Mrs. Bhageshwari Ishwarlal Manglani Resi- 15, New Sindhu Society, D Cabin road, Sabarmati Ahmedabad (hereinafter referred to as "the appellant") has filed the present appeal in terms of Section 128 of the Customs Act, 1962 against Order in Original No. 137/ADC/SRV/O&A/HQ/2025-26 dated 25.09.2025 (hereinafter referred to as "the impugned order") passed by the Additional Commissioner, Customs, Ahmedabad, (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, facts of the case are that, on the basis of suspicion the appellant having Indian Passport No. Z2109041 was intercepted by the officers of Customs, Air Intelligence Unit (hereinafter referred to as "AIU") on arrival at SVP International Airport, Ahmedabad arriving from Dubai by Indigo Airlines Flight No 6E 72 on 28.01.2020 while She was trying to exit through Green Channel gate. The appellant was inquired whether she was having any dutiable/ restricted items to declare before Customs, in response to which she replied in negative. The Customs Officer scanned the baggages of the appellant but nothing objectionable was found. The Customs officers asked the appellant to walk through the Door Frame Metal Detector (DFMD); after removing all metallic objects from her body/ clothes. The appellant readily removed the metallic objects such as gold ring and gold chain, mobile phone etc. and kept it in the plastic tray and thereafter passed through the DFMD. On her passing through the DFMD, a beep sound was generated from the DFMD. She once again asked to pass through the DFMD, whereupon once again a beep sound was generated in the middle portion of the DFMD which indicated there was something objectionable/dutiable on her body/clothes. Thereafter, the appellant was frisked by the lady officer and while frisking there appeared to be something concealed in the pocket of her black trouser. The appellant was asked to remove it and she handed over two gold bars of 10 tolas wrapped in a small white paper envelope to the Customs officer. Further while frisking around her waist, there appeared to be something concealed underneath her trouser. She once again removed three more gold bars of 10 tolas wrapped in a small white paper envelope from a sky blue colour jeans pant which she had worn under her black trouser and handed it over to the Customs officer.

2.1 The Government Approved Valuer, Shri Kartikey Vasantrai Soni, vide valuation report 28.01.2020, submitted that five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, and valued at Rs.20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs.24,45,358/- (Market Value).

2.2 The said 05 Gold bars were placed under seizure vide panchnama dated 28.01.2020 under the reasonable belief that the goods were smuggled into India and liable for confiscation under the provisions of the Customs Act, 1962.

2.3 Statement of the appellant was recorded on 28.01.2020 under Section 108 of the Customs Act,1962, wherein she, inter-alia, stated that she is a housewife and stay at Dubai with her husband Ishwarlal Manglani and son namely Vinay Manglani, she has studied upto 12th standard from Agra, U.P., she can read, write and understand Hindi, English and Sindhi language. she had been shown and explained the panchnama and after understanding the contents of the same she put her dated signature on panchnama drawn on 28.01.2020 that the facts narrated in the panchnama drawn on 28.01.2020 were true and correct. she admitted that the gold bars were made of raw gold and same belonged to her. She further admitted that she had intentionally not declared the seized items before the Customs Authorities on her arrival at SVP International Airport Ahmedabad, as she wanted to clear it illicitly and evade payment of duty and she was fully aware that clearing gold without declaring before Customs, with an intent to evade payment of customs duty is an offence, under the provisions of Customs Act, 1962 and Regulations made therein.

2.4 A Show Cause Notice was issued to the appellant proposing for confiscation of Five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs 20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market Value) placed under seizure vide panchnama drawn on 28.01.2020, under the provisions of Sections 111(d), 111(l), 111(l) and 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962, for confiscation of The packing/concealing material i.e. two small paper envelopes and one sky blue jeans pant under Section 118 & Section 119 of the Customs Act, 1962 and for imposition of penalty upon the appellant under Section 112(a) & (b) of the Customs Act, 1962.

2.5 The said Show Cause Notice was adjudicated by the Joint Commissioner of Customs, Ahmedabad, vide Order-in-Original No. 84/JC/SM/O&A/2020-21 dated 29.01.2021 issued on 29.01.2021 wherein the Joint Commissioner has ordered for absolute confiscation of five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs. 20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market

The Joint Commissioner has also imposed penalty of Rs. 2,00,000/- on the appellant under Section 112 (i) of the Customs Act,1962.

2.6 Being aggrieved by the said Order-in-Original No. 84/JC/SM/O&A/2020-21 dated 29.01.2021, the appellant filed an appeal before the Commissioner of Customs (Appeals), Ahmedabad, who vide Order-in-Appeal No. AHD-CUSTM-000-APP-008 to 024-22-23 dated 13.04.2022 remanded the matter to the concerned adjudication authority, who shall ascertain the facts, examine the documents, submission made in appeal memorandum and case laws submitted by the appellant and pass speaking order after following principle of natural justice and adhering to the legal provisions.

2.7 The Adjudicating authority, in denovo adjudication, vide the impugned order, has ordered for absolute confiscation of five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs. 20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market Value), under the provisions of Sections 111(d), 111(l), 111(l), 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962. The Adjudicating Authority also ordered for absolute confiscation of packing/ concealing material i.e. two small paper envelopes and one sky blue jeans pant used for packing/ wrapping and concealing of 5 gold bars, under the provisions of Section 118(a) and 119 of the Customs Act, 1962. The Adjudicating Authority has also imposed penalty of Rs. 2,00,000/- on the appellant under Section 112 (i) of the Customs Act,1962.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant has filed the present appeal and mainly contended that;

- As regards confiscation of the goods under Section 125 of the Customs Act 1962, the Ld. Adjudicating Authority, while admitting that there is no option to the Adjudicating Authority if the goods are not prohibited, but to release the goods on payment of redemption fine, and if the goods are prohibited he has a discretion to either release the goods on payment of redemption fine or confiscate the goods absolutely. The case laws relied upon by the adjudicating authority are not applicable in the facts and circumstances of the case.

