of 15 shipments of rice exported vide Shipping Bills detailed in 'Annexure-I & II', should not be rejected in terms of Rule 8 of the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007, read with Rule 3 (1) ibid and Section 14 (1) of the Customs Act, 1962;
- ii. The actual assessable value in respect of Shipping Bills detailed in 'Annexure-I & II', should not be re-determined at Rs. 46,40,87,506 /- under the provisions of Section 14 (1) of the Customs Act, 1962, read with Rule 3 (1) of the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007 by taking into account – (a) the amounts claimed as deduction in the shipping bills, which were equivalent to amount of export duty paid by them; (b) excess ocean freight amounts claimed by them which were recovered by them from the buyers as discussed in Para 8 & 15 of this Investigation Report;
- iii. The differential (export) duty amounting to Rs. 1,24,77,985/- payable, as calculated and shown in 'Annexure-I and II' to this Investigation Report, in respect of Shipping Bill filed by them at two different ports, should not be demanded and recovered from them, by invoking the extended period of limitation available under the provisions of Section 28 (4) of the Customs Act, 1962;
- iv. The interest on the afore-said total differential duty amount of Rs. 1,24,77,985/- should not be demanded and recovered from them under the provisions of Section 28AA of the Customs Act, 1962;
- v. The voluntary deposit of Rs.1,11,51,921/- made during investigation should not be appropriated against their aforesaid differential duty liability;

vii. Penalty under the provisions of section 114A and Section 114AA should not be imposed upon them.

19.2 Now therefore, Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari, Director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt Ltd. (having Importer Exporter Code No. 0813024111), Resident of - 20, Sahkar-2, Jagabhai Park, Rambaug, Maninagar, Ahmedabad-380008, Gujarat is hereby called upon to show cause within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of this Notice, in writing, to the Adjudicating Authority i.e., the Principal Commissioner/ Commissioner of Customs, Kandla, Kandla Custom House, Near Balaji Temple, 370210 (INIXY1), as to why penalty under the provisions of section 114 (ii) and Section 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962 should not be imposed upon them for their acts and omissions in evasion of Customs Duty amounting to Rs. 1,24,77,985/- on export of rice through his export firm.

Defence Reply:-

20. Vide the Show Cause Notice, the Noticee was directed to submit their reply within 30 days from the receipt of the Show Cause Notice failing which the matter would be decided the case would be decided Ex-parte and on the basis of documents available with this office. However, till date they have not submitted any reply to the Show Cause Notice. Further, Noticee vide its letter dated 19.11.2025 submitted that they do not want any personal hearing in the matter and requested to adjudicate the SCN on merits.

Records of Personal Hearing:-

21. Noticee vide its letter dated 19.11.2025 submitted that they do not want any personal hearing in the matter and requested to adjudicate the SCN on merits. Accordingly, no personal hearing in this case is held.

Discussion and Findings:-

22. After having carefully gone through the Show Cause Notice, relied upon documents, submissions made by the Noticee's and the records available before me, I now proceed to decide the case. The main issues involved in the case which are required to be decided in the present adjudication are as under: -

- (i) Whether, in accordance with the provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with the Customs Valuation (Determination of Price of Export Goods) Rules, 2007, the differential Customs duty, in respect of the Shipping Bills mentioned in Table A & B at Para 8.2 & 8.4 supra, where a part of the export proceeds was apparently not declared to the concerned Customs authorities and thus not included in the declared transaction value has to be computed based on the actual transaction value of the export goods as revealed during the investigation; or whether the export duty reimbursed by the buyer, and excess freight declared are eligible for deduction from the FOB value?

