4.1. Since during examination, items has been found undeclared and certain items, as detailed in Table-B and C above, have been found to be misdeclared in terms of quantity, there appears to be reason to doubt the truth or accuracy of the value declared in relation to the impugned imported goods. Therefore, the declared assessable value of the goods cannot be considered as transaction value under the provisions of Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with the provisions of the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Imported Goods) Rules, 2007 (CVR, 2007) and thus, the same is liable to be rejected in terms of Rule 12 of CVR, 2007. 8 of CVR, 2007. Hence, the value is to be determined under Rule 9 (Residual method) of CVR, 2007 which is reproduced as under:

“9. Residual method.-

(1) Subject to the provisions of rule 3, where the value of imported goods cannot be determined under the provisions of any of the preceding rules, the value shall be determined using reasonable means consistent with the principles and general provisions of these rules and on the basis of data available in India;

Provided that the value so determined shall not exceed the price at which such or like goods are ordinarily sold or offered for sale for delivery at the time and place of importation in the course of international trade, when the seller or buyer has no interest in the business of other and price is the sole consideration for the sale or offer for sale.

(2) No value shall be determined under the provisions of" this rule on the basis of-

- i. the selling price in India of the goods produced in India;
- ii. a system which provides for the acceptance for customs purposes of the highest of the two alternative values;
- iii. the price of the goods on the domestic market of the country of exportation;
- iv. the cost of production other than computed values which have been determined for identical or similar goods in accordance with the provisions of rule 8;
- v. the price of the goods for the export to a country other than India;
- vi. minimum customs values; or
- vii. arbitrary or fictitious values.”

TOTAL			2786785				1019048

In view of the above, it is found that the Total Suggestive assessable value of the imported goods is Rs. 27,86,785/- instead of declared assessable value of 7,62,276/- at the exchange rate of 1 USD=89.5 INR. Hence, there is difference of Rs. 20,24,509/- between the re-determined assessable value and the declared assessable value.

6 . 3 In view of the foregoing paras and investigation conducted in the matter, it is noticed that the impugned goods have been mis-declared by the importer in terms of quantity, description, classification and valuation. Therefore, it appears that the importer has contravened the provisions of Section 17 and Section 46 of the Customs Act, 1962 in as much as they have failed to make correct and true declaration/information in the subject Bill of Entry. These acts of omission and commission on the part of importer has made the impugned goods having re-determined assessable value of Rs. 27,86,785/-liable for confiscation under Section 111 (l) and 111 (m) of the Customs Act, 1962 and hence, rendered the importer liable for penal action under Section 112(a)(ii) of the said Act. Furthermore, it appears that by mis-declaring the value of the subject goods under import, the importer has also short declared the duty amounting to Rs. 7,42,794/-.

6.4 Further, in terms of Section 46(4) of the Customs Act, 1962, the importer is required to make a declaration as to the truth of the contents of the Bill of Entry submitted for assessment of Customs duty. In the present case, it appears that the importer has tried to clear the goods by way of mis-declaration and undervaluation in order to avoid duty on higher assessable value. Hence, it appears that the importer had knowingly involved themselves in the suppression of the material facts and also indulged in mis-statement of facts. These acts of omission and commission on part of the importer have rendered them liable for penalty under Section 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962.

8. Summary of Investigation Conducted:

8.1. The importer M/s. RISHSAUR DYNAMIC PRIVATE LIMITED (IEC: AANCR0331H) had filed Bill of Entry No. 5657810 dtd. 12.11.2025 at Mundra Port for import of goods declared as Mix items as listed in the Bill of Entry having declared assessable value of Rs. 7,62,276/- and declared duty of Rs. 2,76,254/-. The goods were examined by the officers of SIIB and found that the some items were found mis-declared in terms of quantity/ declaration and some items were also found which were not declared in the Bill of Entry by the importer. Further, the assessable value of the subject consignment has been re-determined as Rs.27,86,785/-on the basis of CE Opinion Certificate dated 25.02.2026 in view of Rule 9 of the CVR, 2007, on which applicable duty comes to Rs. 10,19,048/- as detailed in Table-E above resulting in differential duty of Rs. 7,42,794/-.