- A reading of Paras of the findings of the adjudicating authority clearly shows that the adjudicating Authority was pre-decided to absolutely confiscate the gold in question, without applying himself to the crucial fact that he had a discretion to either permit release of gold on Redemption fine or absolutely confiscate them only when the goods were "prohibited". Though not admitting, even if for a moment it is presumed that the goods in question were prohibited, the Ld. Adjudicating Authority is required to exercise his discretion and how such discretion is to be exercised is laid down in the case of Commissioner of Customs (Air) vs P.Sinnasamy in CMA No.1638 of 2008, before the Hon High Court of Madras decided on 23 August, 2016.
- In the instant case it is very clear that the Ld. Adjudicating Authority started on a wrong premise of the fact that the Appellant in this case is a smuggler, and that he has concealed the gold in this case, all of which are erroneous findings as discussed above. Taking into consideration these erroneous findings, the Ld Adjudicating Authority has got biased and decided that the gold in question should be absolutely confiscated and penalty imposed.
- There are plethora of Judgements both for and against the release of gold seized in Customs Cases. A combined reading of all the cases with specific reference to the policy/Rules in vogue at the relevant times, will show that depending on circumstances of each case in hand and the profile of the person involved, the goods in question may become "Prohibited" which are otherwise not listed in the prohibited categories. However, despite the goods being prohibited the same can be released or re-exported in the discretion of the Adjudicating Authority, which discretion has to be exercised as per the canons laid down by the Hon. Apex Court as discussed above. In this connection, following case laws are submitted relied upon by the appellant: -

  (i) Yakub Ibrahim Yousuf 2011 (263) ELT-685 (Tri. Mum) and subsequently 2014-TIOL-277-CESTST-MUM.

  (ii) ShaikJameel Pasha Vs Govt of India 1997 (91) ELT 277 (AP);

  (iii) V.P. Hamid vs Commissioner of Customs, 1994(73)ELT 425 (Tri);

  (iv) T.Elavarasan vs Commissioner of Customs(Airport) Chennai 2011 (266) ELT 167 (Mad);

(v) Union of India Vs Dhanak M. Ramji 2009 (248) ELT 127 (Bom); upheld by Hon. Supreme Court vide its judgement dated 08-03-2010, reported in 2010 (252) ELT A102 (SC)

(vi) A.Rajkumari vs CC (Chennai) 2015 (321) ELT 540 (Tri-Chennai);This case was also affirmed by the Hon. Apex Court vide 2015 (321) ELT A207 (SC).

- It is also submitted that impugned goods are not prohibited for use by the society at large and release of the same will not cause to the society and its import and / or redemption would not be dangerous or detrimental to health, welfare or morals of the people, in any circumstances.
- There is a catena of cases where the orders of absolute confiscation were successfully challenged and gold released either for re-export or on redemption fine u/s 125 of Customs Act 1962. Some of the judgements can be cited as under:

  1. S Rajgopal vs CC Trichy 2007 (219) ELT 435
  2. P.Sinnaswamy vs CC Chennai 2007 (220) ELT 308
  3. M.Arumugam vs CC Thiruchirapally 2007 (220) ELT 311
  4. Krishna Kumari vs CC Chennai 2008 (229) ELT 222.

- Following are the list of latest revision authority's orders relied upon by the appellant:

1. Order No: 58/2020-CUS(WZ)/ASRA/MUMBAI, DT. 21.05.2020 IN C/A/ Commissioner, Customs, Ahmedabad v/s ShabbirTaherallyUdaipurwala

- Coming to the penalties imposed it may be stated that since the goods in question were not prohibited, the penalty under section 112 (a) and (b) of Customs Act 1962 could not have been more than the duty involved which in this case is Rs. 2,00,000/- on the appellant.
- The appellant finally prayed to quash and set aside the impugned order in so far as the absolute confiscation is concerned and in so far as the penalties under section 112 Customs Act is concerned.

4. Shri Rishikesh Mehra, Advocate, appeared for personal hearing on 25.11.2025 on behalf of the appellant. He reiterated the submissions made in the appeal memorandum. The advocate during personal hearing also relied upon the following case laws:

5. I have gone through the facts of the case available on record, grounds of appeal and submission made by the appellant at the time of personal hearing. It is observed that the issues to be decided in the present appeal are as under;

(a) Whether the impugned order directing absolute confiscation of five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs. 20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market Value) without giving option for redemption under Section 125(1) of Customs Act, 1962, in the facts and circumstances of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise;

(b) Whether the quantum of penalty amounting to Rs. 2,00,000/- imposed on the appellant, under Section 112(i) of the Customs Act, 1962, in the facts and circumstances of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise.

6. It is observed that on the basis of suspicion the appellant having Indian Passport No. Z2109041 was intercepted by the officers of Customs, Air Intelligence Unit (hereinafter referred to as "AIU") on arrival at SVP International Airport, Ahmedabad arriving from Dubai by Indigo Airlines Flight No 6E 72 on 28.01.2020 while She was trying to exit through Green Channel gate. She once again removed three more gold bars of 10 tolas wrapped in a small white paper envelope from a sky blue colour jeans pant which she had worn under her black trouser and handed it over to the Customs officer. The Government Approved Valuer, Shri Kartikey Vasantrai Soni, vide valuation report 28.01.2020, submitted that five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, and valued at Rs.20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs.24,45,358/- (Market Value). The appellant did not declare the said gold before Customs with an intention to escape payment of duty. These facts have also been confirmed in the statement of the appellant recorded under Section 108 of the Customs Act, 1962 on the same day. There is no disputing the facts that the appellant had not declared possession of gold at the time of her arrival in India. Thereby, she has violated the provisions of Section 77 of the Customs Act,1962 read with Regulation 3 of the Customs Baggage Declaration Regulations, 2013. These facts are not disputed.