- (ii) Whether the FOB value declared by the said noticee in the Shipping Bills at the time of export of goods is required to be rejected in terms of Rule 8 of the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007, read with Rule 3 (1) ibid and Section 14 (1) of the Customs Act, 1962;
- (iii) Whether the actual assessable value in respect of Shipping Bills detailed in 'Annexure-I & II is required to be re-determined at Rs.46,40,87,506/- under the provisions of Section 14 (1) of the Customs Act, 1962, and total differential (export) duty amounting to Rs.1,24,77,985/- payable, as calculated and shown in 'Annexure-I & II to the notice, in respect of these Shipping Bills filed by them at 02 different ports, is required to be demanded and recovered from them, by invoking the extended period of limitation available under the provisions of Section 28(4) of the Customs Act, 1962 along with applicable interest under Section 28AA ibid;
- (iv) Whether the shipments of rice exported vide Shipping Bills detailed in 'Annexure-I & II to the Notice having proposed re-determined assessable value of Rs.46,40,87,506/- deserve to be confiscated under the provisions of Section 113 (i) of the Customs Act, 1962;.
- (v) The voluntarily amount of Rs.1,11,51,921/- deposited by them during investigation is liable to be appropriated against their duty liability.
- (vi) Whether penalty under Section 114A and Section 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962 is required to be imposed on the said noticee; and
- (vii) Whether for their acts and omissions in evasion of Customs duty amounting to Rs.1,24,77,985/-, Shri Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari, Director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd., Resident of - 20, Sahkar-2, Jagabhai Park, Rambaug, Maninagar, Ahmedabad-380008, is liable for penalty under the provisions of section 114 (ii) and Section 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962.

23. After framing the main issues for consideration, I now proceed to examine each issue in detail. The foremost issue before me is whether the abatement of expenses, including export duty, on two different accounts claimed by the said noticee from the FOB value of the goods for export, is admissible under the provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with the relevant provisions of the Customs Valuation (Determination of Price of Export Goods) Rules, 2007. The relevant provisions for the valuation of the export goods are reproduced below for the ease of reference:-

(1) For the purposes of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (51 of 1975), or any other law for the time being in force, the value of the imported goods and export goods shall be the transaction value of such goods, that is to say, the price actually paid or payable for the goods when sold for export to India for delivery at the time and place of importation, or as the case may be, for export from India for delivery at the time and place of exportation, where the buyer and seller of the goods are not related and price is the sole consideration for the sale subject to such other conditions as may be specified in the rules made in this behalf:

Provided that such transaction value in the case of imported goods shall include, in addition to the price as aforesaid, any amount paid or payable for costs and services, including commissions and brokerage, engineering, design work, royalties and licence fees, costs of transportation to the place of importation, insurance, loading, unloading and handling charges to the extent and in the manner specified in the rules made in this behalf:

Provided further that the rules made in this behalf may provide for,-

- (i) the circumstances in which the buyer and the seller shall be deemed to be related;
- (ii) the manner of determination of value in respect of goods when there is no sale, or the buyer and the seller are related, or price is not the sole consideration for the sale or in any other case;
- (iii) the manner of acceptance or rejection of value declared by the importer or exporter, as the case may be, where the proper officer has reason to doubt the truth or accuracy of such value, and determination of value for the purposes of this section;
- (iv) the additional obligations of the importer in respect of any class of imported goods and the checks to be exercised, including the circumstances and manner of exercising thereof, as the Board may specify, where, the Board has reason to believe that the value of such goods may not be declared truthfully or accurately, having regard to the trend of declared value of such goods or any other relevant criteria]

Provided also that such price shall be calculated with reference to the rate of exchange as in force on the date on which a bill of entry is presented under section 46, or a shipping bill of export, as the case may be, is presented under section 50.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), if the Board is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix tariff values for any class of imported goods or export goods, having regard to the trend of value of such or like goods, and where any such tariff values are fixed, the duty shall be chargeable with reference to such tariff value.

Explanation . - For the purposes of this section -

- (a) "rate of exchange" means the rate of exchange -
- (i) determined by the Board, or
- (ii) ascertained in such manner as the Board may direct, for the conversion of Indian currency into foreign currency or foreign currency into Indian currency;
- (b) "foreign currency" and "Indian currency" have the meanings respectively assigned to them in clause (m) and clause (q) of section 2 of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 (42 of 1999).]

Rule 3 of CVR, 2007

"Rule 3. Determination of the method of valuation. -

(1) Subject to rule 8, the value of export goods shall be the transaction value.