8.2. The importer has thus contravened Section 17 and Section 46 of the Customs Act, 1962 and the CVR, 2007 in as much as they failed to make correct declarations in the subject Bill of Entry filed by them and correctly assess their duty liability. It further appears that the importer has tried to clear the goods by way of mis-declaration/ undervaluation in order to avoid duty on higher assessable value. Hence, it appears that the importer had knowingly involved themselves in the suppression of the material facts and also indulged in mis-statement of facts. These acts of omission and commission on the part of importer has made the subject goods having re-determined assessable value of Rs. 27,86,785/- liable for confiscation under Section 111(l) and 111 (m) of the Custom Act, 1962 and rendered the importer liable for penal action under Section 112(a)(ii) and 114 AA of the said Act.

9. The importer M/s.RISHSAUR DYNAMIC PRIVATE LIMITED vide their email dated 25.02.2026 has accepted the observation of mis-declaration and submitted that they are ready to pay the differential duty along with applicable penalty. Further, the importer vide the above statement has accepted the valuation report submitted by the CE and submitted that they don't want any Show Cause Notice and Personal Hearing in the matter.

10. In view of the above facts, it appears that –

- i. The declared assessable value of the goods in Bill of Entry No. 5657810 dtd. 12.11.2025 i.e. Rs. 7,62,276/- is liable to be rejected under Rule 12 of the CVR, 2007 and the same is required to be re-determined as Rs. 27,86,785/- as opined in the CE Opinion Certificate dated 13.11.2025 in view of Rule 9 of the CVR, 2007;
- ii. The above said Bill of Entry is liable to be re-assessed accordingly under Section 17(4) of the Customs Act, 1962 on which applicable duty comes to Rs. 10,19,048/- as detailed in Table-E above resulting in differential duty of Rs. 7,42,794/-;
- iii. The impugned goods imported by way of undervaluation and having re-determined assessable value of Rs. 27,86,785/-, are in contravention of Section 46 of the Customs Act, 1962 and therefore, liable for confiscation under Section 111 (l) and 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962;
- iv. The importer M/s.RISHSAUR DYNAMIC PRIVATE LIMITED (IEC: AANCR0331H) is liable for penalty under Section 112(a)(ii) and 114 AA of the Customs Act, 1962.

WAIVER OF SHOW CAUSE NOTICE AND PERSONAL HEARING

11. The importer submitted, vide their letter dated 03.04.2026, that:

“with reference to the above-mentioned subject, we would like to inform you that the subject Bill of Entry filed by us which was held for further investigation purposes. The investigation has now been completed, and the file has been put up for adjudication.

In this regard, we respectfully request your good office to kindly waive the issuance of a Show Cause Notice and Personal Hearing and decide the matter on merits. We hereby undertake to abide by the decision taken by your good office in this matter.”

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

12. I have carefully gone through the records of the case and Investigation Report No. 06/2026-27 dated 02.04.2026. The importer vide their email dated 03.04.2026 has requested for waiver of Show Cause Notice and personal hearing in the matter. Thus, I find that the principles of natural justice as provided under Section 122A of the Customs Act, 1962 have been complied with and I proceed to decide the case on the basis of documentary evidence available on record. The main issues to be decided are:

(i) Whether the description, classification, quantity and unit price of certain impugned goods covered under Bill of Entry No. 5657810 (Z-Type) dated 12.11.2025 need to be amended as per Table-B to E;

(ii) Whether the declared assessable value of Rs. 7,62,276/- for the goods under Bill of Entry No. 5657810 (Z-Type) dated 12.11.2025 is liable to be rejected under Rule 12 of CVR, 2007 and re-determined as Rs. 27,86,785/- as per the Chartered Engineer's valuation report in terms of Rule 9 of CVR, 2007;

(iii) Whether the Bill of Entry No. 5657810 (Z-Type) dated 12.11.2025 requires re-assessment under Section 17(4) of the Customs Act, 1962 to levy the re-determined duty;

(iv) Whether the goods are liable for confiscation under Sections 111(l) and 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962;

(v) Whether penalties under Sections 112(a)(ii) and 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962 are imposable on the importer M/s. Rishasaur Dynamic.