6.1 I find that it is undisputed that the appellant had not declared the seized gold to the Customs on her arrival in India. Further, in her statement, the appellant had admitted the knowledge, possession, carriage, non-declaration and recovery of the seized gold. The appellant had, in her confessional statement, accepted the fact of non-declaration of gold before Customs on arrival in India. Therefore, the confiscation of gold by the adjudicating authority was justified as the applicant had not declared the same as required under Section 77 of the Customs Act, 1962. Since the confiscation of the seized gold is upheld, the appellant had rendered herself liable for penalty under Section 112 of the Customs Act, 1962.

6.2 I have also perused the decision of the Government of India passed by the Principal Commissioner & ex officio Additional Secretary to the Government of India submitted by the appellant and other decisions also. I find that the Revisionary Authority has in all these cases taken similar view that failure to declare the gold and failure to comply with the prescribed conditions of import has made the impugned gold "prohibited" and therefore they are liable for confiscation and the appellant is consequently liable for penalty. Thus, it is held that the undeclared five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs. 20,76,775/-

(Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market Value) are liable to confiscation and the appellant is also liable to penalty.

6.3 In this regard, I also rely the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Om Prakash Bhatia Vs Commissioner of Customs, Delhi 2003 (155) E.L.T. 423 (SC) wherein it is held that;

> ".....(a) if there is any prohibition of import or export of goods under the Act or any other law for the time being in force, it would be considered to be prohibited goods; and (b) this would not include any such goods in respect of which the conditions, subject to which the goods are imported or exported, have been complied with. This would mean that if the conditions prescribed for import or export of goods are not complied with, it would be considered to be prohibited goods. This would also be clear from Section 11 which empowers the Central Government to prohibit either 'absolutely' or 'subject to such conditions' to be fulfilled before or after clearance, as may be specified in the notification, the import or export of the goods of any specified description. The notification can be issued for the purposes specified in sub-section (2). Hence, prohibition of importation or exportation could be subject to certain prescribed conditions to be fulfilled before or after clearance of goods. If conditions are not fulfilled, it may amount to prohibited goods....."

It is apparent from the above judicial pronouncement that even though gold is not enumerated as prohibited goods under Section 11 of the Customs Act, 1962, but it is to be imported on fulfilment of certain conditions, still, if the conditions for such import are not complied with, then import of gold will fall under prohibited goods.

6.4 In respect of absolute confiscation of undeclared five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs. 20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market Value), it is observed that the adjudicating authority in the instant case relying on the decisions of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Om Prakash Bhatia Vs Commissioner of Customs, Delhi 2003 (155) E.L.T. 423 (SC), Hon'ble Kerala High Court in the case of Abdul Razak [2012 (275) ELT 300 (Ker), Hon'ble High Court of Madras in the case of Samynathan Murugesan [2009 (247) ELT 21 (Mad)], Malabar Diamond Gallery Pvt. Ltd [2016-TIOL-1664-HC-MAD-CUS],Hon'ble High Court of Madras in the case of P Sinnasamy [2016 (344) ELT 1154 (Mad)] and Order No 17/2019-Cus dated 07.10.2019 in F. No. 375/06/B/2017-RA of Government of India, Ministry of Finance, Department of Revenue – Revisionary Authority in the case of Abdul Kalam Ammangod Kunhamu and other decisions in the impugned order, had ordered for absolute confiscation of undeclared five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs. 20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market Value).

6.5 I find that the Hon'ble CESTAT, Allahabad has in the case of COMMR. OF C. EX. & S.T., LUCKNOW V/s MOHD. HALIM MOHD. SHAMIM KHAN [2018 (359) E.L.T. 265 (Tri. – All.] and in the case of COMMISSIONER OF C. EX. & S.T., LUCKNOW V/s ISLAHUDDIN KHAN [2018 (364) E.L.T. 168 (Tri. – All.] has held that only prohibited goods cannot be released on payment of redemption fine and gold is not prohibited goods under the Customs Act or any other law in force and therefore cannot be absolutely confiscated in terms of Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962 and upheld the order permitting release of such gold on payment of redemption fine in lieu of confiscation.

6.6 I also rely upon the decision of Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad in the case of COMMISSIONER OF CUS., ALIGANJ, LUCKNOW V/s RAJESH JHAMATMAL BHAT [2022 (382) E.L.T. 345 (All.] wherein the Hon'ble High Court has held that Gold does not fall within the category of 'prohibited goods' and upheld the decision of Hon'ble Tribunal and Commissioner(Appeal) that the gold is not a prohibited item, it should be offered for redemption in terms of Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962. The Hon'ble High Court had upheld the decision of Hon'ble Tribunal wherein the Hon'ble Tribunal had upheld the decision of Commissioner (Appeal) wherein 4076 grams of gold bars recovered from the specially designed cavities made in the shoes, valued at Rs. 1,09,98,018/- was allowed to be redeemed on payment of redemption fine and penalty. The Hon'ble Tribunal had reduced the redemption fine from 25,00,000/- to Rs 15,00,000/- and penalty was also reduced from 10,00,000/- to 5,00,000/- as ordered by the Commissioner (Appeal). The Hon'ble High Court observing that gold was not prohibited under the Foreign Trade Policy or any other law for the time being in force and, therefore, there is no sufficient ground for absolute confiscation of the gold upheld the decision of Hon'ble Tribunal. The relevant paras are reproduced as under:

"19. Having given our thoughtful consideration to the rival submission made on behalf of the parties, we find that although as per the provisions contained in Section 2(1) of the Act, the Commissioner (Appeals) or the Appellate Tribunal are not included within the definition of the term "adjudicating authority" and, therefore, they cannot exercise the powers vested in the "officer adjudging" but the power conferred by Section 128A(3)(a) of the Act to "modify" the decision or order appealed against, is not at all curtailed by Section 2(1) of the Act and thus, in our considered opinion, the Commissioner (Appeals) has not exceeded his jurisdiction while modifying the order passed by the "adjudicating authority". The submission of Sri. Seth that Section 2(1) if the Act is a special provision and Section 128A is a general provision, is fallacious is this case for the reason that provisions of the entire Act have to be taken into consideration in their entirety to decipher the exact scheme of the Act as contemplated by the Legislature.