(2) The transaction value shall be accepted even where the buyer and seller are related, provided that the relationship has not influenced the price. ”

“CUS CIR NO. 18/2008 DATE 10/11/2008
Computation of Value under Section 14 for Levy of Export Duty

1. After the imposition of export duty on steel at ad valorem rates in May 2008, a doubt has been raised regarding the manner of calculation of export duty, particularly in view of the introduction of transaction value concept under Section 14 as part of the 2007 budgetary exercise. Specifically, the doubt is whether the export duty should be charged simply as a percentage of FOB price or whether the FOB price should be taken as the ‘cum-duty price’ for determination of assessable value and duty due thereon.

2. Hitherto, the export duty and cesses were calculated by taking the FOB price declared by the exporter as the cum-duty price and working backwards from the FOB price. This methodology is based on instructions issued by the Board (contained in Appraising Manual) in 1966. This view was reconfirmed by the Board in 2000 while developing the software for Indian Customs EDI System (ICES-Exports) for the purpose of levy of cess under various enactments of different Ministries.

3. The matter has been examined in consultation with the Ministry of Law who have opined that Section 14 of the Customs Act or the rules framed thereunder, do not specify any procedure for calculation of assessable value for the purpose of charging export duty in a situation where the exporter has not collected any amount in excess of what has been declared in the shipping bill/invoice. As per practice in vogue for the last more than four decades, transaction value of export goods has invariably been taken as ‘cum-duty price’. This practice is not in conflict with any of the statutory provisions. Amendments made in Section 14 of the Customs Act by the Finance Act, 2007 have also not brought any change in the procedure for calculation of assessable value for the purpose of charging export duty. However, any decision on this issue is essentially a matter of policy on which decision is to be taken by the administrative department.

4. In view of the above, a policy decision has been taken that till 31.12.2008, the existing practice of computation of export duty and cesses by taking the FOB price as the cum-duty price may be continued. All pending cases may be finalized accordingly.

5. It has also been decided that with effect from 1st January, 2009, the practice of computation of export duty shall be changed. It is proposed that for the purposes of calculation of export duty, the transaction value, that is to say the price actually paid or payable for the goods for delivery at the time and place of exportation under section 14 of Customs Act 1962, shall be the FOB price of such goods at the time and place of exportation. For example if the transaction is at Rs 100 FOB, and the duty is 15%, the export duty will be 15% of FOB price, that is Rs 15. In case the transaction is on CIF basis, the FOB price may be deduced from the CIF value, and then the export duty be calculated as 15% of such FOB price.

6. Any difficulties which are anticipated in the implementation of the change in computation of export duty from 1st January, 2009 may be brought to the notice of the Board by 20th November, 2008 positively.

7. The contents of this Circular may be brought to the notice of the field formations and the Trade under your jurisdiction.

8. Hindi version follows.

F. No. 467/45/2008-CusV"

24. I observe that as per the allegations made against the said noticee in the Show Cause Notice, the said noticee failed to declare the actual transaction value (i.e., the correct FOB value) in their export documents. They have allegedly undervalued and mis-declared the transaction value with the intent to evade the applicable Customs duty, which is leviable at 20% ad valorem on the actual transaction value of the export goods.

25. I find it appropriate to mention here that Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962, read with the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007 stipulates that the value of export goods shall be based on the transaction value that is, the actual price paid or payable for the goods when sold for export from India at the time and place of exportation, provided that the buyer and seller are not related and the price is the sole consideration. I noticed that the Central Board of Excise and Customs (CBIC) vide Circular No. 18/2008-Cus., dated 10.11.2008 has clarified that, for assessment of export duty, the transaction value should be taken as the FOB value of the export goods at the time and place of exportation and no abatement of export duty is permissible from this value.