13.1 Regarding the first issue, I find that the consignment covered under Bill of Entry No. 5656067 dated 12.11.2025 was subjected to 100% examination by SIIB officers on the basis of specific intelligence. The examination brought out several material discrepancies between the declared particulars and the actual goods found. It is observed that certain goods declared in the Bill of Entry, such as "Empty Bottle for Glue Paste", were not found at all during examination, indicating incorrect declaration. Further, several goods were found in quantities different from those declared, with items such as "Only Middle Parts for Mobile Phone Housing" and "Screen Protector for Mobile Phone" found in excess quantity, while items like "Mini Stand for Laptop" were found short, thereby establishing that the declared quantities do not reflect the actual import. Additionally, certain goods namely "Watch Battery Button", "Battery for Transistor Radio" and "Collar Clip Button Microphone" were found during examination but were not declared in the Bill of Entry, and in some cases, goods were mis-declared in description, such as "Watch Battery Button" being declared as "Car Remote Accessories"

13.2 I find that such discrepancies are not minor or clerical errors but are substantial in nature and directly impact the assessment of duty. The presence of undeclared goods and excess quantities clearly indicates that the importer has not made a full and true declaration as required under law. In terms of Section 46 of the Customs Act, 1962, the importer is mandatorily required to make a correct and complete declaration regarding the description, quantity and value of goods. The failure to do so renders the declaration invalid.

13.3 Therefore, in view of the above findings, I find that the description, classification and quantity of the impugned goods have been incorrectly declared in the Bill of Entry and are liable to be amended as per the findings recorded in Table-B to Table-E of this order.

14.1 Regarding the second issue, I find that the mis-declaration of quantity coupled with the presence of undeclared goods creates a reasonable and justified doubt regarding the truth and accuracy of the declared transaction value. It is a settled principle under valuation law that the declared value can be accepted only when it reflects the actual transaction value and is free from any doubt.

14.2 In the present case, the declared assessable value of Rs. 7,62,276/- is found to be grossly understated when compared with the re-determined value of Rs. 27,86,785/-. Such a substantial difference cannot be attributed to normal commercial variation and clearly indicates that the declared value does not represent the actual value of the goods. The mis-declaration in quantity and concealment of three item further, as discussed in Para 14 above, strengthens the doubt regarding valuation, as quantity and value are intrinsically linked.

14.3 In terms of Rule 12 of the Customs Valuation (Determination of Value of Imported Goods) Rules, 2007, where the proper officer has reason to doubt the truth or accuracy of the declared value, the same is liable to be rejected. In the present case, I find that the discrepancies in quantity (excess goods found and certain goods not found) clearly gives rise to a reasonable doubt regarding the declared value.

14.4 I further find that once the declared value is rejected under Rule 12, the valuation is required to be determined sequentially under Rules 4 to 9 of CVR, 2007. In the present case, due to the mixed nature of goods and absence of contemporaneous data of identical or similar goods with matching specifications, valuation under Rules 4 and 5 is not feasible. Similarly, Rules 7 and 8 are also not applicable in absence of requisite data regarding deductive or computed value.

14.5 Accordingly, I find that the valuation has been rightly determined under Rule 9 (Residual Method) of CVR, 2007, based on reasonable means consistent with the principles of valuation rules. The opinion of the empanelled Chartered Engineer has been obtained, who has assessed the CIF value of the goods at Rs. 27,86,785/-, as against the declared value of Rs. 7,62,276/-.

14.6 I also find that the said Chartered Engineer's report has been shared with the importer and has been accepted by them without any contest. The importer has also expressed willingness to pay the differential duty.

14.7 Therefore, I hold that the declared assessable value is liable to be rejected under Rule 12 and re-determined as Rs. 27,86,785/- under Rule 9 of the Customs Valuation Rules, 2007 read with Section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962.

15.1 Regarding the third issue, I find that the importer has filed the Bill of Entry under self-assessment as provided under Section 17(1) of the Customs Act, 1962. However, it has been established through examination and investigation that the goods have been misdeclared in terms of quantity, value and classification, resulting in incorrect self-assessment of duty.