20. Moreover, we find that in the order dated 27-8-2018, the Commissioner (Appeals) has held that the import of gold was not prohibited under the Foreign Trade Policy or any other law for the time being in force and, therefore, there is no sufficient ground for absolute confiscation of the gold. This finding has not been reversed by the Tribunal as the Tribunal has affirmed the order passed by Commissioner (Appeals). Nothing has been placed before this Court to establish that this finding of the Commissioner (Appeals) is wrong or erroneous and that gold falls within the category of 'prohibited goods'. Therefore, we proceed to decide the appeal on the factual premise that Gold does not fall within the category of 'prohibited goods'.

21. Section 125 of the Act deals with confiscation of two separate categories of goods. It provides that in the case of goods, the importation or exportation whereof is prohibited under the Act or under any other law for the time being in force, the Officer adjudicating may give an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such fine as the said officer thinks fit. However, in case of any other goods, the officer adjudicating shall give an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such fine as the said officer thinks fit. The Commissioner (Appeals) has held that the gold is not a prohibited item, it should be offered for redemption in terms of Section 125 of the Act and this finding has not been assailed by the Appellants in this Appeal.

22. In view of the aforesaid discussion, our answer to the first substantial question of law framed in this Appeal is that the Additional Commissioner, Customs (P.) Commissionerate, Lucknow had passed the order of confiscation of Gold without taking into consideration the fact that Gold is not a prohibited item and, therefore, it should be offered for redemption in terms of Section 125 of the Act and thus the Customs Excise & Service Tax Appellate Tribunal, Allahabad has not committed any error in upholding the order dated 27-8-2018 passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) holding that Gold is not a prohibited item and, therefore, it should be offered for redemption in terms of Section 125 of the Act."

6.7 I find that the Hon'ble CESTAT, Ahmedabad has in the case of Commr. of C. Ex., Cus. & S.T., Surat-II Vs Dharmesh Pansuriya [2018 (363) E.L.T. 555 (Tri- Ahmd)] considered the decision of Hon'ble High Court of Madras in the case of Commissioner of Customs (Air) Chennai-I Vs P. Sinnasamy [2016 (344) E.L.T. 1154 (Mad)] and the decision of Hon'ble High Court of Bombay in the case of Commissioner Vs Alfred Menezes [2009 (242) E.L.T. 334 (Bom)], and were of the view that in case of prohibited goods as defined under Customs Act, 1962, the adjudicating authority may consider imposition of fine and need not invariably direct absolute confiscation of the goods. The relevant paras are reproduced hereunder:

"8. It is the argument of the Revenue that under the aforesaid provision, once the goods in question are prohibited goods under the Act, no discretionary power is left with the adjudicating authority for imposition of fine. We are afraid that the said plea of the Revenue may not find support from the principle of law laid down by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court in the case of Alfred Menezes case (supra). Their Lordships after analyzing the said provision of Section 125 of the Customs Act observed as follows:

3. It is, therefore, clear that Section 125(1) deals with two situations (1) the importation and exportation of prohibited goods and (2) the importation and exportation of any other goods. Insofar as importation or exportation of prohibited goods, the expression used is that where the goods were confiscated, the officer "may". In the case of any other goods, which are confiscated, the officer "shall".

4. It is, therefore, clear that insofar as the prohibited goods are concerned, there is discretion in the officer to release the confiscated goods in terms as set out therein. Insofar as other goods are concerned, the officer is bound to release the goods. In the instant case, we are concerned with prohibited goods. The officer has exercised his discretion. The Tribunal [2009 (236) E.L.T. 587 (Tri. - Mum.)] has upheld the order of the adjudicating officer.

9. This principle is later followed by the Hon'ble Madras High Court recently in P. Sinnasamy's case (supra). Thus, in view of the aforesaid principle, even if the goods in question are considered as prohibited goods as defined under the Customs Act, the adjudicating authority may consider imposition of fine and need not invariably direct absolute confiscation of the goods. In these premises, thus to consider the issue raised at the bar that whether the gold bars removed from the Unit in SEZ without permission and contrary to the Circulars issued by RBI and Customs, became prohibited goods, or otherwise, in our view, becomes more an academic exercise and hence need not be resorted to.

10. The other argument advanced by the Ld. AR for the Revenue is that in view of the judgment of Hon'ble Madras High Court in P. Sinnasamy's case, discretion conferred under the provision cannot be arbitrary and it is to be exercised in judicious manner. From the finding of the Ld. Commissioner, we notice that even though he has not considered the goods as prohibited ones, observing it in the sense that these are not arms, ammunitions, narcotic substance, but after examining the fact that the gold bars were imported for its authorized use in the SEZ and after considering other extenuating circumstances, exercised discretion in directing confiscation of the gold bars removed unauthorizedly from the SEZ Unit with option to redeem the same on payment of fine. We find that in P. Sinnasamy's case (supra), the adjudicating authority has directed absolute confiscation of the gold smuggled into the country, which was set aside by the Tribunal, with a direction to the adjudicating authority to consider imposition of fine, which did not find favour from the Hon'ble High Court. Their Lordships observed that once the adjudicating authority has reasonably and correctly applied the discretion, it is not open to the Tribunal to give positive direction to the adjudicating authority to exercise option in a particular manner. Even though the facts and circumstances in the said case are different from the present one, inasmuch as in the said case the Commissioner has directed absolute confiscation, but in the present case option for payment of fine was extended by the Commissioner; however, the principle laid down therein is definitely applicable to the present case. Therefore, we do not find merit in the contention of the Revenue that the Adjudicating authority ought to have directed absolute confiscation of the seized goods."