26. I find that export duty is a statutory levy and therefore form part of transaction value. In the present case the exporter has not borne the incidence of duty but the duty amounts were recovered by the exporter from the buyers as part of sale consideration. Hence, these recovered amounts must be included in transaction value. I find that all taxes/expenses before the point of loading of the export goods on board the vessel are included in the definition of 'FOB'. In the case of export of goods, loading of the export goods starts after issuance of the 'Let Export Order (LEO)' by the proper officer of the Customs. LEO is issued after payment of the export duty. As the export duty is leviable before the point of loading of the export goods on to the vessel, the same is includable in the FOB Value of the export goods in the present case. I find that the provisions of the Incoterm or International Commercial Terms, which are widely used in the international transactions, published by the International Chamber of Commerce clearly define the responsibility of the importers and exporters in the arrangement of shipments and transfer of liability involved at various stages of transaction. I noticed that these incoterms rules are accepted by governments, legal authorities worldwide for the interpretation of most commonly used terms in the international trade. They are intended to reduce or remove altogether uncertainties arising from the differing interpretations of the rules in different countries. As per Incoterms 2020 published by ICC, the term 'FOB' has been defined as "Under FOB terms the seller bears all costs and risks up to the point the goods are loaded on board the vessel. The seller's responsibility does not end at that point unless the goods are "appropriated to the contract" that is, they are "clearly set aside or otherwise identified as the contract goods". Therefore, FOB contract requires a seller to deliver goods on board a vessel that is to be designated by the buyer in a manner customary at the particular port. In this case, the seller must also arrange for export clearance. On the other hand, the buyer pays cost of marine freight transportation, bill of lading fees, insurance, unloading and transportation cost from the arrival port to destination."

From the above definition, it is evident that definition of "FOB" includes all cost until the loading of export goods on board the foreign going vessel including customs clearance and related charges which are to be borne by the seller. Since export duty discharged prior to issuance of the Let Export Order and before the goods are physically loaded on board, it is evident that duty portion is an integral part of the costs which is to be borne by the seller. Therefore, I find that where the seller has recovered the export duty amount separately from the buyer, such recovered amount become a part of the consideration for the sale of export goods. Thus, the said amount is liable to be included in the FOB value for determining the correct assessable value. Accordingly, I hold that the export duty recovered from overseas buyers is includable in the FOB value of the export goods.

27. I find that in respect of the 10 Shipping Bills as mentioned in Table-A, M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd., had wrongly claimed deductions equal to the export duty amounts payable at the time of export. I noticed that the deduction amounts of Rs.5,57,59,607/- were claimed in the said Shipping Bills. These deductions were found equal to the export duty amounts paid by the exporter. For example, consider the Shipping Bill No 8916120 dated 29.03.2023 wherein the deduction amount exactly matches the export duty amount. The Deduction of Rs.50,80,900/- (equivalent to USD 62000) was claimed in that shipping bill by issuing Reimbursement Invoice Part-B and that amount is equal to the export duty leviable on the goods covered under the said shipping bill. The exporter deducted this amount from the actual transaction value; however received the same from the overseas buyer as part of the sale proceeds. By treating the actual FOB Value as a cum-duty price and deducting the duty amount, the exporter attempted to take an abatement of duty which is not permissible to them in the subject 10 shipping bills. CBIC Circular No. 18/2008-Cus dated 10.11.2008 clarifies that export duty is chargeable on the transaction value, i.e. the FOB price, and no abatement of duty is allowed. Excluding such amounts from the declared FOB Value is contrary to Section 14 of the Custom Act, 1962 read with Rule 3 of the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007. This fact indicate clearly that the exporter deliberately reduced the declared FOB Value from the duty component and therefore, mis-declared the transaction value for the purpose of assessment.

28. I find that the exporter in 10 shipping bills and the respective export invoices had mentioned duty paid amounts separately in the reimbursement invoices, they did not include these amounts in the total invoice value or the FOB value declared before the Customs Authority. On the contrary, they showed these as deductions under the head "Deduct/Deduction" in the shipping bills. By doing these act, the exporter had suppressed the actual consideration received from the overseas buyers and presented an artificially reduced FOB Value to the Customs authorities at the time of export. I find that the exporter during the investigation period has also admitted in their statements recorded under Section 108 of the Customs Act, 1962, that these deducted amounts were in fact recovered from the overseas buyers. Such amounts were duly realized in the bank accounts of the exporter. Thus, the fact were never discovered that the declared invoice value was not the sole amount received by the exporter from the foreign buyer. These acts show a deliberate attempt by the exporter to suppress facts and make false statements.

