2. As the issue involved is identical in all the 15 appeals, they are taken up simultaneously for disposal. Facts of the case, in brief, as per appeal memorandum, are that the above appellants had imported the goods namely Cold Rolled Stainless Steel Coils Grade J-3. On arrival of the goods, the appellants duly filed the Bills of Entry (as per Table-I above) along with all relevant import documents such as commercial invoice, packing list, Bill of Lading etc. The appellants also filed their registration copy showing that they are registered under Steel Import Monitoring System (SIMS).

2.1 The value declared by the appellants was enhanced by the proper officer during assessment as per Table-II below.

The appellants in order to save detention / demurrage charges paid the duty however, under protest and also requested for necessary speaking order be passed to enable them to deal with the same in accordance with law. However, no speaking order was passed per the provision of section 17 (5) of the Customs act, 1962.

SUBMISSIONS OF APPELLANTS

3. Being aggrieved with the assessment of impugned Bills of Entry the appellants have filed the present appeals. The grounds of appeal of all the appellants being common, the same are therefore discussed together wherein they have mainly contended as under:

- The respondent has erred in loading the value of the goods without any justification or reason. The respondent failed to appreciate that the appellant declared the true and correct transaction value and all the details as has been declared by the appellant was duly considered and was not found to be having any discrepancy however, so far as the value of the goods is concerned same has been loaded by the respondent.
- The rejection of the value declared by the appellant has been done without following any due procedure as set out in the Customs Valuation Rules and so much so as no speaking order is passed the appellant is not aware as to how and on what count the value has been rejected.
- The respondent failed to appreciate that the Under Rule 3 of the Customs Valuation Rules, the transaction value should be accepted as the value of imported goods unless there is reasonable doubt regarding the truth or accuracy of the declared value. In this case, there was no evidence of misdeclaration, and no proper inquiry or investigation was conducted before loading the value. Rule 12 of the Customs Valuation Rules provides that if the proper officer has reasons to doubt the accuracy of the declared value, the importer must be informed of the basis of such doubt. The officer is required to furnish reasons and allow the importer an opportunity to justify the declared value. In this case, the proper procedure under Rule 12 was not followed, and the value was loaded arbitrarily without affording us an opportunity to respond.
- The respondent failed to appreciate that the basic tenet of natural justice mandates that no adverse action should be taken against any person without providing them an opportunity to be heard. The sudden and unexplained loading of the value of goods without any show-cause notice violates this principle, depriving the appellant a fair chance to defend our position.

- The Hon'ble Courts have repeatedly emphasized that the customs authorities must justify the loading of the value with clear and cogent reasons. In Eicher Tractors Ltd. Vs. Commissioner of Customs, Mumbai 12000 (122) ELT 321 (SC)], the Supreme Court held that the transaction value is the primary basis for valuation, and the customs authorities cannot arbitrarily reject it without valid grounds.

The respondent has erred in not passing any order as has been provided under section 17 (5) of the Customs Act, 1962. As per Section 17(5) of the Customs Act, 1962, where the proper officer re-assesses the goods under Section 17(4), he is required to pass a speaking order within 15 days of the re-assessment, unless the importer accepts the re-assessed value in writing. In the present matter, the value was re-assessed (by loading the declared value), but no speaking order has been issued as mandated by law Section 17(5) of the Customs Act reads as follows: "Where any re-assessment done under sub section (4) is contrary to the self-assessment done by the importer or exporter and in cases other than those where the importer or exporter as the case may be confirms his acceptance of the said re-assessment in writing, the proper officer shall pass a speaking order on the re-assessment, within fifteen days from the date of re-assessment of the bill of entry or the shipping bill as the case may be."

- The issuance of a speaking order is an essential requirement under the law, as it provides the rationale behind the re-assessment and enables the importer to understand the grounds for the revised valuation. Without such an order, the appellant is left in the dark regarding the reasons and evidence for the re-assessment. Following judgments are relevant in this matter

- 2015 (328) E.L.T 10 (Mad.) SANJIVANI NON-FERROUS TRADING PVT LTD. Versus COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS, CHENNAI-IV
- Eicher Tractors Ltd. Vs. Commissioner of Customs, Mumbai [2000 (122) ELT 321 (SC)]

PERSONAL HEARING

4. Personal hearing in the matter was granted following the principles of natural justice and the same was held in virtual mode on 03.09.2025. Shri Shubhankar Jha, Advocate, appeared for hearing on behalf of the all the appellants. He reiterated the submissions made at the time of filing of appeals.

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

5. Before going into the merits of the case, I find that as per appeal memorandum, some of the appeals have not been filed within statutory time limit of 60 days prescribed under Section 128(1) of the Customs Act, 1962. The details of the date of communication of the order appealed against and date of filing of the present appeals as per appeal memorandum are mentioned against each, as under:-

5.1 It is observed that in 15 appeals in Table-III above, there is delay of 01 to 04 days in filing of appeals beyond the stipulated period of 60 days. In their applications for condonation for delay, the appellants have submitted that the delay was caused due to the reason that there was some error in calculation of appeal period. It is further submitted that the delay is bonafide in nature and is not deliberate and requested for condonation.

5.2 The delay upto 30 days in filing of appeal beyond the time limit of 60 days is condonable as stipulated under Section 128(1) of the Customs Act, 1962. Therefore, in the interest of justice, I take a lenient view and allow all the 15 appeals as per Table-III filed by the appellants as admitted by condoning the delay of 01 to 04 days in filing appeal under the proviso to the Section 128(1) of the Customs Act, 1962.

5.3 Now coming to the merits of the case, the issue to be decided in the present appeals is whether the assessment made in the Bills of Entry mentioned at Table -II above at a higher rate in the facts and circumstances of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise.

5.4 I find that the appeals have been filed against assessment of Bills of Entry. It is observed that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of ITC Ltd Vs CCE Kolkata [2019 (368) ELT216] has held that any person aggrieved by any order which would include self-assessment, has to get the order modified under Section 128 or under relevant provisions of the Customs Act, 1962. Hence, the appeals preferred by the appellants against assessment in the impugned Bills of Entry are maintainable as per the judgment of the Supreme Court in ITC case supra.

5.5 It is further observed that no speaking order by the proper officer in the matter is available. Hence, I find that entire facts are not available on records to verify the claims made by the appellant. Copies of appeal memorandum were also sent to the jurisdictional officer for comments. However, no response have been received from the jurisdictional office. Therefore, I find that remitting the case to the proper officer for passing speaking orders in each case becomes sine qua non to meet the ends of justice. Accordingly, the case is required to be remanded back, in terms of sub-section (3) of Section 128A of the Customs Act, 1962, for passing speaking order by the proper officer under Section 17(5) of the Customs Act, 1962 by following the principles of natural justice. While passing the speaking order, the proper officer shall also consider the submissions made in present appeals on merits. In this regard, I also rely upon the judgment of Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in case of Medico Labs – 2004 (173) ELT 117 (Guj.), judgment of Hon'ble Bombay High Court in case of Ganesh Benzoplast Ltd. [2020 (374) E.L.T. 552 (Bom.)] and judgments of Hon'ble Tribunals in case of Prem Steels P. Ltd. [2012-TIOL-1317-CESTAT-DEL] and the case of Hawkins Cookers Ltd. [2012 (284) E.L.T. 677(Tri. – Del)] wherein it was held that Commissioner (Appeals) has power to remand the case under Section-35A(3) of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and Section-128A(3) of the Customs Act, 1962.

6. Accordingly, all the 15 appeals filed by the appellants as per Table-I are allowed by way of remand.