6.8 I have also gone through the judgement of Hon'ble Tribunal in the case of Commissioner of Cus. & C.Ex., Nagpur-I Vs Mohd. Ashraf Armar [2019 (369) E.L.T. 1654 (Tri Mumbai)] wherein the Hon'ble Tribunal, after considering the decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Om Prakash Bhatia Vs Commissioner of Customs, Delhi 2003 (155) E.L.T. 423 (SC), has upheld the order of Commissioner (A) who set aside the order of absolute confiscation ordered by the adjudicating authority and allowed redemption of 1200.950 gm of concealed gold valued at Rs. 27,02,137/- on payment of fine of Rs 5,50,000/-. The relevant paras are reproduced hereunder:

"4. We have perused the case record as well as judgment passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, Delhi in Om Prakash Bhatia's case. Relevant interpretation of "prohibited goods", as made in para 9 of the said judgment is reproduced below for ready reference:

" From the aforesaid definition, it can be stated that (a) if there is any prohibition of import or export of goods under the Act or any other law for the time being in force, it would be considered to be prohibited goods; and (b) this would not include any such goods in respect of which the conditions, subject to which the goods are imported or exported, have been complied with. This would mean that if the conditions prescribed for import or export of goods are not complied with, it would be considered to be prohibited goods. This would also be clear from Section 11 which empowers the Central Government to prohibit either 'absolutely' or 'subject to such conditions' to be fulfilled before or after clearance, as may be specified in the notification, the import or export of the goods of any specified description. The notification can be issued for the purposes specified in sub-section (2). Hence, prohibition of importation or exportation could be subject to certain prescribed conditions to be fulfilled before or after clearance of goods. If conditions are not fulfilled, it may amount to prohibited goods. This is also made clear by this Court in Sheikh Mohd. Omer v. Collector of Customs, Calcutta and Others [(1970) 2 SCC 728] wherein it was contended that the expression 'prohibition' used in Section 111(d) must be considered as a total prohibition and that the expression does not bring within its fold the restrictions imposed by clause (3) of the Import (Control) Order, 1955. The Court negatived the said contention and held thus: -

'...What clause (d) of Section 111 says is that any goods which are imported or attempted to be imported contrary to "any prohibition imposed by any law for the time being in force in this country" is liable to be confiscated. "Any prohibition" referred to in that section applies to every type of "prohibition". That prohibition may be complete or partial. Any restriction on import or export is to an extent a prohibition. The expression "any prohibition" in Section 111(d) of the Customs Act, 1962 includes restrictions. Merely because Section 3 of the Imports and Exports (Control) Act, 1947, uses three different expressions "prohibiting", "restricting" or "otherwise controlling", we cannot cut down the amplitude of the words "any prohibition" in Section 111(d) of the Act. "Any prohibition" means every prohibition. In other words all types of prohibitions. Restrictions is one type of prohibition. From item (I) of Schedule I, Part IV to Import (Control) Order, 1955, it is clear that import of living animals of all sorts is prohibited. But certain exceptions are provided for. But nonetheless the prohibition continues".

5. Going by the bare reading of the said interpretation, it can be said that in the definition of prohibited goods in terms of Section 2(33) of the Customs Act, 1962, any such goods means any such restricted and prohibited goods and not any other goods. It is in this contest the whole analyses of prohibited goods is made by the Hon'ble Apex Court and not in respect of any other goods other than prohibited and restricted goods. Gold being a permitted goods for importation, cannot be said to be restricted goods in applying such an interpretation but ceiling on the maximum quantity that could be imported could never be equated with restriction or prohibition to such importation. Admittedly, appellant's intention to evade duty by suppressing such import is apparent on record for which Commissioner (Appeals) has rightly confirmed fine and penalty under relevant provisions of the Customs Act but absolute confiscation of gold, which is permitted to be imported to India, solely on the ground that it was brought in concealment cannot be said to be in confirmity to law or contradictory to decision of Hon'ble Apex Court given in Om Prakash Bhatia's case. Hence the order.

6. Appeal is dismissed and the Order-in-Original No. 1/SBA/JC/CUS/2014, dated 27-5-2014 passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) is hereby confirmed."

6.9 It is further observed that in respect of absolute confiscation of gold bar, the judgment pronounced on 05.05.2023 in respect of Civil Misc. Review Application No. 156/2022 filed at Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad sitting at Lucknow, by the Commissioner of Customs, Lucknow is relevant wherein the Hon'ble High Court has upheld the decision of Hon'ble Tribunal who had upheld the decision of Commissioner (Appeals) that gold is not prohibited item, it should be offered for redemption in terms of Section 125 of the Customs Act,1962 and thus rejected the review application filed by the Commissioner of Customs, Lucknow . The relevant paras of the judgment are reproduced hereunder:

"16. In the present case, the Commissioner (Appeals) has held that the gold is not a prohibited item, it should be offered for redemption in terms of Section 125 of the Act. The Tribunal has recorded that the respondents had brought impugned Gold from Bangkok to Gaya International Airport without declaring the same to Customs Authorities and there was nothing to explain as to how the Customs authorities posted at Gaya International Airport could not detect such huge quantity of gold being removed from Gaya International Airport by passengers on their arrival and there was no explanation as to how the respondents procured gold before they were intercepted at Mughalsarai Railway Station and the Tribunal has dismissed the Appeals for the aforesaid reason and has affirmed the order passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) holding that the import of gold was not prohibited under the Foreign Trade Policy or any other law and, therefore, there is no sufficient ground for absolute confiscation of the gold.

17. Nothing was placed before this Court to challenge the finding of the Commissioner (Appeals), which was upheld by the Tribunal, that Gold is not a prohibited item, and nothing was placed before this Court to establish that this finding of the Commissioner (Appeals) was wrong or erroneous.