29. In view of the above, I hold that the declared FOB Value in respect of the 10 shipping bills covered under Table-A is liable for rejection under Rule 8 of the CVR(E), 2007. The actual transaction value has to be re-determined by including the deduction amounts wrongly excluded by the exporter. Accordingly, I hold the re-determined FOB Value comes to Rs.33,45,57,642/- (FOB Value of Rs.27,87,98,035/- as declared in 10 shipping bills (+) Rs.5,57,59,607/- of Export Duty recovered from overseas buyer and shown as deduct/deduction in shipping bills) against the declared Rs.27,87,98,035/- in respect of said 10 Shipping Bills, as calculated in Table-C (re-produced hereunder).

30. I find that in respect of the 7 shipping bills covered under Table-B, the exporter declared inflated amounts of ocean freight in their shipping bills as compared to the actual freight paid to the freight forwarders/shipping lines. The total excess freight declared across these shipments has been calculated at Rs.66,30,324/-. By adopting this method, the exporter artificially reduced the assessable FOB value declared before Customs and thereby resulting in short-payment of export duty. These excess freight amounts were not borne by the exporter and the same were actually recovered from their overseas buyers as part of the total consideration for the consignments. The discrepancy between declared freight and actual freight paid was also accepted by the exporter during the investigation period by submitting the details of shipments. For example, in Shipping Bill Number 9261813 dated 13-04-2023, the ocean freight amount declared in respect of the said shipment is USD 82150, which is equivalent to Rs.66,62,365/- (taking exchange rate at Rs.81.1 per USD as per shipping bill) whereas during investigation, the exporter had submitted the actual freight amount paid by them in respect of the aforesaid shipping bill which stood at Rs.53,29,892/-. Thus excess freight amount declared in respect of the aforesaid shipment works out to be at Rs.13,32,473/-. The said excess freight amount has also been recovered by the exporter from the overseas buyer of the export goods but the exporter had not paid duty on the said excess freight amount which is part and parcel of the actual assessable value of the export goods. This instance demonstrates the method adopted by the exporter for all shipments covered under Table-B.

31. I find that the investigation clearly establishes that the invoices and shipping bills declared inflated freight figures which did not correspond to the actual amounts paid. Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 mandates that the “transaction value” must represent the price actually paid or payable. The investigation proved beyond doubt that the freight declared was substantially in excess of the freight actually paid, thereby artificially reducing the FOB value.

32. In view of the above, the FOB values declared in respect of the 7 shipping bills covered under Table-B are liable to rejection under Rule 8 of the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Export Goods) Rules, 2007 and the re-determined FOB Value comes to Rs.16,37,49,524/- as calculated in Table-D (re-produced hereunder):

Table - D

DEMAND OF DUTY UNDER EXTENDED PERIOD OF TIME UNDER SECTION 28(4) OF THE CUSTOMS ACT, 1962:

33. It is obligatory for the exporter to subscribe a declaration as to the truthfulness of the contents of the Shipping Bill in terms of Section 50(2) of the Customs Act, 1962, in all their export declarations. Section 17 of the Customs Act, 1962, effective from 08.04.2011, provides for self-assessment of duty on export goods by the exporter himself by filing a Shipping Bill, in electronic form. Section 50 of the Customs Act, 1962 makes it mandatory for the exporter to make an entry for the export goods by presenting a Shipping Bill electronically to the proper officer. Thus, under the scheme of self-assessment, it was the exporter who must doubly ensure that they declare the correct classification / CTH of the export goods, the applicable rate of duty, value, the benefit of exemption notification claimed, if any, in respect of the export goods while presenting the Shipping Bill. It is however evident from the investigation that there were deliberate mis-statement and suppression of facts on their part. The exporter was actively involved in mis-declaration of the FOB value of export goods, with an intention to evade appropriate export duty leviable on ad valorem basis on such goods. They adopted two different modus operandi (i) by claiming wrongful deduction of export duty from the transaction value and (ii) by declaring excess freight amounts. Both the modus-operandi have already been discussed in detail in the foregoing paragraphs. Further, the responsibility lies on the exporter to ensure that all details related to the shipments are correctly declared at the time of filing shipping bills. Therefore, the extended period of five years under Section 28(4) of the Customs Act, 1962 has been correctly invoked in the present case.