15.2 In terms of Section 17(4) of the Customs Act, 1962, where it is found on verification or examination that the self-assessment is not done correctly, the proper officer is empowered to re-assess the duty leviable on such goods.

15.3 Based on the re-determined value, the total duty payable works out to Rs. 10,19,048/-, as against Rs. 2,76,254/- already paid by the importer. This results in a differential duty of Rs. 7,42,794/-, which has not been discharged by the importer at the time of filing of the Bill of Entry. The short payment of duty is directly attributable to mis-declaration and undervaluation of goods.

15.4 Accordingly, I find that the Bill of Entry is liable to be re-assessed under Section 17(4) and the differential duty of Rs 7,42,794/- is recoverable under Section 28 of the Customs Act, 1962.

16.1 Regarding the fourth issue, I find that the importer is under a statutory obligation, in terms of Section 46 of the Customs Act, 1962, to file a Bill of Entry containing true, correct and complete particulars of the imported goods, including their description, classification, quantity and value. Further, under Section 17(1) of the Act, the importer is required to self-assess the duty leviable on such goods correctly based on such declaration.

16.2 In the present case, I find that the importer has failed to fulfil the above statutory obligations. The examination conducted by SIIB has brought on record that certain goods declared in the Bill of Entry were not found at all during physical verification, while several other goods were found in quantities substantially different from those declared. More importantly, goods as detailed in Table-C were found in the consignment which were not declared in the Bill of Entry at all.

16.3 I find that the requirement under Section 46 of the Customs Act, 1962 is that the importer must make a true, correct and complete declaration of all goods imported. The declaration must accurately reflect the description, quantity, value and other relevant particulars of the goods. In the present case, the importer has failed to comply with this statutory obligation. The discrepancies noticed are not minor variations but are material in nature, affecting both the identity and valuation of the goods. The presence of undeclared goods, coupled with significant variation in declared and found quantities, clearly establishes that the goods do not correspond with the declaration made.

16.4 In terms of Section 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962, any goods which do not correspond in respect of value or in any other particular with the entry made under the Act are liable to confiscation. The expression "any other particular" has a wide ambit and includes discrepancies in quantity, description and declaration. In the present case, the goods fail to correspond with the declared particulars on multiple counts, thereby squarely attracting the provisions of Section 111(m).

16.5 Further, I find that certain goods were found in excess of those declared in the Bill of Entry, and certain goods were not declared at all. In terms of Section 111(l) of the Customs Act, 1962, any dutiable goods which are not included or are in excess of those included in the entry made under the Act are liable to confiscation. The presence of undeclared goods as well as excess quantity of declared goods squarely attracts the provisions of Section 111(l).

17.1 Regarding fifth issue of imposition of penalty, I find that the facts of the present case clearly establish that the importer has rendered the goods liable to confiscation under Sections 111(l) and 111(m) of the Customs Act, 1962 by way of mis-declaration of quantity, non-declaration of certain goods and undervaluation of the consignment. As discussed in the preceding paragraphs, the discrepancies noticed are substantial and material in nature and directly affect the assessment of duty.

17.2 In terms of Section 112(a)(ii) of the Customs Act, 1962, any person who, by any act or omission, renders goods liable to confiscation under Section 111 is liable to penalty. Since in the present case the goods have been held liable for confiscation under Sections 111(l) and 111(m), the importer squarely falls within the ambit of Section 112(a)(ii).

17.3 Further, I find that the importer has filed a Bill of Entry containing incorrect and incomplete particulars and has thereby used a declaration which is false in material particulars. In terms of Section 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962, any person who knowingly or intentionally makes, signs or uses any declaration, statement or document which is false or incorrect in any material particular is liable to penalty. The presence of undeclared goods and significant variation in declared and actual quantities clearly establishes that the declaration filed was incorrect in material particulars.

17.4 I also note that the importer has accepted the findings of mis-declaration and valuation and has agreed to pay the differential duty along with applicable penalties. While such acceptance may be considered as a mitigating factor at the stage of quantification, it does not absolve the importer of penal liability arising out of the violations committed.

17.5 Accordingly, I find that the importer M/s. Rishsaur Dynamic Private Limited is liable for imposition of penalty under Sections 112(a)(ii) and 114AA of the Customs Act, 1962.