18. Even if the goods in question had been brought into India without following the conditions prescribed therefore and those fall within the category of prohibited condition, Section 125 of the Act provides that the Adjudicating Officer may give to the owner of such goods an option to pay fine in lieu of confiscation. Section 128 A of the Act confers powers on the Commissioner (Appeals) to pass such order, as he thinks just and proper, confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order appealed against. In the present case, the Commissioner (Appeals) has modified the order of absolute confiscation by imposing penalty in lieu thereof, which was well within his power as per Section 128 A. The Tribunal has affirmed the order of the Commissioner (Appeals). This Court dismissed the further Appeal filed by the Department, finding no illegality in the judgment passed by the Tribunal.

19. In view of the aforesaid discussion, we are of the view that the order passed by this Court refusing to interfere with the aforesaid order passed by the Tribunal does not suffer from any error, much less from an error apparent on the face of the record.

20. The review application lacks merits and, accordingly, the same is dismissed. "

6.10 Further, It is observed that in the decision vide Order No.355/2022-CUS (WZ)/ASRA/MUMBAI, dated 07.12.2022of the Principal Commissioner & ex-officio Additional Secretary to Government of India, the Hon'ble Revisionary Authority, after going through the details of the case wherein the passenger had brought 02 gold bars of 01 kg each and 02 gold bars of 10 tolas each totally weighing 2233.2 grams wrapped with white coloured self-adhesive marking tape and concealed in both the watch pockets of black coloured trousers worn by him, relying on various decisions of High Court and Apex Court, has allowed gold to be redeemed on payment of redemption fine. The relevant paras of the order are reproduced hereunder:

"16. Once goods are held to be prohibited, Section 125 still provided discretion to consider release of goods on redemption fine. Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of M/s Raj Grow Impex (CIVIL APPEAL NO(s). 2217-2218 of 2021 Arising out of SLP(C) Nos. 14633-14634 of 2020- Order dated 17.06.2021) has laid down the conditions and circumstances under which such discretion can be used. The same are reproduced below:

71. Thus, when it comes to discretion, the exercise thereof has to be guided by law; has to be according to the rules of reason and justice; and has to be based on the relevant considerations. The exercise of discretion is essentially the discernment of what is right and proper; and such discernment is the critical and cautious judgment of what is correct and proper by differentiating between shadow and substance as also between equity and pretence. A holder of public office, when exercising discretion conferred by the statute, has to ensure that such exercise is in furtherance of accomplishment of the purpose underlying conferment of such power. The requirements of reasonableness, rationality, impartiality, fairness and equity are inherent in any exercise of discretion; such an exercise can never be according to the private opinion.

71.1. It is hardly of any debate that discretion has to be exercised judiciously and, for that matter, all the facts and all the relevant surrounding factors as also the implication of exercise of discretion either way have to be properly weighed and a balanced decision is required to be taken.

17.1 Government further observes that there are catena of judgements, over a period of time, of the Hon'ble Courts and other forums which have been categorical in the view that grant of the option of redemption under Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962 can be exercised in the interest of justice. Government places reliance on some of the judgements as under:

(a) In the case of Commissioner of Customs, Aliganj, Lucknow vs Rajesh Jhamatmal Bhat 2022(382) E.L.T. 345 (All), the Lucknow bench of the Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad, has held at para 22 that "Customs Excise & Service Tax Appellate Tribunal, Allahabad has not committed any error in upholding the order dated 27-8-2018 passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) holding that Gold is not a prohibited item and, therefore, it should be offered for redemption in terms of Section 125 of the Act."

(b) The Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Madras, in the judgement in the case of ShikMastani Bi vs. Principal Commissioner of Customs, Chennai-I [2017(345) E.L.T. 201 (Mad) upheld the order of the Appellate Authority allowing re-export of gold on payment of redemption fine.

(c) The Hon'ble High Court of Kerala at Ernakulam in the case of R. Mohandas vs. Commissioner of Cochin [2016(336) E.L.T. 399 (Ker)] has, observed at para 8 that "The intention of Section 125 is that, after adjudication, the Customs Authority is bound to release the goods to any person from whose custody such goods have been seized...."

(d) Also, in the case of Union of India vs Dhanak M Ramji [2010(252) E.L.T. A102 (SC)], the Hon'ble Apex Court vide its judgement dated 08.03.2010 upheld the decision of the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Bombay [2009(248) E.L.T. 127 (Bom)], and approved redemption of absolutely confiscated goods to the passanger.

18.1 For the reasons cited above, Government finds that this is not a case of impersonation as construed by the lower authorities. Also, for the reasons cited above, it would be inappropriate to term the appellant as habitual offender. In the instant case, the impugned gold bars were kept by the applicant on his person i.e., in the pockets of the pants worn by him. Government observes that sometimes passengers resort to such innovative methods to keep their valuables / precious possessions safe. Also, considering the issue of parity and fairness as mentioned above, Government finds that this is a case of non-declaration of gold.

18.2 Government finds that all these facts have not been properly considered by the lower authorities while absolutely confiscating the (02) two FM gold bars of I kg each and two gold bars of 10 tolas each, totally weighing 2233.2 grams and valued at Rs 58,26,977/-. Also, observing the ratio of the judicial pronouncements cited above, Government arrives at the conclusion that decision to grant the option of redemption would be appropriate in the facts and circumstances of the instant case. Therefore, the Government maintains confiscation of gold bars but allows the impugned gold bars to be redeemed on payment of a redemption fine.

19 The Government finds that the penalty of Rs 6,00,000/- imposed under Section 112 (a) & (b) by the original authority and upheld by the AA is commensurate with the omission and commissions committed. Government finds the quantity of the penalty as appropriate.

20. In view of the above, the Government modifies the OIA passed by the AA to the extent of absolute confiscation of the gold bars i.e. (02) two FM gold bars of I kg each and two gold bars of 10 tolas each, totally weighing 2233.2 grams and valued at Rs 58,26,977/- and grants an option to the applicant to redeem the same on payment of a redemption fine of Rs 12,00,000/- (Rupees Twelve Lakhs only). The penalty of Rs 6,00,000/- imposed by OAA and upheld by AA is sustained.