34. For the Shipping Bills as listed in Tables A and B in para 8.2 and 8.4 above, the differential duty demand, as detailed in corresponding Annexure -I and Annexure -II, of the SHOW CAUSE NOTICE, of Rs.1,24,77,985/- as confirmed in Table-C and Table-D above, is required to be upheld against the said noticee under Section 28(8) of the Customs Act, 1962 and the interest at the applicable rate in terms of notification issued under Section 28AA of the said Act is required to be recovered from the said noticee on the differential amount of Customs duty.

35. Further, payment of differential Customs Duty of Rs.1,11,51,921/- made by the Noticee during the course of investigation is required to be appropriated against their demand of differential Customs Duty.

Confiscation of the goods under Section 113(i) of the Customs Act, 1962 and imposition of redemption fine:

36. SCN has alleged that the goods are liable for confiscation under Section 113(i) of the Customs Act, 1962. The relevant legal provisions of Section 113(i) of the Customs Act, 1962 are reproduced below: -

“(i) any goods entered for exportation which do not correspond in respect of value or in any material particular with the entry made under this Act or in the case of baggage with the declaration made under section 77;”

On plain reading of the above provisions of the Section 113(i) of the Customs Act, 1962, it is clear that any goods, which are entered for exportation which do not correspond in respect of value or in any material particular with the entry made under this Act, will be liable to confiscation. All the deduction claimed by the said noticee including the reimbursement of export duty was not deductible from the CIF value to arrive at the FOB value. Hence, the impugned exported goods as exported vide the aforesaid shipping bills listed above are liable for confiscation under the provisions of Section 113(i) of the Customs Act, 1962. However, since the goods in question which are proposed to be confiscated are not available physically and have already been cleared from Customs by the said noticee, I refrain from imposing any redemption fine under Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962.

Imposition of Penalties on main noticee and Co-Noticees

37. As regards imposition of penalty on the said noticee, I find that by their acts of omission and commission; claiming abatement from the CIF value of the deductions which were not permissible as discussed in details in the foregoing paragraphs of this Order, which has resulted into evasion of Customs duty to the tune of Rs.1,24,77,985/-, they have rendered the goods liable to confiscation under Section 113(i) of the Customs Act, 1962. Further, I find that the short paid Customs Duty of Rs.1,24,77,985/- is required to be recovered from the Noticee under Section 28(4) of the Customs Act, 1962, thereby have made themselves liable for penalty under Section 114A of the Customs Act, 1962. Further, I find that submission of documents viz. Invoices, Contracts etc., claiming wrongful deduction knowingly and intentionally to reduce the value of export goods for payment of Export Duty, in order to short payment of export duty have also rendered the Noticee liable for penalty under Section 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962.

38. I also find that Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari, Director of M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt Ltd., has knowingly or intentionally either made, signed and used or caused to be made, signed and used, the contracts, invoices and Shipping Bills for export of rice by M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd., which were incorrect as regards to the value of export goods for payment of export duty. The goods covered under Shipping Bills listed in Tables A & B above, contained the declarations made by M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd. which were false and incorrect in material particulars relating to the value of the impugned goods. The contracts with the buyer for sale and export of rice as well as the export documents submitted to Customs were signed in the overall supervision of Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari who was handling the day to day business of the export firm. This fact has been admitted by Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari in his statements recorded u/s 108 of the Customs Act, 1962. In view of this, I find that Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari is the key person who has orchestrated the entire scheme of mis-declaration of value of the export goods, with an intention to evade customs (export) duty. Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari is, therefore, responsible for wilful acts of mis-statement and suppression of facts in respect of export of rice by M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd.. The act of Sh. Chetan Abhimanyu Maheshwari regarding under valuation and mis-declaration of actual transaction value in respect of Shipping Bills filed by M/s Jagat Agrotech Pvt. Ltd. has rendered the export goods liable to confiscation under the provisions of Section 113 (i) of the Customs Act, 1962. As such, Sh. Chetan

Abhimanyu Maheshwari has rendered himself liable to penal action under the provisions of Section 114 (ii) and 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962