21 Accordingly, Revision Application is decided on the above terms."

6.11 Further, It is observed that in the recent decision vide Order No 516-517/2023-CUS (WZ)/ASRA/MUMBAI, dated 30.06.2023 of the Principal Commissioner & ex-officio Additional Secretary to Government of India, the Hon'ble Revisionary Authority, after going through the details of the case wherein the passenger was wearing brown coloured cloth belt fastened around her abdomen and when the belt was cut open resulted in recovery of brown coloured powder with water pasted in glue, purported to containing gold weighing 2800 grams (gross). The Hon'ble revisionary authority relying on various decisions of High Court and Apex Court, has allowed gold to be redeemed on payment of redemption fine. The relevant paras of the order are reproduced hereunder:

"10. Once goods are held to be prohibited, Section 125 still provided discretion to consider release of goods on redemption fine. Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of M/s Raj Grow Impex (CIVIL APPEAL NO(s). 2217-2218 of 2021 Arising out of SLP© Nos. 14633-14634 of 2020- Order dated 17.06.2021) has laid down the conditions and circumstances under which such discretion can be used. The same are reproduced below:

71. Thus, when it comes to discretion, the exercise thereof has to be guided by law; has to be according to the rules of reason and justice; and has to be based on the relevant considerations. The exercise of discretion is essentially the discernment of what is right and proper; and such discernment is the critical and cautious judgment of what is correct and proper by differentiating between shadow and substance as also between equity and pretence. A holder of public office, when exercising discretion conferred by the statute, has to ensure that such exercise is in furtherance of accomplishment of the purpose underlying conferment of such power. The requirements of reasonableness, rationality, impartiality, fairness and equity are inherent in any exercise of discretion; such an exercise can never be according to the private opinion.

71.1. It is hardly of any debate that discretion has to be exercised judiciously and, for that matter, all the facts and all the relevant surrounding factors as also the implication of exercise of discretion either way have to be properly weighed and a balanced decision is required to be taken.

11. A plain reading of Section 125 shows that the Adjudicating Authority is bound to give an option of redemption when the goods are not subject to any prohibition. In case of prohibited goods, such as, the gold, the Adjudicating Authority may allow redemption. There is no bar on the Adjudicating Authority allowing redemption of prohibited goods. This exercise of discretion will depend on the nature of goods and the nature of prohibition. For instance, spurious drugs, arms, ammunition, hazardous goods, contaminated flora or fauna, food which does not meet the food safety standards, etc. are harmful to the society if allowed to find their way into the domestic market. On the other hand, release of certain goods on redemption fine, even though the same becomes prohibited as condition of import have not been satisfied, may not be harmful to the society at large. Thus, Adjudicating Authority can allow redemption under Section 125 of any goods which are prohibited either under the Customs Act or any other law on payment of fine.

12.1 Government further observes that there are catena of judgements, over a period of time, of the Hon'ble Courts and other forums which have been categorical in the view that grant of the option of redemption under Section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962 can be excercised in the interest of justice. Government places reliance on some of the judgements as under:

(a) In the case of Commissioner of Customs, Aliganj, Lucknow vs Rajesh Jhamatmal Bhat 2022(382) E.L.T. 345 (All), the Lucknow bench of the Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad, has held at para 22 that "Customs Excise & Service Tax Appellate Tribunal, Allahabad has not committed any error in upholding the order dated 27-8-2018 passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) holding that Gold is not a prohibited item and, therefore, it should be offered for redemption in terms of Section 125 of the Act."

(b) The Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Madras, in the judgement in the case of ShikMastani Bi vs. Principal Commissioner of Customs, Chennai-I [2017(345) E.L.T. 201 (Mad) upheld the order of the Appellate Authority allowing re-export of gold on payment of redemption fine.

(c) The Hon'ble High Court of Kerala at Ernakulam in the case of R. Mohandas vs. Commissioner of Cochin [2016(336) E.L.T. 399 (Ker)] has, observed at para 8 that "The intention of Section 125 is that, after adjudication, the Customs Authority is bound to release the goods to any person from whose custody such goods have been seized...."

(d) Also, in the case of Union of India vs Dhanak M Ramji [2010(252) E.L.T. A102 (SC)], the Hon'ble Apex Court vide its judgement dated 08.03.2010 upheld the decision of the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Bombay [2009(248) E.L.T. 127 (Bom)], and approved redemption of absolutely confiscated goods to the passanger.

12.2 Government, observing the ratios of the above judicial pronouncements, arrives at the conclusion that decision to grant the option of redemption would be appropriate in the facts and circumstances of the instant case.

13 Government notes that the quantity of impugned gold dust (converted into bars) under import, is neither substantial nor in commercial quantity. The appellant claimed ownership of the impugned gold and stated that the same was brought for marriage purpose. There are no other claimants of the said gold. There is no allegation that the appellants are habitual offenders and was involved in similar offence earlier. The fact of the case indicates that it is a case of non-declaration of gold, rather than a case of smuggling for commercial considerations. The absolute confiscation of the impugned gold, leading to dispossession of the gold in the instant case is therefore harsh and not reasonable. Government considers granting an option to the appellant to redeem the gold on payment of a suitable redemption fine, as the same would be more reasonable and judicious.

14. In view of above, the Government modifies the impugned order of the Appellate Authority in respect of the impugned gold seized from the appellant. The seized gold from the appellant 1 i.e. impugned gold bars weighing 1417.6189 grams with purity of 994.40% and 01 muster weighing 19.1384 grams with purity of 981.40%, totally weighing 1478.3415 grams and totally valued at Rs 41,07,735/- is allowed to be redeemed on payment of a fine of Rs 8,10,000/- (Rupees Eight Lakh Ten Thousand only)."

6.12 Further, the Principal Commissioner & ex-officio Additional Secretary to Government of India in the Order No 380/2022-CUS (WZ)/ASRA/MUMBAI, dated 14.12.2022, wherein the applicant was carrying 270 grams of gold dust which has been ingeniously concealed by pasting it with glue in between two T shirt worn by him, had finally held that since the appellant is not a habitual offender and was not involved in the similar offence earlier and it is a case of non-declaration of gold, rather than a case of smuggling for commercial considerations. With this observation absolute confiscation was set aside and gold was allowed to be redeemed on payment of redemption fine

6.13 Further, the Principal Commissioner & ex-officio Additional Secretary to Government of India in the Order No 67/2023-CUS (WZ)/ASRA/MUMBAI, dated 30.01.2023,on recovery of two gold bars of 01 kg each and 02 gold bars of 10 tolas each concealed in the pant worn, totally weighing 2232 grams valued at Rs 58,23,846/- upheld the decision of Appellate Authority allowing redemption of gold bars on payment of redemption fine of Rs 11,00,000/- and upheld the penalty of Rs 6,00,000/- imposed by the Original Adjudicating Authority and upheld by the Appellate Authority observing that the concealment was not ingenious, the passenger was not habitual offender and involved in the similar offence earlier, there was nothing on record that he was part of an organised smuggling syndicate. The Government found that this was a case of non-declaration of gold and held that absolute confiscation of the impugned gold leading to dispossession of gold would be harsh and not reasonable. With this observation the order of Appellate Authority granting an option to redeem the gold on payment of redemption fine was upheld.

6.14 Further, the Principal Commissioner & ex-officio Additional Secretary to Government of India in the recent decision vide Order No 68/2024-CUS (WZ)/ASRA/MUMBAI, dated 24.01.2024, in the case of Mr Kasmani Asif Abdul Aziz wherein the passenger had kept three gold kadiwali chains and two gold pendants in a transparent plastic pouch kept in pant pocket totally weighing 1200 grams of 24 kt having 999.0 purity valued at Rs. 35,22,816/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 39,02,400/- (Market value) had finally held that since quantum of gold is not commercial and the applicant was in possession of invoice for purchase of gold jewellary, concealment was not ingenious, the passanger is not a habitual offender and was not involved in the similar offence earlier and not a part of organised smuggling syndicate, it is a case of non-declaration of gold, rather than a case of smuggling for commercial considerations. With this observation absolute confiscation was set aside and gold was allowed to be redeemed on payment of redemption fine.

6.15 In view of above decisions of the Principal Commissioner & ex-officio Additional Secretary to Government of India, I am of the considered view that in present case also there is no allegation that the appellant is habitual offender and was involved in similar offence earlier. The appellant was not a part of organised smuggling syndicate. The appellant during adjudication as recorded in the impugned order has submitted that she brought the said gold from her personal savings for personal use and at the material time she was carrying original invoices also. She also submitted that the gold was brought for her personal and for her Family and gold is not in commercial quantity. She also submitted that she is residing at Dubai Since 1996. Thus, there is no dispute in respect of the ownership of the seized gold. The appellant was not a carrier. There is nothing on record to suggest that the conccalment was ingenious. The investigation of the case has not brought any smuggling angle but the investigation suggest that this is case of non-declaration of gold with intention of non-payment of Customs duty. Further, a copy of appeal memorandum was forwarded to the adjudicating authority for his comment and submission of case laws on similar matter but no reply was received till date. The fact of the present case also indicates that it is a case of non-declaration of gold, rather than a case of smuggling for commercial consideration. The absolute confiscation of impugned gold, leading to dispossession of the gold in the instant case is, therefore, harsh. Therefore, following the decisions of Principal Commissioner & ex-officio Additional Secretary to Government of India, the decision of Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad sitting at Lucknow in the Civil Misc Review Application No 156/2022 filed by Commissioner of Customs, Lucknow, and the decision of Hon'ble Tribunal, Ahmedabad and Mumbai as detailed in the above paras, I am of the considered view that the absolute confiscation of five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs. 20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market Value) is harsh. I, therefore, set aside the absolute confiscation ordered by the adjudicating authority in the impugned order and allow redemption of five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs. 20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market Value), on payment of fine of Rs4,00,000/- in addition to and any other charges payable in respect of the goods as per Section 125(2) of the Customs Act, 1962.

6.16 In respect of request for re-export of the impugned gold, it is observed that the appellant was holding Resident Identity Card ID Number 784-1969-8546146-4 of United Arab Emirates valid upto 04.06.2026. The appellant had claimed ownership of gold and desired to take it back. I have also gone through the recent decision vide Order No 404-405/2023-CUS (WZ)/ASRA/MUMBAI dated 30.03.2023 of the Principal Commissioner & ex-officio Additional Secretary to Government of India, the Hon'ble Revisionary Authority, after observing that the passenger was having resident status of Doha/Qatar, allowed re-export of goods. In view of above, I allow re-export of seized gold on payment of redemption fine as discussed above and any other charges payable in respect of the impugned gold.

6.17 Further, in respect of quantum of penalty amounting to Rs 2,00,000/- imposed on the appellant for non-declaration of seized five gold bars, having purity of 999.0, totally weighing 583.200 Grams, valued at Rs. 20,76,775/- (Tariff value) and Rs. 24,45,358/- (Market Value), I am of the considered view, that the penalty of Rs 2,00,000/- imposed on the appellant under Section 112(a)(i) of the Customs Act, 1962, in the impugned order by the adjudicating authority, is appropriate as per provisions of Section 112(a)(i) of the Customs Act, 1962 and commensurate with the omissions and commissions of the appellant. Therefore, the penalty of Rs 2,00,000/- imposed by the adjudicating authority is upheld.

6.18 The fine and penalty of the above amount will not only eliminate any profit margin, if any, but will also have a positive effect on the applicant to ensure strict compliance of law in future.

7. In view of above the appeal filed by the appellant is disposed of in the above terms.
